New Canvassers Appointed for Loan in Cartwright Township
The National War Finance Committee for Durham County has been working in the township of Cartwright for the past few days lining up the township for the Eighth Victory Loan campaign which starts on April 23rd. Alex Gilbert is again chairman for the township and is confident that in this campaign Cartwright will have a better showing than last fall. Two new canvassers have been selected who are both residents of the township: Mr. Luther Mountjoy — now living in Blackstock, will canvass the south end of Cartwright and, Mr. Tom Langfield—a veteran of World War I, and World War II, will canvass the north end.
