Flesherton Advance.

"TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR."—"PRINCIPLES NOT MEN.'

VOL 37 No. 47 Flesherton, Ont., Thursday, April 4 1918 W. H. THURSTON EDITOR and PROPRIE

Pithy Proton Pointers

Visitors home over the holidays are :—Misses Myrtle and Lillian Wyvill, accompanied by Miss Watson of Toronto ; Ina Roome, Toronto ; Clara Binnie, Thornhill ; Ada Acheson, Toronto ; Mary Wyvill, Dundalk ; Edith Consley, Flesherton ; Ernie Stinson, Dundalk.

Mrs. H. Payne of Hanover, spent Easter with Mrs. J. C. Wright.

Mr. Bates took a number from here to to Dundalk on his car to attend the Anglican service on Sunday evening.

Miss Mary Hanley is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Maud Boyd, Flesherton, spent Easter with Miss Mildred Binnie.

Miss Ethel Neilson favored the Presbyterian congregation with a beautiful solo on Sunday evening which was much appreciated. It is seldom we have the opportunity of listening to a singer such as Miss Neilson.

On Tuesday evening the young people held an enjoyable social in their Guild. A good program was given after which there were contests and a bountiful lunch.

A glad surprise came to the home of Mrs. Wodehouse, when her husband, Pte. S. Wodehouse, unexpectedly arrived home on the noon train on Tuesday of last week. The following evening a reception was given him at his home by the villagers when he was presented with a purse of money. Pte. Woodhouse interested the company by telling incidents from his experience while on duty as coast guard in England.

Maxwell

Sugar making is the order of the day. The people here appear to be very patriotic.

Easter visitors spending the holidays with their parents are : Miss Artie Wright, Miss Mae Stock and Harry Field. Mildred and Alice McCallum of Flesherton also spent Sunday at Dr. Guy's.

The W. I. met at the home of Mrs. S. Osborne on Thursday last, where they packed a box containing 42 pairs of sox, which were sent to the Canadian Red Cross. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Wilbert Poole's on Friday, April 5.

Lila Fisher visited with her sister, Mrs. M. Kerton, over the week end.

Don't forget the Red Cross social here on April 16.

Elda Karstedt of Flesherton spent the week end with Mrs. W. Poole.

Angus Morrison visited with relatives near Toronto last week.

Miss Alice Fenwick entertained her Sunday school class at her home Saturday before she leaves for her new duties.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. George Ross March 31, a daughter.

Mr. Art. Porteous and wife have moved to their new home lately purchased from Alex. Ferguson. We welcome them to our neighborhood.

Durham Road

Too Late Last Week

The Red Cross concert in the Durham Road schoolhouse was a real success in spite of the bad roads. An exceedingly well behaved audience filled the school room. The program was a good one and the singing by Messrs. Holland, Murray and Sullivan was much enjoyed by all. A bag of potatoes, donated by Andrew Gilchrist, realized $33.25. A bag of wheat, donated by James Vause, sold for $7.25, and candy sold amounted to $7.55, door proceeds $39.95, totalling $88.

Andrew Hincks and Jimmie Carson leave on Tuesday for the West.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Harry Spicer and family to the N.D.R.

Wilfred Parslow has returned home after spending the winter in Toronto.

Mrs. Willie McMillan is under the doctor's care. We hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Every ounce of energy thrown into the work of stimulating the work of food production and achievement of food conservation, particularly at this moment, is a vital service to the Allied cause. There is need for all Canada can give of cereals, meat, bacon, butter and cheese.

Eugenia Paragraphs

Syrup-making is the order of the day

Miss Etta Latimer spent the holiday with Toronto friends.

Mr. Joe Williams and family are moving back to their old place after spending over a year in Toronto.

Mr. May of Toronto, spent the holiday with his wife and family.

Lance Corporal Russell Park has returned to Brantford after spending a few days with his parents here.

The churches were nicely decorated for the special Easter services.

Mr. James Linton spent a few days last week in Toronto.

The Hydro are preparing to raise the road on the 30th sideroad.

Mr. Wes Cooey spent Easter week with Toronto friends.

Mr. Harry Tate is spending the holidays at his home in Grand Valley.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Paul, Aneroid, Sask., in the loss of their daughter, Sarah, aged 1 year and 10 months, who died after a short illness with symptoms of appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. Paul and daughter visited with the former's parents, here, last summer. In January last they lost their infant daughter, Wilda who died of pneumonia.

Power House and Vicinity

Mrs. W. Williams and son, Bob, and daughter, Elsie, of Toronto, are visiting relatives in this part.

Dave Graham of Vandeleur, and friend, Miss Burritt of Kimberley, called on friends here recently.

Henry Weber and sisters have moved to Fred Jamieson's residence, known as the Turner farm.

Mrs. L. Badgerow and little daughters, were visitors with relatives in this neighborhood.

Miss Lillie Campbell of Hammond's store, Kimberley, spent the week end at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Durrant are spending Easter with friends in Buffalo before leaving for their new home in Regina.

Pte. Russell Park from Brantford, renewed old acquaintances here.

Mrs. Stanley Campbell, and Mrs. Fred Graham and children, are spending the Easter holidays with their mother near Port Law.

The brickwork for the new power house is completed.

Portlaw

Wood bees are the order of the day.

The maples are making it sweet for us these times. It is claimed by some that their trees have been running fast, while others say that their's have not budged, but that sap has been moving some these days.

Everybody is getting ready for the big spring drive on the land.

Sorry to report that David Jamieson is down with an attack of scarlet fever.

Miss Shunk is spending her Easter holidays in Toronto.

Miss Aleda Lyons is visiting with friends in Toronto.

Among Easter visitors from Toronto at their respective homes were Misses Della Pedlar and Violet McNally and Murray Cornfield.

Charles Holman of Toronto, is spending a few days with friends around the old home on the fourth line.

Vandeleur

The W. I. he'd a hard times social at the home of Joseph Buchanan on Monday evening March 25, at which there was no end of fun. The proceeds, $13, were donated to the Red Cross.

Miss Jean Wright of Harbord collegiate, Toronto, accompanied by her cousin Miss Berta Gilray, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid. Gilbert and four children, also Charles Gilbert and son, Norman, all of Colpoys, are spending the holidays with friends here.

Born—On Friday, March 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Neely, a son.

Miss Cora Hutchinson, who is attending Normal school in Toronto, is home for the Easter holidays.

Kimberley Budget

Beautiful spring weather.

Among the teachers who are spending the Easter holidays in their respective homes in our burg are the following ; J. E. Hammond, Commercial Specialist of Meaford high school ; Della Aebrcrombie, of Sligo ; Enna Burritt of Vandeleur, and Nellie Burritt of Cheeseville, and Wm. Hammonp of Goderich.]

Miss Nelle Soule of Duncan is visiting at present with her sister, Mrs. B. A. Carruthers.

Mrs. John Wickens and children visited last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pedlar at Rock Mills.

Some sneak thief effected an entrance to Jasper Stuart's grocery store one night about a week ago and got away with a large sack of brown sugar. There seems to be an epidemic of thieving in this part, as some whips were stolen from the Methodist church shed some time ago. We'll have to organize a vigilance committee and bring the miscreants to justice. Six months breaking stone at Kingston would no doubt have a salutary effect.

A meeting to stimulate the farmers to increase production was held in the public hall on Thursday evening last Reeve Miller of Rocklyn and Rep. Reeve Hutchinson and Councillors Gaudin and Wallace, delivered brief addresses on the seriousness of the food shortage. It was proposed that every farmer should sow at least five acres of spring wheat. Quite a number of those present pledged themselves to that effect.

Mr. C. McNichol, a pastor of the Holiness Workers' church, will hold services in the Union Church every Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Jasper Gilbert and daughter, Bernice, also Miss Pearl Fawcett, who have been visiting friends in this part for the past couple of months, left for their home in Vancouver, B.C., on Tuesday morning. They will be accompanied as far as Moosejaw, Sask., by Mrs. Frank Hutchinson and little babe, who have been visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. R. Hammond

Wm. Clarke is building a handsome verandah in front of his residence on Main street.

Cecil Fawcett is holidaying at Charles Hoggard's, Clarksburg.

David Freyd, assistant representative of the Department of Agriculture, made a business trip to our school one day last week in connection with the rural school fair which will be held at Rocklyn in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Turner of Eugenia visited at James Hill's one day recently.

Feversham Items

Continued mild weather is taking the snow off rapidly.

For once March went out like a lamb. The maple juice is running some now, although there has only one good run yet.

The Misses Sadie and Mary Julian have gone to visit friends in Toronto.

Miss Jolley and Miss Maynard, teachers of Nos. 7 and 5, are spending the Easter holidays at their parental homes at Owen Sound and Meaford.

Miss May Colquette visited with Mrs. Jas. Legate, Gibralter, last week.

Miss Carrie Kernahan, teacher at Gibralter, is spending the holidays with her parents here.

Miss Elda Karstedt of Flesherton, is visiting with her cousin, Mrs. W. Poole.

Miss Lizzie Croft has returned from visiting friends near Toronto and has resumed her duties as sales lady in Robinson's store.

Miss Gertie Pritchard of Collingwood collegiate, is holidaying at her parental home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Poole and Miss Karstedt spent Sunday at John Poole's on the 10th Line.

We are glad to report Mrs. John Paul improving after a severe attack of bronchitis.

Beatrice, the five year old daughter of Geo. Wright, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm last week.

The price of a meal in France in a public eating house of even the cheapest kind, is no less now than $1.20. Though they have bread tickets in Italy, in many places they have no flour to make bread.

Ceylon Chat

Mrs. Angus McLeod left Thursday to spend a month with her daughter in Toronto.

James McMullen spent Easter with his daughter and sons in Toronto.

Mrs. Abbot and daughter, Bertha, of Elmwood, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. D. Wideman.

Miss Zella McLeod and friend, Dr Patterson, Toronto, were Easter visitors at D. McLeod's.

Myrtle Hemphill of Toronto spent the week end with her parents here.

Misses Jean and Sybil Collinson of Toronto are holidaying under the parental roof.

Miss Agnes Harrow, teacher at Strathaven, was an Easter visitor with her parents, also Miss Kate McMillan, who teaches at Harkaway, is home.

Luther Torrey of Lauriston was a week end visitor at H. Piper's.

Marie Cooey is visiting with Owen Sound friends.

The Willing Helpers held their meeting Friday at Mrs. Cummins'. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Royden Gibson's.

Muriel Spicer of Toronto and Miss Irvin of Dundalk were Easter visitors at H. Spicer's.

Mrs. Walford left Monday for Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sargent and five children, who have spent the winter months in New Ontario, visited with the former's parents here over the week end on the way to their home in Owen Sound.

Marter Lloyd Rands entertained a number of his little friends at a birthday party Friday evening.

Lillian McPhail, teacher at Shrigley, is holidaying at home.

A memorial service will be held in the Orange Hall Sunday at 3 p.m. for the late Rev. Mr. Kerr, who was killed in action March 14.

Dundalk

Miss Alice McLeod of Flesherton has accepted a position in Dundalk central phone office.

Mr. Chas. Lamon, Manager of the Bank of Hamilton, Dundalk, has received official notice from the Head Office of his appointment to the position of manager of the Orangeville branch of the bank.

Having been stricken with paralysis a week previous, James Trudgeon, a pioneer of the Gravel Road, Melancthon, passed away on March 22nd at the ripe age of 91 years. The deceased was born in Cornwall, England, and came to Canada as a young man 69 years ago, making the ocean trip in a slow going sailing vessel. He came to this locality among the very earliest settlers, and endured hardships of the first pioneers. In 1854 he was married at Durham by Rev. Mr. Stewart to Rachel McAulay, who now survives him. Last year the old couple celebrated the 63rd anniversary of their wedding. To them twelve children were born, seven of whom still survive, namely: John in Melancthon; Neil and James, Weyburn, Sask.; Wm. N. on the homestead; Mrs. Wm Rich, Melancthon; Mrs. A. S Fowler, High River, Alberta; Mrs. Alf. Stewart, Mazeppa, Alberta.

AROUND GREY COUNTY

Mrs. Thos. Stevenson of Amaranth, sustained a double fracture of her left arm, at the wrist and elbow, through a fall on the ice last week.

Neil McKinnon had his leg broken in two places by a fall from a telephone pole near Dundalk. He is reciving medical treatment at the Grand Central Hotel in Dundalk.

Mrs. Eugene Murphy, Sr., of Mount Forest, slipped on the ice and dislocated her shoulder.

Petty thieving has been going on for some time by boys in Owen Sound, and the police will shortly make some arrests.

The old Pacific hotel in Owen Sound has been remodelled for a shoe factory. In the old days it destroyed shoes—now they make them.

The Union Cement Co. of Owen Sound has made an assignment. The town holds a mortgage on plant and machinery of $60,000 and will not be a loser.

Bates Burial Co.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers

Phone Hillcrest 268

124 Avenue Rd.

Toronto, Ont.

MOTOR EQUIPMENT

J. W. Bates, Pres. R. Maddocks, Manager.

Pig For Service

Pure bred Tamworth Boar for Service on lot 176, 1 S. W. T. and S. R., Artemesia. Terms $1 or $2 for purebreds.

June 18 —T. J. STINSON, Prop

Jewelery

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

A Splendid Stock from which you may readily make A Satisfactory Selection. We carry Photo Supplies.

W. A Armstrong,

Jeweler

FLESHERTON, - ONT

Ladies !

The Millinery Season

Is in and we are ready with a real up-to-date stock of SPRING HATS and would be pleased to have you give us a call and see our styles before you buy. We can suit you if you want an up-to-date hat.

W. L. WRIGHT

The Corner Store

Flesherton, - Ontario

LET US SUPPLY

Your requirements in anything of the following lines:

Cutters
Sleighs
Gasolines Engines
Farm Implements
Cream Separators
Liter Carriers
Stable Equipment, Etc

D. McTAVISH, - FLESHERTON

FOR A PAIR OF

BOOTS

Suitable for the wet damp weather, or if you want a new pair of Rubber Bottoms put on your old tops,

TRY

Thos. Clayton's

FLESHERTON