Sectional View of Miller's "New Model" Vibrating Thresher.

MANUFACTURED BY THE JOSEPH HALL MANUFACTURING CO., OSHAWA, ONT.

The Most Perfect Thresher, the Most Perfect Separator, the Most Perfect Cleaner Ever Offered to the Public. The Only True Grain Saver.

BLACK CREEK, Sept. 17th, 1882.
F. W. GLEN, Esq., Oshawa: DEAR SIR,—Talk about threshing! I have threshed and have been around threshing machines for the last fifteen years, and I have seen some good machines, but this "New Model" I got of you is ahead of any I ever saw Canada. It is perfect in every respect. I never was as well satisfied with a machine as I am with this. I could say more, but think that this is sufficient. Yours very truly, HENRY M. WEAVER.

Descriptive Circulars, giving Full Information, Sent Free to All Applicants.

PRINCE ALBERT, Dec. 18th, 1882 (To the Editor of the Port Perry Standard.) SIR,—I desire to call the attention of the farmers of this vicinity to a new Threshing Machine made by the Joe. Hall Manufacturing Co., of Oshawa, called the New Model Vi-brator. Mr. Jos. Vickery bought one of these machines and threshed for me four days this winter and gave me entire satisfaction. With the construction of the screens, vibrating motions and other attachments, I think it utterly impossible for any grain to be wasted, and am fully convinced in my own mind that it has saved me double the price of threshing in the sowing of grain this season. It cleans the grain perfectly and threshes very rapidly. It is the most perfect thresher I have ever seen or used.
It is a real grain saver. Yours truly, JOHN McDONALD.

BLACK CREEK, Nov. 13th, 1882.
R. F. W. GLEN:
DEAR SIR,—I thought I would write to you and tell you how I got along with the "New Model" Thresher I got of you last summer. I will tell you the truth and nothing but the truth—the machine has given me perfect satisfaction wherever I have threshed. I could not begin to thresh for all who wanted me, and could have had jobs enough for two machines if I had had them. The farmers whom I have threshed for say that the "New Model" is the only perfect machine they have ever had thresh for.
Yours truly,
JOSEPH SHERK.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SALEM.

The following is the report of the standing of scholars, in general proficiency, in the various classes in the school of section No. 9, for the quarter ending March 31st, 1883. Names in order of merit: Fourth Class—Carrie Grigg, Fred Clemens, Robert Pollard. Third Class—Tilly Prout, Minnie McFeeters, Ida McLean, Luke Buttery, Emma Cornish, Walter Morris. Second Class—John Aldsworth, Frank Aldsworth, Ida Cornish, Alice Aldsworth, Lonnie Prior, Jennie Hocken, Jennie Symons, Edith Stevens, Annie Cullis, George Prior, Hattie Prior, Fred.
Morris. Many, from the severity of the weather, have been prohibited from regular attendance, and consequently do not stand as high as their work, when present, would lead us to expect.
R. C. SINCLAIR, Teacher.

ENNISKILLEN.

Another of our villagers has been carried to the last resting place. Mrs.
Thompson, a well-known resident, aged about eighty, died after a short illness on Sunday, 24th ult.
A great many of our villagers are engaged in moving this week. Mr. E. Greenaway has become one of our citizens by taking possession of Mr. Wm. Bingham's former residence, which he purchased lately.
The congregations of the Presbyterian church, Williamsburg and Enniskillen, have shown the manner in which they appreciate the services of their pastor—the Rev. Mr. Atkinson—by an increase to his salary for the ensuing year of $100.
A number of our neighbors have been down to Cobourg this week as witnesses on a trial.

PROVIDENCE.

Mr. Thomas Smale has a severe attack of rheumatism; he has been laid up about three weeks. He is no better yet.
Mr. Ralph Dowson has been under the doctor's care; he is better and able to be out.
Mr. Fred Allin has taken unto himself a wife. We advise some of our older bachelors to go and do likewise.
Wood bees have been all the rage here lately. Mr. Edward Dowson has been busy sharpening saws—his work at the bees.
Mr. John Elford has purchased a two-year-old stallion from Mr. William Oger.
He is sired by Royal Exchange, and is a very handsome colt.
Ba-ba-ba, so says your Orono correspondent in reference to Mr. Tamblin's ewe having three lambs. Mr. John El-ford had four lambs from one ewe, three of them are living and doing well.

ALPHONSO.

SOLINA.

There are rumors of weddings in the near future.
Cattle buyers have secured nearly all the beeves in this locality at fair prices.
Miss S. Morris, of Bowmanville, has been visiting at Roselandvale Farm and having a gay time.
Miss Abbie Vannest, our accomplished pianist, has been visiting in company with Miss Julia Bray, of Enfield, friends in Toronto.
Master Harry Reynolds, second son of Mr. Edwin Reynolds, broke his collar bone on the 28th ult. while wrestling with Master Frank Hooley.
Rev. E. Roberts, of Toronto, was greeted with a very large congregation here on Sunday 25th ult. The shake of his hand and the familiar smile made our hearts feel glad. His earnest discourse will not soon be forgotten. A good collection in behalf of the Juvenile Mission Fund was contributed.

The following domestic occurrences have taken place during the past quarter: Mrs.
Thos. Baker, of a son; Mrs. John Vice, of a son; Mrs. Geo. Vice, of a son; Mrs.
W. Batten, of a daughter; Mrs. W. Ashton, of a son; Mrs. Thos. Ward, of a daughter; Mrs. W. Gilbert, of a son. It is a good thing there is a North-west.
The following removals are noted: Mr.
A. J. Reynolds, teacher, from Solina to Hampton; Mr. E. Reynolds has succeeded him in Hillside Cottage; Mr. D. Montgomery has moved into the brick house recently vacated by Geo. Washington, Esq.; Mr. S. Northcott has taken possession of the farm recently owned and occupied by Mr. Montgomery; Mr. Russell, of Cobourg, has moved on to Mr. W.
H. Elford's farm; Mr. Friend, of Clarke, on to Mr. John Elford's farm; Mr. John Elford is moving with his sons to Dakota; Mr. W. H. Elford will shortly remove to the North-west; Mr. Alex. Hooley has moved from Mr. J. W. Werry's farm into Mr. R. Libby's residence, corner King and College Avenue. There is only one vacant house in our populous village.
None but teetotal Liberals need apply.
Mr. W. Batten has purchased the Post Office Block and surroundings, having decided to reside permanently amongst us and launch out ambitiously in the tailoring business. He has also bought the old Eldad frame chapel, and will re-erect it on the east side of his store for a workshop.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.—The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetters, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and Positively cures Piles. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. Higginbotham & Son.

We are Convincing the public that no competitor can undersell us. Ellison & Co.

CARTWRIGHT.

The social held here on March 29th, was a success financially and otherwise. The young people of Hampton entertained us with music. Second rate, you ask? Well, "No sir." It was immense. Rev. Mr.
Wilkinson rendered two well selected readings, and also sang a few pieces. The Tyrone and Hampton ladies are, in our opinion, capable of entertaining any audience with their music. May we soon see their smiling faces once again.
The Y. P. A. of the burg is defunct.
No. 4 on Church street east has been purchased for something over $1,200 by Mr. J. Smale, of Bowmanville. He will do an extensive business in the boot and shoe line. Mr. Jeffrey purposes moving to England about the 1st of May.
Master Asa Spinks, a son of the execree, is recovering from diphtheria.
Dr. Moore is in a low condition.
Score throat is the most prevalent article of commerce this week.
Mr. Morris has gone to Manitoba. We wish him every success. LOVETTA.

ORONO.

Candid's letter of last week may be divided into three parts, viz.: A denial of a few statements made by me in your issue of March 16th; a number of charges against my character which any individual not a christian might bring against another and which compliments the accused quite as much as the author; and lastly, a manifest desire to keep the real truth concealed. As Candid was no doubt the mouthpiece of the farmer, who for suspicious reasons appears to think that he was alluded to on March 16th, I will speak of them as if they were one and the same person. I feel a natural pity for Candid that he should step out and become such a willing target; I do not profess to be a straight shot, but any one who could strike the side of a barn in this case would be a good enough shot to hit the bull's-eye. I do not wish however to take undue advantage so I will put the best side out. At the outset one would naturally infer from the explosion that either the corns of some worldly man had been severely tramped, or if a christian-ian's corns, then one either insane or specially gifted with the privilege of suspending christian principles to accomplish a certain end. If any one doubted the truth of my statements they now plainly see that they are not altogether unfounded. If Candid had been worthy of his assumed name he would have candidly confessed the whole truth; if he were more sensible he could understand that a correspondent in concealing his identity commits an act not many degrees worse than one who first denounces the act and then commits it; if he had been more politic, as no doubt he will be in future he would have allowed this matter to rest. It was more amusing than alarming to read that "there was more hope for a fool than for me," doubtless, this was an allusion to his own hopes; beneath the foam of his wrath it was easy to see that "he thanked God that he was not like other men." The story as told by me on March 16th had free circulation before it reached my ears, then like a dutiful correspondent I wrote it as I heard it; its spirit, which Candid was too candid to deny and not candid enough to confess, I have since learned upon good authority to be correct, but granting that both its spirit and words were contrary to the facts of the case, it were still a difficult matter to prove me "a creature so void of truth and honesty as to construe nearly every line I write into falsehood, etc., etc.," with no greater evidence than this, the greatest charge that a wise man would prefer would be that of carelessness; if Candid had not been rendered so wild by my near approach to the truth, and had modified his reckless charges or sought a stronger foundation for them he might have succeeded better in his christian-like attempt to convince the public of my relationship to Belial. The beam that he discovered in my eye was too large to secure for him sympathy in his remarks; it was as large as that discovered by an unprincipled man in the eye of one who has exposed some of his base acts, if he had been less anxious to push me into the river, he might not have fallen in himself. Candid stated that the farmer "alluded to" never called upon Mr. P. that day nor asked him to thresh pease at any time, leaving the reader to guess that he called upon him some day before that and engaged him to saw wood on that day, (election day).
For fear that the public would think that I had approached the truth, he left a little more to their guessing ability: Mr. P. was engaged to saw wood on Monday, (the day before the election).
When election day came in sight the farmer called on Mr. P. and asked him if he could come on Tuesday instead of Monday, as he was going away that day and wished the saw to be kept a going.
He was very careful not to say where he was going or remind Mr. P. in any way that he was going to cast his vote. As before stated, Mr. P. was conveyed to the polls, and I will just add that by request of his employer he was sworn before his vote was taken. These points similar in spirit to the former will not be denied.

In conclusion, as he gave me some friendly advice, I will return the compliment: Stick to your plow, or if you will again enter the literary field keep perfectly cool, so that you may bring into play your whole talent. SAMMLER.

Diseases. $1. Druggists.

KIRBY.

Mr. Robt. Gray, of "Woodside Cottage," has gone to reside in the Capital. May success follow you and overtake you, too, Bob.
The Sheppard Bros., have moved on their newly-leased premises to guard the flock entrusted to their care.
Mr. George Kelly, of "vanity fair," has left toward the regions inhabited by the polar bear. Home, sweet home.
Mr. Thos. Henderson has purchased a trotting horse. Judging from the symmetry and actions of the beast it is not at all unlikely that we shall hear from it again.
The country is now besieged by farmers in search of laborers. The lad who has but lately shed his knickerbockers says with a weary smile that he is expecting $20 per month, while those who can hardly be called men politely ask from $23 to $25. This makes the farmer look blue, while the laborer of course is in the seventh heaven of delight. SCOUR.

TOWN COUNCIL.

Regular meeting Monday night, Mayor presiding. Members all present except Mr. Porter. Minutes read and confirmed.
Prof. Ruse asked to have his taxes remitted for 1881, which he holds were wrongly collected. Referred to Court of Revision.
The D. O. & P. Co. Band asked for use of Town Hall at reduced rate. Granted. Mr.
Milne asked for an explanation in reference to the "sale of liquor in groceries." As the Mayor had given the explanation the communications were ordered to be filed.
The Finance, Fire and Poor Relief Committee presented their reports, which were adopted. Mr. Younie was appointed chairman of Roads and Streets in the absence of Mr. Porter. Mr. Glover gave notice that he wished to be relieved from the engagement to furnish a team for the fire engine. Messrs. Keith and Vann, auditors, were allowed a claim of $5 each for services in 1881. A resolution was passed instructing the Mayor and Clerk to forward a petition to the Post Master General asking for a Monday morning mail.
Council adjourned at 9:15 p.m.

THE Pickering News is a real live local paper now, and it looks much better since it has been printed on white paper.

THE Globe shows that the Liberal majorities amount to 10,563, and the Tory majorities 7,399, giving the Reformers a popular majority of upwards of 3,000 votes.

We have been fortunate in securing on our exchange list the Young Scientist—a practical scientific journal for boys and girls.
We strongly advise all our boy readers to send 25 cents in stamps for four back numbers. They will instruct you how to use a variety of tools and instruments.
Address, 49 Maiden Lane, N.Y.

An eastern merchant who never advertises was found dead on the counter in his body had lain there for several days before being discovered.

THE vote of the Quarterly Boards of the Methodist Church of Canada on the question of Methodist Union shows that 614 Boards have adopted the Basis of Union, and 81 Boards have declared against it, while 10 of the Boards are evenly divided. The analysis of the total vote is as follows:—Toronto Conference, 211 yeas, 16 nays, 3 ties; London Conference, 207 yeas, 22 nays, 1 tie; Montreal Conference, 107 yeas, 37 nays, 4 ties; Nova Scotia Conference, 37 yeas, 12 nays, 1 tie; New Brunswick Conference, 43 yeas, 2 nays, 1 tie; Newfoundland Conference, 4 yeas, 2 nays.

THE Weekly Messenger and Temperance Worker is a cheap illustrated family temperance and religious journal, containing a large amount of facts, figures and information in regard to all the temperance organizations and every department of the temperance work, such as every intelligent temperance worker should be supplied with. It is well adapted to interest and instruct the young people.
Samples are sent free to all desiring to see them, and reliable agents are wanted everywhere. Published at the Witness
