

OBITUARIES

MRS. JOHN EDWIN ALLIN

Following a lingering illness the death occurred at her residence, 64 Elgin Street, Bowmanville, on Wednesday, January 9, of Olive Hislop, beloved wife of the late John Edwin Allin in her 65th year.

Deceased was daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hislop who lived in Bowmanville for many years. Older citizens will recall that Mr. Hislop was at different times caretaker of the High School and later the Methodist Church, now Trinity United Church.

The funeral was held at the Morris Funeral Chapel, Bowmanville, on January 11, conducted by Rev. S. R. Henderson, minister of Trinity Church. Interment was in Bowmanville Cemetery.

Palbearers were: Edwin Ormiston, Charles Broughton, Norman Brown, Oscar Jamieson, Clare Allin, Geo. F. Annis.

Predeceased by her husband

some years ago, she is survived by two sons, Samuel of Bowmanville and Alfred, who is living on the homestead, Allendale Farm, Base Line, Darlington Township.

The funeral was held at the Morris Funeral Chapel, Bowmanville, on January 11, conducted by Rev. S. R. Henderson, minister of Trinity Church. Interment was in Bowmanville Cemetery.

Long Sault United Church.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Roy Maynard (Mable) of Tyrone and Mrs. Henry Woods (Dorothy) of Oshawa. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Wallace Miller of Tyrone; a brother, Wilbert Tennant of Orillia and four grandchildren.

Rev. D. Lute conducted the funeral service at the Northcutt & Smith Funeral Chapel, Bowmanville, on January 7, followed by interment in Orono Cemetery. Friends attended from Unionville, Orillia, Oshawa and Kendal.

The pallbearers were: Fred Smith, Jack Bird, Charles Johnson, Howard Masters, Howard McRoberts and Ross McRoberts.

HAROLD M. RATHBUN

Former Bursar of Trinity College School, Port Hope, and one-time resident of Toronto, Harold McMurrich Rathbun, 74, of Deseronto, died Jan 11 at Kingston General Hospital. He was born at Deseronto, received his early education at Trinity College School, and was a graduate of the Royal Military College, Kingston.

For a time he was an official with the firm of Rathbun & Co., lumbering and milling, in Deseronto, which was founded by his grandfather.

After his retirement from the office of bursar, Mr. Rathbun went to Toronto. He returned to Deseronto to take up residence a few years ago.

Mr. Rathbun was a member of St. George's Presbyterian Church, Deseronto, and a former member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Toronto. He leaves his wife, two sisters, Mrs. Franklin Jones and Mrs. Harold Scaddett, both of Toronto, and a brother, L. Marvine Rathbun, Bowmanville. Burial took place at Deseronto.

ORENA ALBERTA COWAN

On January 1st, 1952, a full, vital and worthwhile life was brought to a close in the death of Orena Alberta Cowan, beloved wife of William Henry Cowan, in her 82nd year.

Mrs. Cowan was the former Orena Alberta Lent, daughter of the late Marcus and Roxanna Lent who made their home in Clarke Township where Mrs. Cowan was born on Sept. 25, 1870.

Although Mrs. Cowan was certainly kept busy, raising her large family, six girls and two sons, she found time to do some oil painting and needlework, her favorite hobbies and fine samples of which may be seen in her late residence on North St.

Before her illness curtailed her activities, Mrs. Cowan was an erstwhile member of the Woman's Association and Woman's Missionary Society of the United Church as well as being made a life member of the Woman's Association.

After an illness of one year Mrs. Cowan passed away quietly at her late residence, Newcastle. Mrs. Cowan's health had been failing rapidly for the past seven months, during which time she spent five weeks in Memorial Hospital, Bowmanville. Throughout these months of suffering, she was patient, cheerful and quite sure of the Rock upon which her faith reposed. When the call finally came and ushered her into the presence of her Maker, there was no semblance of physical effort or any trace of fear.

She leaves to mourn her loss a sorrowing husband and six

1952 PLYMOUTH BELVEDERE

The new 1952 Plymouth Belvedere smartly styled with rich colour, two-tone exterior and fashion for interior will make it the centre of attraction wherever you drive it. Side windows roll completely down to give you full enjoyment of summer breezes—or close tightly to provide the weather-tight snugness of a sedan.

Plymouth's "Safety-Flow Ride" is the greatest advancement in riding comfort since the introduction of shock absorbers. Revolutionary, new Oriflow shock absorbers on the 1952 Plymouth, offer an entirely new riding and driving experience.

In addition to the beautiful, new Belvedere shown above, Plymouth offers the Suburban and Savoy, the Concord two-door, the Cambridge four-door and club coupe, the Cranbrook four-door, club coupe, and the convertible coupe.

measuring up to his father's public service by being an enthusiastic charter member of the Durham County Federation of Agriculture and a past president of this powerful organization.

Besides his wife, the former Mary Elizabeth Rundle, he is survived by one daughter, Miss Louise Osborne of Bowmanville and three sons, Charles of Ebenezer; Harry of Detroit, Mich., and Nelson of Bowmanville. Also surviving is a brother, Walter Osborne of Halkirk, Alberta.

The funeral was held on Jan. 5 from his late residence in Bowmanville, to Ebenezer, with service in the church and interment in the cemetery. Officiating clergymen were Rev. L. M. Sumerville, his pastor, and Rev. Dr. W. P. Fletcher, Oshawa.

Palbearers were five grandsons, Murray, George, Raymond, Ronald and Bob Muir and his son Harry Osborne.
