IN MEMORIAM

BROWN — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, James H. Brown of R.R. 2, Pontypool, who passed away August 26, 1942. But still the vacant chair Reminds us of the face, the smile Of one who once sat there. —Sadly missed and ever remembered by Wife, Family and Grandchildren. 34-1*

MARTYN — In loving memory of a dear friend, W. J. (Casey) Martyn, who passed away suddenly at Bowmanville Hospital, August 20, 1943. We think of him in silence, No eyes can see us weep; But still within our aching hearts His memory we keep. —The Jollow Family, Oshawa. 34-1*

FORDER — In loving memory of a very dear husband and father, Jos. H. Forder, who passed away August 28, 1943. "His sweet to remember one so dear. Though absent from us, yet very near. Unseen by the world, he stands by our side And whispers, "Dear Loved One death cannot divide." —Sadly missed by Wife and Family. 34-1*

BOOTH — In loving memory of our dear brother, Maurice Edward Booth, who died, August 23, 1937. As long as we live we will cherish his name, In memory we see him just the same. Still in our hearts he is living yet, For we loved him too dearly to ever forget. —Lovingly remembered by Iris and Joe. 34-1*

BOOTH — In loving memory of our dear son, Maurice, who died suddenly, August 23, 1937. In memory's garden we walk with you And think of the days that used to be. Sometimes we pause to rest a while; It's then dear son we see your smile. Till memory fades and life departs You will live forever in our hearts. —Lovingly remembered by Dad and Mother. 34-1*

TOMLINSON — In loving memory of our darling daughter, Marjory Tomlinson, who passed away August 19, 1932, aged 11 years. "There the buds from earth transplanted For our coming watch and wait In the upper garden growing Just within the pearly gate. Though our hearts may break with sorrow By the grief so hard to bear, We shall meet her some bright morning In the upper garden there." —Sadly missed by Mother, Father, Sister and Brothers. 34-1*
