Flesherton Advance.

"TRUTH BEFORE FAVOR." — "PRINCIPLES NOT MEN."

VOL 37 No. 49 | Flesherton, Ont., Thursday, April 18 1918 | W. H THURSTON EDITOR and PROPRIE

Ceylon Chat

Messrs. H. Piper, J. Gibson and M. Ferguson each had wood bees to get their wood sawed.

Miss Kate Baxter of Detroit, Miss Eva Tedlow of Hamilton, spent the week end with friends here.

Mr. S. Rands, C.P R. agent here for the past ten years, is this week moving his family to Chatsworth, where he takes charge of the station there. We are sorry to lose Mr. Rands and family, as they have been good citizens, but hope what is our loss will be their gain.

Miss Jean Muir, nurse, who has been visiting her mother for several weeks, returned to the city Monday.

Mrs. B. Balfour of Port Dalhousie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Collinson, returning home Monday.

D. Wideman and wife visited Proton friends Saturday.

Miss Jean Collinson left Monday for Saskatoon after spending the winter with her parents here.

The C.P.R has men engaged painting the station.

Mrs. Sellers and two sons. Russel and Gordon, who have spent the past four months here, leave this week for their home at Biggar, Sask.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone are now comfortably settled in their new home recently purchased from Mrs. Rutledge. We extend them a welcome.

Miss Marie Cooey has returned from visiting friends at Owen Sound and other parts.

Mr. Bennet leaves this week to take charge of Shelburne section.

East Mountain

Everyone is making preparations for heir spring work.

Mildred McMullen attended the Red Crose meeting at Mr. Douglas', Feversham, on Thursday last. Her cousin, Mabel McMullen, accompanied her home to spend a few days.

Willie Harbottle has purchased a fine new buggy. See the girls smile now !

We must congratulate Eva Allen, Kate Orr and Clarince Smart on passing their Entrance Examinations at Easter. The first two obtained honorsr

Miss Alma Humberstone is not teaching this term, but is at home.

John Orr spent the past week with friends in Owen Sound.

We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Alex. Hall on Monday of last week. He had made his home with his son Thos., for the past year. Interment took place to Markdale cemetery. We express our deepest sympathy to those bereft.

The Lewis family spent a few days at Jno. Smith's, Rob Roy.

Mr. S. Hull, Meaford, inspected our school one day last week.

The executors of the late R. P. Fawcett estate held a very successful sale of farm stock and implements.

We wonder if the "lilies" are still blooming in Carroll's flower garden.

Messrs. Will and Fred Martin are working at the power house.

Toronto Line North

Seeding has commenced here.

Miss Gertie Lever and Master Wilfred Lever were successful in passing their examinations at Easter. They will work on the farm to obtain their certificate. Congratulations.

Mr. W. J. Akins of Calgary, Alta., visited at Mr. Thos. Sled's.

Mr. Chas. Martin of East Mountain visited a few days with his wife here.

Mr. Angus Clark, Priceville, renewed aquaintances here this week.

Reeve McKenzie of Portlaw, was a caller in this burg on Monday.

Our attention has just been called to a singular circumstance in connection with a recent marriage in this district. The groom was a widower, the bride a widow, the bride's father an exwidower, and her stepmother an exwidow. The preacher was a widower, and one of the witnesses was also a widower.—Orangeville Banner.

Eugenia Paragraphs

Miss Allie Williams of Toronto was a brief visitor in town.

A few of the young folks met at the home of Mr. H. Weber Friday evening in honor of Pte. Will Williams. They spent a very enjoyable time in dancing and games. Will expects to go overseas soon.

Miss Mary Fawcett of Toronto is visiting at her parental home.

Would all who are knitting for the soldiers for the W. I. please hand in sox soon, as they are packing another bale. Yarn to knit can be had from Mrs. A. Hoy

Word has been received by Mrs. Park that her son is on his way overseas.

John Parsons and M. Foester each lost valuable colts.

Mr. S. Turner has bought George Latimer s residence. Oliver will take the farm.

There was a rush among the kiddies Monday morning when they heard the school bell ringing on the new time. In fact more than the kiddies rushed.

Charles Park has returned home after a couple of months in Toronto.

Wedding bells are ringing.

Park and land surveyors are busy in town for the H. E. Co.

The farmers are getting busy in the fields and the ladies are housecleaning.

Miss Dell Wilson of Kimberley has been engaged to teach the 8th line school for the remainder of the term.

A large number attended the Magee sale, which was very successful.

Mrs. A. Twohy and children and Mrs. A. Hoy visited friends in Flesherton.

Nurse Graham of New York is visiting her parents.

Master Gerald Large, who volunteered to go and help on the farm as a soldier of the soil, wrote on his Entrance examination at Easter and passed with honors. Wes Latimer got his Entrance to Normal with honors. Congratulations.

Eighth Line, Osprey

The farmers are "saying nothing but sawing wood."

Miss Catherine Burns has resumed her teaching duties at Dornoch.

James Blakely and wife spent Sunday at the home of Wm. Benson.

Wm. Coulthard and wife of Toronto attended the funeral of the former's father, the late John Coulthard.

John Haly spent the week end at his home here.

Misses A. Kaitting, L. Jolley and M. Colquette spent Saturday afternoon at F. Spofford's.

Maxwell

Miss Jackson and friend of Wareham, spent Sunday at Raymond Wellar's.

Rev. Tiller of Woodford, visited with friends here this week.

Mrs. Porteous of Rock Mills, spent Sunday with her son, Art Porteous.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Wareham, visited Sunday with the former's mother on the 8th line.

Mr. and Mrs. Karstedt, Flesherton, spent Sunday with Mrs. W. Poole.

Mrs. A. E. McCallum and daughter, Edna, of Flesherton, spent a few days last week at Mr. McCallum's, 4th line.

ROD AND GUN

The April issue of Rod and Gun is replete with interesting stories and articles for the out of doors' man. Among the stories appearing in this month's issue are "Following the Fur Bearers" by Bonnycastle Dale ; "The Mysterious Wolf Pack" by A. W. Peck ; "The Job" by Marvin Leslie Hayward ; "Just Fishing" by Mark G. McElhinney ; "A Soldier Fisherman" by Helen Guthrie ; "A Trip down Peace River" by Harry Laughy ; "The Way of the Mighty" by H. C. Haddon ; "Rivers of the North" by Mabel Burkholder, etc , etc. The regular departments are well maintained, those devoted to fishing, guns and ammunition, kennel, etc, being of special interest to sportsmen featuring these particular branches of sport and outdoor life. This representative Canadian sportsman's magazine is published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Kimberley Budget

Quite a number of the farmers have started seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Flood motored to Stayner on Saturday last returning Sunday evening.

Messrs Wellington and Saul Fawcett made a business trip to Flesherton on Saturday last.

Mr. Henry Hurd was appointed some time ago as overseer for the new County roads through Euphrasia. He is an A1 man for the position and will fill the bill to the last gap.

Mr. James Hill lost a valuable cow one day last week. She happened to fall into a mire hole and got her nose under the water, smothering to death.

So Ireland is to have conscription ? Well, this as it should be. It was too bad to let the Sinn Feiners stay at home and the loyal Nationalists and Ulster men do the fighting for all the Green Isle. We take off our hat to men of Major Redmond's stamp. We sincerely trust that the new home rule bill will prove satisfactory to all classes. Where is the man who doesn't admire the noble Celt whose flashing eloquence and brilliant wit has lighted the dark places of every land oeneath the sun ?

Miss Rachael Hutchinson, one of our most popular young ladies, is wielding the blue beech in the red school on the East Mountain.

Mr. Wm. Walters, who held a lucrative position in the Parliament Buildings, Toronto, during the late session, visited friends in our burg during the past week.

Miss Nellie Ellis of Powassan, visited recently recently with her grandmother, Mrs. George Lawrence.

Quite a number from here atteuded the sale on the farm of the late Robt. P. Fawcett of the East Mountain, on Friday last. Good prices were realized on the various commodities.

We are pleased to see the genial face of our school principal, Wm. McBride, in our midst again.

Miss Julian of Feversham, is clerking in Jasper Stuart's grocery.

Stanley Reid has secured the mail contract on the rural route between our burg and Heathcote.

Pithy Proton Pointers

Misses Lizzie and Frances McCullough of Toronto are the guests of their cousin, Miss Marie Sherson.

Little Miss Ida Hindle, McIntyre, is visiting with her cousin, Muriel Wilson.

Miss Edna Acheson is holidaying in Owen Sound.

Miss Minerva Woods has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but we are glad to know that the doctor reports some improvement in her condition.

The Presbyterian W.M.S. quilted a beautiful quilt to be donated to a Ruthenian mission sckool in Alberta.

On Friday evening a special prayer meeting in behalf of the soldiers and the issue of the terrible battle now raging, will be conducted in Knox church by Rev. Mr. McVicar.

Some three hundred and fifty Grey County soldiers overseas will shortly receive another reminder that they are not forgotten by the folks at home. Hon. Dr. Jamieson, Speaker of the Legislature, says Saturday's Mail and Empire, has just sent overseas gift boxes addressed to every soldier from his riding of South Grey, whose name could be secured. The boxes contain cigarettes and tobacco, pipes, chocolates, gum and a pound or two of loaf sugar. Dr. Jamieson was able to finance the gift through the saving effected by eliminating the usual functions in connection with the past session of the Legislature.

While engaged in sawing wood on his uncle's farm near Portage La Prairie, Will McGowan, son of Mr. John McGowan, suffered a painful accident. He came in contact with the buzz saw which inflicted a cut in his thigh ten inches long, penetrating to a depth of 2½ inches, and requiring forty stitches to close. It will be some time before he is able to resume farming operations, his injury coming at a most unfortunate season of the year.—Durham Review.

The Canada Food Board has arranged with the United States food administration to allow 1,000,000lb of oleomargarine to come into Canada per month.

Feversham Items

Another cold wave has hit this part of the country, but I suppose we may look for this for awhile yet, till the ice gets out of the lakes.

Miss Mary Julien left here to take a position in a store in Kimberley.

Mr. J. C. Little of Collingwood, spent Sunday in this village.

On Monday, April 8th, at the farm on the eighth line, Mr. John Coulthard passed away at the ripe age of 79 years. Mr. Coulthard came to Osprey about 45 years ago. The remains were laid to rest in Bethel Cemetery on Wednesday, April 10, a large concourse of people gathered to pay their last respects to their old neighbor. The church in memorial service will be held in the Feversham on Sunday, April 21st at 11 a.m.

Miss Maynard and Miss Jolly have returned to their schools after the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Coulthard of Toronto, attended the funeral of the former's father last week and remained here for a few days to visit old acquaintances.

The Buckingham and Feversham branch of the Red Cross society from Jan. 1 to March sent to headquarters 102 pairs of sox, 52 suits of pyjamas, besides boxes to all the boys in France from this neighborhood. This Branch intend holding a concert on May 24 in Feversham. Particulars later.

AROUND GREY COUNTY

R. Kinnell of Swinton Park, delivered a porker at Dundalk last week that weighed 610 pounds and realized $108.27

G. B Clark has been appointed secetary of the Proton Agricultural Society, succeeding A. E. Colgan.

The frame dwelling on the farm of Jas. Watson, lot 292 con 3, S.W. of the T. & S.R. Melancthon, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon last week. The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective stove pipe or chimney. Mr. Watson's loss will be heavy. Only $550 insurance was carried, which will not nearly cover the loss.

In a shipment of cattle from Shelburne stock yards on Tuesday of this week was a steer purchased by J. A. Skelding from George Boyle of Whitfield that had only three legs. The animal was 2 years of age and weighed 600 pounds. The steer was well built and although minus one leg, managed to navigate almost as well as if it had the other limb.—Free Press.

John Connor, formerly hotel keeper in Dundalk, died in Denver, Col., recently, aged 69 years.

Henry Sprott of Badjeros has purchased the Durnford property on the corner of Hamilton and Robinson streets, Collingwood, and will move thereto shortly.

Adam Metzger of Hanover exhibited to The Post a White Leghorn's egg that measured 8x6¼ inches.

Joe Kueneman of Hanover met with an accident in a factory in that town that resulted in having most of left thumb, part of the index finger of his left hand and the other fingers of that hand badly cut.

The train service on the Walkerton-Saugeen line is to be restored on April 28. This will be good news for travellers and the stations on that line will be able to get all their daily papers on time.

The Merchants Bank of Canada has taken over the business of Wm. Lucas & Co., Private Bankers in Markdale

Dundalk

Proton Agricultural Society directors held a special meeting in Dundalk on Saturday. The business transacted was the acceptance of the resignation of the secretary, A. E. Colgan, who is leaving town; and the appointment of G. B Clarke as successor.

For the position of Reeve of Dundalk rendered vacant by the resignation of A. E. Colgan, John Sinclair was elected by acclamation on Wednesday there being but one nomination.

Mr. James Peterson has been making maple syrup on shares in the bush of Mr. E. Simons west of Dundalk. Sometime between Saturday night and Monday morning evil disposed persons entered the camp, boiled down and destroyed about 8 gallons of syrup.—Herald.

Bates Burial Co.

Funeral Directors and Embalmers

Phone Hillcrest 268

124 Avenue Rd.
Toronto, Ont.

MOTOR EQUIPMENT

J. W. Bates, Pres. R. Maddocks, Manager.

Pig For Service

Pure bred Tamworth Boar for Service on lot 176, 1 S. W. T. and S. R., Artemessia. Terms $1 or $2 for purebreds.
1 june 18 —T. J. STINSON, Prop

Jewelery

ISSUER OF MARRIAGE LICENSES

A Splendid Stock from which you may readily make A Satisfactory Selection. We carry Photo Supplies.

W. A Armstrong,

Jeweler

FLESHERTON, - ONT

Ladies !

The Millinery Season

Is in and we are ready with a real up-to-date stock of SPRING HATS and would be pleased to have you give us a call and see our styles before you buy. We can suit you if you want an up-to-date hat.

W. L. WRIGHT

The Corner Store

Flesherton, - Ontario

LET US SUPPLY

Your requirements in anything of the following lines:

Cutters
Sleighs
Gasolines Engines
Farm Implements
Cream Separators
Liter Carriers
Stable Equipment, Etc

D. Mc TAVISH, - FLESHERTON

FOR A PAIR OF

BOOTS

Suitable for the wet damp weather, or if you want a new pair of Rubber Bottoms put on your old tops,

TRY

Thos. Clayton's

FLESHERTON