Mr. W. H. Guy of Maxwell met with a bad accident one day last week by falling backward off a load of hay. He was severely shaken up and is unable to work yet, but no bones were broken.

The Advance had a pleasant call on Friday last from Mrs. W. J. Guy of Kenora. Mr. and Mrs. Guy are spending a couple of months with the former's parents at Maxwell.

Monday was observed as Civic Holiday by the citizens in general. Some attended the Owen Sound races, others went to Wasaga Beach and other points. The day was very warm—a good day for loafing.

Mr. Karstedt received last week the invoice of a large car of nut coal which is now on the way. This is good news to many householders in Flesherton. It will be the first car of nut coal received here since last summer.

A frost on the 29th of July is something to make people sit up and stare, and that is what happened on Thursday night last. On low places potatoes and other tender things were touched. Osprey township appears to have had it a little more severe than Artemesia, the buckwheat having been badly hit. On Friday night another frost even more severe than the first damaged things still more in spots. We hear that the township of Proton has also been seriously affected by this unseasonable drop in temperature. Is this old world returning to the glacial age?

A garden party under the auspices of Maxwell Anglican church will be held at Mr. John Winters', 3rd line, today (Thursday). Baseball between Dundalk and Eugenia. Good program. Tea from 6 to 8. Admission 35 and 15 cents.

The proceeds of Mrs. Joseph Duncan's Red Cross tea was $10.40. The next tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Kate Paton on Friday of this week. A large attendance is asked for as important business has to be transacted.

Last week The Advance received a couple of pamphlets entitled "Why the Hearst papers are attacked." As the Hearst papers are denied the use of the mails, we wonder why the government allows such literature to be distributed in Canada.

After three unsuccessful attempts the Methodist Sabbath school succeeded in holding their annual picnic in J. Lever's grove on Thursday afternoon last, when the usual good time was enjoyed. A large number of autos were pressed into service to take the kiddies to and from the grounds.

The Standard Bank block had a narrow escape from destruction on Saturday. When, after banking hours, an employee who had occasion to visit the bank, found the place filled with smoke and a waste paper basket in the teller's cage burning briskly. A lighted cigarette is supposed to have been the cause.

Mr. Samuel Colquette died at his home in Toronto on Friday last. He had been ailing for some time. Previous to moving to Toronto a few years ago he was a resident of Flesherton and previous to that was a resident of Osprey. As a citizen he was highly esteemed by all who knew him. The remains were brought up from Toronto and interment took place in Flesherton cemetery on Monday. The deceased gentleman was 64 years of age on the 20th of March last.

The Advance received notification last week that all papers addressed to the soldiers in France have to be prepaid with a one cent stamp. This will make the price to France $1 50. We have been sending quite a number of copies to the boys and several are paid for by the parents. We are now obliged to credit all papers to France at the $1.50 rate and stop all promptly when subscriptions expire. We would like to send ell the boys from here free copies of The Advance but the P. O. Dept. declines to cooperate with us in this benevolence and our pocketbook cannot stand the strain.

AROUND GREY COUNTY

J. E. Marsh, of Markdale, has taken possession of the Queens Hotel in Owen Sound. Mr. Marsh was proprietor of the Markdale House, which was burned last March.

Pte. Tommy Holmes, V.C., has written to his parents in Owen Sound that he expects to be home before long.

Pte. Wallace Mathewson, of Markdale, who was reported wounded, has died of his wounds. He was a member of the 147th Greys.

At the Owen Sound Upper School examinations 100% of the scholars were successful.

Some money, tobacco, cigarettes and candies were taken from a store in Mt. Forest, owned by Wm. Pfaff, one night last week. The thief made entrance at back of the store.

J. R. Dobson, of Honeywood, has purchased a Ford tractor for farm work.

Owen Sound has not received any government fish this season.

On Saturday W. J. Pillips, of Owen Sound, showed The Sun a huge head of lettuce taken from his garden. The single plant measured 19 inches from the top to the end of the root and 17 inches across.

C. R. Magee, of Dundalk, has transferred his drug business to D. Campbell, a former resident of Dundalk.

Miss Hazel Farley, B A., of Brighton, has been engaged by the Dundalk high school for the coming year.

Every effort should be made this season in the interests of food production to save the wild raspberries and other small fruits which grow in abundance in this neighborhood. Wild fruits of all kinds are most valuable and the crop should not be allowed to go to waste.

Mrs. Wm. Fawcett

Another of the old pioneers of Grey county passed quietly over to the "great majority" on Wednesday morning, July 24th, in the person of Sarah Downey, wife of the late Wm. Fawcett of Heathcote, Euphrasia township, and daughter of the late Henry and Mary Downey of Castlederg, Ont. She was in her 86th year and was a lifelong Methodist. Mrs. Fawcett. with her husband, settled on a farm in the Beaver river valley 67 years ago and never left it until called by death. Just across the road was an Indian camp. The Indian girls being much afraid of a thunder storm would take their blankets and go to Mrs. Fawcett's home and lie on the kitchen floor until morning. Mrs. Fawcett was always kind to the Indians, they in turn being good to her. In the early days Mr. Fawcett would shoulder his cradle, leave his wife and children, and walk 80 miles, mostly through bush, to Albion, help with the harvest, then walk back home and take off his own crop. Since the breaking out of the war Mrs. Fawcett has been doing her "bit," she having knit 175 pairs of socks for the boys overseas. She leaves behind her, Wm. Henry of Minnesota, Thomas J. of Markdale, Joseph E. of Ohio, Martha of Heathcote, Charlotte of Thornbury, and Lizzie and Albert of Saskatchewan, Jas. and David heving died some years ago. Hsr remaining brother and sisters are: Wm. and Mrs. Strang of Castlederg, Susanna of Markdale and Aggie of Hamilton. She was laid to rest in Thornbury cemetery, service being conducted by Rev. Mr. Laidlaw. A number of friends from Castlederg attended the funeral.—Bolton Enterprise.

Killed By a Horse

Douglas McWhirter, the 13 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McWhirter of Keldon. was almost instantly killed on Monday forenoon. The boy was driving a team of horses attached to a hay rake and in going through a gateway one of the wheels struck the gate post and the tongue af the rake broke. When the tongue broke and dropped to the ground the boy was thrown forward on the doubletree. This scared the horses and they kicked and ran away. The boy was killed by being kicked and he was trailed about forty rods. Mr. McWhirter was following the boy to the field and he attempted to stop the horses and received injuries to his back and leg and some cuts on the head. The boy lived for nearly half an hour after the accident.—Shelburne Free Press.

Cows Do Their Bit

Robert Duncan of Barrie has a herd of cows which has made something in the way of a record this year. There are six cows in the herd and three of them had twin calves this year. In short, Mr. Duncan has six calves from three cows and they are all sound and in good shape. The youngest pair is scarcely two weeks old. The performance of the Duncan herd is most unusual and has created a great deal of interest among the farmers.—Sun.

Govt. Food Show

A Government patriotic food show, occupying one entire building, will be one of the features at the coming Canadian National Exhibition. The show will be in charge of the Food Controller's Department and experts from Macdonald Institutes at Guelph and Quebec, from Toronto University and other domestic science schools, will demonstrate the many discoveries in kitchen economics made since Miss Canada took up the task of food conservation. It will be the most comprehensive attempt yet made by the Government to teach in a simple, practical way the housewife methods of keeping down expenses without lessening in the least the nutritive and palatable qualities of her meals To make Canada 100% efficient in food consumption is the avowed object of the display. The purchasing and preparation of food will be demonstrated as will also the elimination of waste and the use of substitutes for the foodstuffs most needed Overseas. An interesting feature will be a complete model kitchen of a large New York hotel, in which expert chefs will show how efficiently the great modern hostelries prepare their menus.
