He jerked his hand from under very quickly, but in doing so three fingers were bared to the bone of skin and flesh. As he jerked his hand out he also strained the muscles of his arm. He had the injured hand dressed by a doctor in town as soon as possible, but holds his arm in a sling.

Silver Wedding

(From the Hawarden Pioneer)

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hudson celebrated their Silver Wedding at their home on Friday, March 1st. They had invited a few friends to place the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on record. Expecting these only, it came as a complete but welcome surprise to them between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m. when a great many others also came, until the large house was well filled.

The mystery was explained by the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Artwell Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Scutt had been at work calling in friends and neighbors to rejoice with them. All partook of an excellent supper after which congratulations were in order.

Rev. E. D. Gibson, Messrs Fligg, Boyle and Ledingham voicing the feelings of those present and many others. Mr Gibson said "Time had dealt graciously with Mr. and Mrs. Hudson, their eyes were not dim, neither were their natural forces abated. They had toiled hard but happily together, surmounted 25 years of difficulties, experienced 25 years of mercies, and could say, looking now upon their family into the third generation, "Thou hast set my feet in a large room.'

The other three speakers, offering their congratulations and best wishes, told of the esteem of neighbors of many years for Mr. and Mrs. Hudson. Mr. Hudson replied in a reminiscent speech, which was greatly enjoyed ; telling of the home folk at Feversham, Ont., and their first married home there, to their coming West in 1906.

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson were the recipients of many beautiful presents in silver, including a hand painted mother of pearl Fruit Comport, set in silver from Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hudson, of Lethbridge, Alta., also a silver bake dish from Mr. and Mrs. Alec Johnston, of Singhampton, Ont.

Games and music brought the memorable day to a most enjoyable conclusion.

James Brodie Suicides

James Brodie, who at one time lived in Flesherton, recently committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver. While living here he married Lizzie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wilson. For some years now both families have been living at Maxim, where Brodie ran a pool room and barber shop,

The coroner's jury brought in a verdict "That the deceased met his death by suicide while intoxicated."

Mr. Andrew Wilson, Brodie's father-in-law, says : "He came downstairs in his own house, ordered his dinner at 4 in the afternoon. While his wife was making toast he sat in the dining room. She was in the kitchen. He shot himself while sitting in a chair. He lived four doors from me. I was lying sick but had my clothes on. They called me and I went over and he still sat on the chair in a stupor. I got help and laid him on the sofa in his sitting room. Then I saw the revolver lying on his lap. In twenty minutes he was dead. His pool room had not been open for a week as he was sick and could not attend to it. Drink hastened the end.'

Besides his wife, Brodie leaves two little daughters.

A. Munshaw Dead

Aaron Munshaw, the veteran hotel keeper of Flesherton, died at his home here on Wednesday of last week, in his 80th year. About two years age he took a paralytic stroke, and has been an invalid ever since. The funeral took place on Friday to Flesherton cemetery, the Anglican minister of Markdale officiating. He leaves two highly esteemed daughters—Mrs. Will Hill of Markdale, and Mrs. B. Welton, who, with her husband, are looking after the hotel here. The deceased was one of the pioneers and had kept hotel here for 57 years, a record that we believe has not been exceeded in this part of the country certainly not in the county of Grey. Mr. Munshaw's wife, who was a sister of the late Mrs. S. Damude, died 25 years ago, and his son, Charles, died over a year ago. The business here will be continued by Mr. Welton, until the estate is wound up.

Women In Pageant

When all is said and done, it takes the ladies to get up a real successful entertainment, something to really be enjoyed and talked about, and also successful financially. That is what the ladies of the Methodist church accomplished last Friday night, when their unique entertainment came off as advertised. The program was not one that readily lends itself to description. It was quite scenic as well as literary—a pageant of forty famous women—in which ancient costumes and coiffeurs figured prominently, making a many phased picture very pleasing to the eye. Each lady gave some reading or action to indicate the character she represented, and the pourtrayal was historically correct in every respect. There was considerable humor throughout the affair in such characters as the Fishwife (Katie Wilcock), Topsy (Frances Armstrong), and the Suffragette (Mrs. W. W. Trimble). Among the more classical characters Miss Hulse, representing an Italian girl, gave selections from Il Trovatore on her violin which elicited rounds of applause from a delighted audience. All the ladies pourtrayed their parts in a manner that left nothing to be desired, and all who took part therein are worthy of congratulation. The proceeds amounted to about $55.

A Fine Record

McLean's Magazine of last month stated that the best record for a woman knitting socks was something over three hundred. This statement should be corrected as Mrs. Mary Jamieson, of this town, has knitted 420 pairs of socks, 51 pairs of gloves and 8 vests to date. Besides this she distributes the yarn for the Red Cross and receives the socks and frequently has to rip the toes to either shorten or lengthen them, and washes large quantities when the knitters have neglected it.

But labor is not all that she has given to her country. One of her sons was gassed at St. Julion, one fell in action last November, and one is in England in hospital. Her only daughter, Sister Mae Jamieson, was ill for months at Malta of typhoid fever, and at present is in a hospital in England. And through all this sorrow and anxiety, she works away, and keeps a serene face to the world.

Mrs. Jamieson affirms that her neighbor, Mrs. H. Pedlar, a lady over 80 years of age, has knit more than she has, but because of her extreme modesty, she refrains from giving the exact number.

A Soldier's Letter

The Advance has received the following letter from Pte. W. J Knox of the 102nd Batt. Can. B E, F France :

Dear Editor—Trusting you will permit space in your paper for a few lines from the front. Hoping things are as usual around the burg, as this leaves all in good spirits so far as I know. There are very few of the boys I knew before joining the battalion with us, but they are all jolly good fellows all the same. The weather has for the last two weeks been real lovely dry and bright sunshiny days, which came to an end during last night, turning to what we call a French mist, which wets a Canadian to the skin. Here's hoping the weather takes a change for the better soon, as there is plenty of mud under foot now to suit the most of us over here. It ain't too awful bad just now, it's only from one inch to fourteen inches deep with, of course, odd places more than that.

While writing a letter home to my mother the other day over in the Y M C A I happened to look up and saw that I was being watched by a pair of eyes which I at once recognized as belonging to an old schoolmate of mine in the person of Pte. Wm. Aldcorn. Needless to say what took place then. Nothaving much to write about, I will close, wishing The Advance every success.

Parcels to Prisoners

The German Authorities have issued a memorandum to the effect that parcels for Prisoners of War interned in Germany must be addressed to the parent (or main) camps to which the prisoners belong and must not bear the names of any branch or working camps or of any other place to which the prisoner might be detailed for special services.

The memorandum states that prisoners who have been detailed for services outside the parent camps have been enjoined by the German Authorities from the very first, to inform in this sense any ralations or other persons from whom they expect to receive postal parcels. Parcels for Prisoners of War in hospital also come within the meaning of these regulations.

In the interests of the Prisoners it is therefore essential that these regulations should be strictly adhered to as otherwise the German Authorities will not deliver the parcels to the Prisoners of War for which they are intended, and it is suggested that persons in Canada when writing to Prisoners in Germany should ascertain definitely the name of the parent (or main) camp so that they can comply with the regulations of the German Authorities in addressing parcels to Prisoners.

To Miss Alice Fenwick ,—It is with regret that we learn of your intending departure from our community. Our appreciation of your whole hearted and willing service is not to be estimated by the intrinsic value of the accompanying gifts, these are but small takens of our heartfelt regard and good wishes for yourself. Words fail to express our gratitude for what you have been enabled to do for the Master in connection with the Maxwell Methodist church, Sunday School and Ladies' Aid. Praying for the blessing of Almighty God to rest upon you in your future sphere and trusting that His benediction shall crown your labors with success. We are yours in behalf of the friends in His service,
