COURTICE

On Wednesday afternoon and evening, September 29th the annual chicken pie supper and concert under auspices of the Ladies' Berean Class was held at Ebenezer Church. About 5 p. m. the tables being laden with cakes, pumpkin pie, etc., and the first course of chicken pie, and hot potatoes and salads etc., the guests began to partake of the supper and crowds of people were served from then until 8 p. m., when a first-class concert was given in church. Miss Gertrude Hood, Port Perry, Elocutionist, was well received and her numbers bright and lively and kept the audience in laughter much of the time. The solos by Miss Alma Courtice, Chicago, Cyril Weyrich, Oshawa, were enjoyed by all as was also the guitar music by Miss Elsie Crago and Mr. Hubert Osborne, Bowmanville, and piano solos by Master George Werry, Solina, who is quite a young artist and played his selections exceptionally well. Miss Louise Courtice of Ebenezer, also gave one selection in elocution which pleased the audience. Proceeds $325.00 and much praise has been given the ladies of Ebenezer on the excellent supper served. Mr. John Scott with his son and daughter of Listowel, and his niece of Kansas City, called on Mrs. W. R. Courtice last week. Mr. Scott who is now 91 years old and is very active and bright, owned W. R. Courtice's home many years ago before the late Jas. Courtice resided there and he visits the old home once a year just for the sake of old times. Miss Alma Courtice has returned to Chicago after spending some weeks with relatives here. Glad to be able to note improvement in Mr. Clarence Penfound who is in Bowmanville Hospital and hope he may soon recover entirely from his sickness. Mrs. A. F. Rundle and Miss Annie Holt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Courtice and Miss M. W. R. Courtice and Miss M. W. R. Courtice motored out to Lindsay Sunday where they spent the day.
