Wiltse---Caswell

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caswell, Toronto line south, on Wed., September 4th, when their eldest daughter, Margaret E., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Ford B. Wiltse, of Athens, Ont. Miss Mildred Caswell, youngest sister of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride was unattended. Rev. Belfry, of Flesherton, performed the ceremony before a small circle of immediate friends and relatives. Among those from a distance were Mrs. Avery, of Toronto, and Miss Grace Farnsworth, of Dresden. Congratulations were duly administered to the happy couple, who motored to Toronto and other points. They will reside at Athens. Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse have the good wishes of a host of friends who join The Advance in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Around Grey County

Capt. Neil Campbell of the Canada Steamship liner Grant Morden, was stricken with paralysis on the bridge of the steamer on Lake Michigan and died in a few minutes. He was a native of Owen Sound, aged 63, had sailed since 18 years of age, and was the best known mariner on the upper lakes.

The little son of Joseph Lomas of Amaranth received a kick on the face from a colt that broke some of the bones and caused very painful cuts and bruises.

One day last week as Mrs. W. Jackson, 7th line, Erin, was out in a field, a swarm of bees which was passing over dropped on her. She fought them off as best she could and ran for the house, but was in a critical condition for several hours from the effects of the stings.

An accident which may have serious results occurred at Balaclava, when Thos. Edmonstone, who was working with a cold chisel in the barn, got a fragment of steel in his eye. Mr. Edmonstone was bending over the chisel cutting the end off the prongs of a fork, when a piece of steel flew off, lodging in his left eyeball. It is expected that an operation will save the eye, but Mr. Edmondstone had a very painful experience.—Mirror.

During the severe electrical storm on Wednesday evening last the barn on Andrew Noble's farm, 3rd line, St. Vincent, was entirely destroyed, together with the contents, which included 150 tons of hay, grain, implements, etc. Mr. Noble's loss will be severe as the loss was but partially covered by insurance—Meaford Mirror.

J. M. McLaughlin of Owen Sound has been appointed Supervisor of Bakeries for this district under the Canada Food Board. His duties, on which he has already entered, include inspection of bake shops to see that they are complying with the food regulations, and to report cases of non compliance or other unsatisfactory conditions. He is one of a number appointed throughout the country, and by experience of a good many years is well qualified for the position.

Herb McLeod Gassed

Word was received here on Thursday last by his mother that Pte. Herb. McLeod had been gassed. Herb. enlisted at Toronto with the 83rd Battalion, going overseas in April, 1915. He was sent to France the next fall and shortly after received a wound in the jaw by the bursting of a high explosive shell. After being sent to the front again he took trench fever and was invalided to England for some months. He returned to the front and was with the Canadians in their memorable advance in the present drive.

Camp Meeting

The Gospel Workers (D V.) will hold their annual ten days' Camp Meeting at Clarksburg from Friday, Sept. 13, to Sunday, Sept. 22, 1918. Four evangelistic services will be held each day, at 9 and 10.30 a.m. and 2 30 and 8 p.m. Preceding each preaching service there will be a short time devoted to prayer, testimony, exhortation or singing. Rev. D. Anderson of Houghton, N.Y., will be with us, also the preachers and evangelists of the Gospel Workers Church. We have a large building for accommodation of those staying on the grounds, also a large tent for the purpose. Persons intending to remain should provide themselves with blankets. Provisions of all kinds will be delivered if ordered. The baker will make his regular trips to the ground. Those desiring sleeping apartments should notify us beforehand. We have a large stable for horses of those who stay on the camp ground. Hay will be given to the public on Sunday at noon. The proprietor of the Thornbury and Clarksburg 'bus which meets all trains at Thornbury, has agreed to convey passengers to the camp ground. Valises and hand bags may be taken on board 'bus. Trunks and heavy luggage will be delivered at extra charge. All are invited to attend and enjoy the meetings. For further particulars write to F. D. Goff, drawer 5, Clarksburg, or to G. W. Dinsmore, Box 60, Clarksburg.

Cattle Epidemic

A. Hutchinson, District Representative of Agriculture for Simcoe County, was called to Mulmur township to investigate an outbreak of a disease amongst cattle. When he arrived on the scene he learned that the veterinary who had been called in had diagnosed the disease as spinal meningitis and that eight animals were dead. Mr. Hutchinson went to Toronto to make an official report to his department and to advise as to the best method to pursue to check the outbreak and stamp out the disease. The intention is to have a member of the Provincial or Dominion veterinary service go to Mulmur and remain in the township until all trace of the disease is eliminated.
