VICINITY CHIPS

Hair cutting will be 25c, children 20c. after Sept. 1st.—T. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickling spent several days of the past week in Toronto.

Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and Miss Lillian are in Toronto.

Labor Day was not observed by the business places in town.

Ray Belfry and Frank Thurston visited in Orangeville on Monday.

Miss Lena Swift of Toronto is visiting with relatives here for a fortnight.

Miss Ada Thompson has gone to visit friends in Toronto and take in the exhibition.

Master George Mitchell returned home on Monday after spending six weeks on his uncle's farm near Alliston.

Mrs. Robert Lee and four children, of Owen Sound, visited the past week at the home of J. J. Thompson.

Mrs. Sullivan accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Mills, to Montreal last week, where she will remain for the winter.

Miss Alice McLeod returned Monday to her telephone duties at Dundalk after a fortnight's visit with her mother here.

Mrs. R. Moore of Newbury is spending a fortnight with friends here. She and her husband motored over this week, the latter returning home Thursday.

Mr. Wood, of Corbetton, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday next in absence of the pastor, Mr. Quinn, who is on his holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Thurston and little daughter, Betty, of Toronto, are spending a fortnight with the former's parents here.

Chas. Moshier was up from Toronto and spent the holiday capturing speckled beauties. Charlie always know where to get a good catch.

Mr, Jos. Buchanan has received a cable stating that his son, Charlie, had received a dose of shell gas, giving no other particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Goff of Thornbury were in town on Thursday last. The former was posting bills announcing his annual camp meeting, which is advertised elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Will Walker of Eugenia has a deposlt of iron oxide on his farm and has recently sold a quantity to the Durham cement people, who will roast and grind it with a view to testing its qualities for paint. The company is negotiating for the purchase of the whole deposit, the extent of which is unknown.

Rev. Raymer, wife and daughter, Helen, who have been visiting Dr. Murray for a fortnight, left Monday for Toronto. Mrs. Murray and babe accompanying them. They will visit Midland before returning to their home at St. Davids. Mrs. Murray will return Friday of this week.

The memorial service for the late Corp. Harley Phillips was held in the Baptist chapel on Sunday evening last. The church was beautifully decorated with flags and hothouse flowers. Not one quarter of those present could gain admission to the building. The Orangemen attended the service in a body. The pastor, Rev. Quinn, had charge of the service.

A memorial service was held in the Methodist church Sunday evening for the late Wm. Walker, killed in France. The text was from Revelations 16 14: "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty." The sermon was one of the most interesting along the line of the war that we have yet listened to and was worthy of a much larger audience. It was also most comforting to those who have given their sons to the greatest cause the world has ever known. The speaker believes that mankind must rule his own destiny and that despotism must go.

Work has again started in the local schools for another term. In the high school Mr. White, Miss Hulse and Miss Holmes are again at the wheel, while in the public school Mr. Holland and Miss Iva Mitchell are also again on the job Miss Maud Boyd has gone to Waterdown, Lilian Bunt to Chapleau, Bessie McVicar on a permit to Ravenna, Lilian McPhail to Laurel, and Dell Thurston and Hazel Shunk to Rock Mills and Portlaw respectively.

The Advance had a pleasant call from two bright young Wiarton ladies on Thursday last—Misses Fielding and Logan. The latter young lady operates a linotype in her father's office, the Wiarton Echo, and simply could not resist the temptation of looking in on other newspaper offices on her trip to Toronto per auto in company with other friends. We were, of course, delighted to have the girls call. The auto party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. H. Irwin, Mrs. Pollock and the two young ladies before mentioned.

F. G. Karstedt's horse made a most exciting runaway one day last week. Hitched by the bridle in front of the store he broke away and started on a hurried inspection of all the streets in town. At Reid's corner the buggy hit a stone and the sudden impact turned over both buggy and horse. The animal managed to get to its feet before it could be captured and started off again, but the buggy and harness were left behind. After doing all the damage it could the animal made for its own stable, where it brought up safe and sound, a good horse once more.

Tha September issue of Rod and Gun is full of good things, stories and articles instructive to the sportsman whether he be fisherman, gunner, dogman or just plain out of doors man. Being the Sept. number Wild Duck Shooting by Bonnycastle Dale very properly has the leading place in this issue, followed by a fishing story, Belle of the Big Brule, by George Gilbert, and a lot of other interesting matter is contained in this issue. Rod and Gun is published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

Camp Meeting

The Gospel Workers (D. V.) will hold their annual ten days' Camp Meeting at Clarksburg from Friday, Sept. 13, to Sunday, Sept. 22, 1918. Four evangelistic services will be held each day, at 9 and 10.30 a.m. and 2.30 and 8 p.m. Preceding each preaching service there will be a short time devoted to prayer, testimony, exhortation or singing. Rev. D. Anderson of Houghton, N.Y., will be with us, also the preachers and evangelists of the Gospel Workers Church. We have a large building for accommodation of those staying on the grounds, also a large tent for the purpose. Persons intending to remain should provide themselves with blankets. Provisions of all kinds will be delivered if ordered. The baker will make his regular trips to the ground. Those desiring sleeping apartments should notify us beforehand. We have a large stable for horses of those who stay on the camp ground. Hay will be given to the public on Sunday at noon. The proprietor of the Thornbury and Clarksburg 'bus which meets all trains at Thornbury, has agreed to convey passengers to the camp ground. Valises and hand bags may be taken on board 'bus. Trunks and heavy luggage will be delivered at extra charge. All are invited to attend and enjoy the meetings. For further particulars write to F. D. Goff, drawer 5, Clarksburg, or to G. W. Dinsmore, Box 60, Clarksburg.

Died

GRAHAM—On Wednesday, August 21st, 1918, Velma Graham, aged fifteen years, eldest daughter of Wallace Graham of Eugenia.

BENSON—At his home, 8 h line, Artemesia, on Wednesday, August 28th, 1918, John W. Benson, aged 71 years.

Card of Thanks

Wallace Graham and family wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kindness in their recent bereavement.

Matthew Cooper of Cookstown fell and broke his leg just above the knee. Mr. Cooper fell from a threshing machine about a year ago and broke the same leg near the hip He was able to be around only by the aid of crutches when he met with the second accident.

Fatal Auto Accident

Tuesday afternoon of last week a fatal auto accident occurred on the townline Minto and Arthur, when two ladies who were driving from Listowel to Mount Forest—Mrs. Livingstone and Mrs. Bender—went over an embankment.

They had just passed the culvert at Mr. Irvin's and almost reached the top of a rather steep short hill when they slowed up to inquire of some children if that was the road to Mount Forest. The car then stalled and began to run down hill. Mrs. Livingstone was unable to get the brakes to work. Mrs. Bender called out that they were running into a ditch. Mrs. Livingston quickly turned the wheel and the car backed rapidly to the other side, broke through the guard railing and over a steep embankment of ten feet, turned completely over into the pond there on lot 6, con. 12, Arthur, and pinned the two unhappy occupants under it in water about a foot deep. The children ran and gave the alarm to Mr. Irvin, who was at tea. He quickly extricated Mrs. Livingstone, who was unconscious for a time, and worked away to rescue Mrs. Benber. When the latter was got out he thought she breathed once, but could not be revived. It is likely that she was drowned, but may have been also badly bruised, though no bones were broken.

A Vindictive Farmer

Finding tho bands cut on his stooks of oats, which he had left standing in a field, James B. Dickson, a Carrick farmer residing near Bellmore, at once suspected his neighbor, William Hackney, of the deed, there having been, it seems, bad blood between the two for some time. After interviewing the authorities at Walkerton about the affair, Dickson went to Hackney and accused him of the deed and threatened him with proceedings unless the oats were rebanded by six o'clock that evening. After supper Mr. Dickson went to the field and found that the sheaves had been rebound as instructed. Feeling, however, that his spiteful neighbor needed a lesson in gentlemanly etiquette, Dickson laid a complaint against him for trespassing on his premises and damaging his property. The accused, who was scheduled to appear before Magistrate Tolton Monday for trial, drove into town on Saturday and pleaded guilty to the charge, and was ordered to pay Dickson $5 damages for attacking his oats, as well as being mulcted with a fine of $5 and costs for his crime, making a total assessment of $19.50, which the culprit was obliged to liquidate for his conduct. The accused was unable to assign any reason for his vandalism other than a revengeful spirit against his neighbor and the attendant satisfaction of handing him a slam—Bruce Herald and Times.

Card of Thanks

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors for their great kindness and sympathy in our recent sorrow.

It Is Very Unfair

A large consignment of Eaton's fall catalogues arrived at the postoffice here for distribution in Erin and surrounding district. As the object and effort of this is to compete for the trade of the people here, we think that in all fairness this greedy, grasping firm should be made to pay a good stiff business tax the same as the merchants of Erin have to do. This Toronto firm is engaged in business in Erin just as surely as are our merchants, and why should they not pay a business tax? To us it looks like nothing less than an outrage that this Toronto octopus should be allowed to do business in every village and town in Canada, and thereby to a large extent injuring the business of the local merchants, without being called upon to pay a single copper in the way of a business tax. No one may start a business in any town in Canada without paying for the privilege of doing so in the shape of a business tax, and yet this Toronto firm can do as much business in a town through their mail order system as any merchant in it, and at the same time escape the business tax. Why should they?—Erin Advocate
