CEYLON CHAT

On Friday evening the W. I. of Ceylon held a social evening at the home of H. Piper for the purpose of raising funds to buy necessaries for the boys at the front. The evening was ideal, and while it was a busy time, the attendance was splendid and the sum of $76.82 clear was realized. Ice cream, lemonade and a table of articles donated were all sold and helped to swell the fund. Light lunch of cake and sandwiches was served and a splendid program given, with Rev. Quinn in the chair. There were a speech by the chairman, readings by Nora Sprott, of Akron, Ohio, and Millie Whittaker, also step dancing by Miss Sprott, Hazel McLeod and Bennie Stewart, of Fort William. Mr. Cameron gave several selections on the bagpipes which were much enjoyed by all. The ladies feel very grateful to all who assisted to make the evening such a success.

Mrs. Hazard, sr., had the misfortune to fall on Friday, breaking the bone in her arm.

Mrs. Ross Leslie, of Toronto, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Archie McMullen.

Mrs. Coleman and son, of Owen Sound, are visiting Mrs. Frank Collinson.

WALKERTON

One of the Irwin Bros' big registered percheron mares got mired in a bog on their farm west of Walkerton on Sunday last, and had to be drawn out with horses and ropes. When released from the mud it took much liniment and a lot of rubbing to revive her sufficiently to get her onto her feet again.

Annie Robinson, the 18-year-old daughter of Thomas Robinson near Underwood, and who was awarded $1300 damages at the Fall Assizes in Walkerton last November against her cousin, Robt. Robinson, whom she claimed had seduced her, attempted to commit suicide on Thursday, Aug. 1, by taking paris green. On drinking the poison she hastened to a neighbor's, and after informing them of what she had done, collapsed. A doctor was hastily summoned and the unfortunate girl was removed to Kincardine hospital, where she still lives in a precarious condition.—Herald and Times.

The news of the successes of the past few weeks of the Allied armies is received with great satisfaction and we rejoice to see the rainbow becoming brighter on the dark war cloud. Is it time to cheer?

(This week's items.)

Miss Lillian Watson, of Toronto, is spending holidays with her cousins here.

Word has been received here that Pte. Charles Williamson has arrived safely in England.

A number of our soldier boys have had their leave extended and are busy with the harvest.

We regret to report the illness of Mr. S. Sheardown, jr., who is receiving medical treatment.

Wesley Jamieson and his father-in-law, Mr. Kerr, of Toronto, visited with the former's brother, W. J. Jamieson.

S. McNevin is building an addition to their house.

Mr. Andrew Carr left last week for Carrol, Manitoba, and has arrived there safely. Mrs. McKenzie accompanied her father as far as Toronto and remained to visit friends in the city.

R. D. Meldrum and wife of Toronto visited with friends on the Fourth Line last week.

In the absence of Rev. Mr. Eagle, who is taking his holidays, the service at Mt. Zion on Sunday last was in charge of Rev. P. Campbell, of Maple, a former pastor. His son, Argyle Campbell, preached his maiden sermon, which was very much appreciated. It has been Mr. Campbell's great desire to live to hear his own son preach, and that his first sermon would be preached in Mount Zion church, and it was a great satisfaction to him to have this wish of a father's heart gratified.

KIMBERLEY BUDGET

Mrs. Leslie Lawrence and son, Stanley, of Allandale, are visiting at James Lawrence's at present.

H. D. Fisher of the Department of Mines, Toronto, and son, spent a couple of days fishing in the old Beaver last week. They didn't land many speckled beauties.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Prime, of Toronto, have been visiting with Mrs. P.'s uncle, J. Robertson.

Wm. Robertson, of Toronto, spent a few days with his brother, J. Robertson.

There will be no sale of lands for taxes this year according to the new County Treasurer. There are only a few small parcels of land that are liable for sale and the amount against them is so small that it would not justify the considerable expense entailed in advertising them. It is an evidence of prosperity and speaks well for the financial condition of the county as a whole.
