

Weddings

BARTON - LAKE

Centre Street United Church, Oshawa, was the scene of the marriage between Miss Beverly Ruth Barton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Barton, Oshawa, and Mr. Donald Alfred Lake, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Lake, Newcastle.

Reverend W. G. Dickson performed the double ring ceremony on Friday, June 13, in a pretty background of spring flowers, tulips, iris and lily of the valley. The wedding music was played by Mr. R. Kellington, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white nylon net, with a double net bouffant skirt, trimmed with rows of net and lace. A long sleeved lace bolero was worn over the fitted bodice. Her finger-tip veil was of nylon net and lace, with iridescent sequins and simulated pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Mrs. George Roberts, matron of honour and sister of the bride, wore a ballerina length gown of yellow nylon net, with a bouffant skirt of lace, and matching nylon hat, with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of mauve and white mums.

The bridesmaid, Mrs. Wm. Wade, wore a ballerina length gown of pale green taffeta and lace, and carried a bouquet of yellow and white mums. Their hats were similar and matched their respective gowns.

The groomsmen were Mr. William Lake and Mr. Morley Lake, brothers of the groom. Ushers were Mr. Douglas Barton, brother of the bride, and Mr. Everett Lake, brother of the groom.

For the reception in the Sunday School room of Centre Street United Church, the bride's mother chose a dress of pale blue printed nylon over taffeta and a corsage of pink carnations and lily of the valley.

The groom's mother wore a gown of pink silk crepe with a pink hat and black and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations and lily of the valley.

For the wedding trip to points north, the bride chose a beige printed sheath with brown accessories and a corsage of yellow mums. The couple will take up residence in Newcastle, Ontario, following their return.

Before her marriage, the bride was guest of honour at various showers. Mrs. George Roberts, sister of the bride, entertained at her mother's home, Mrs. J. H. Barton, at a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. William Wade, Newtonville, entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. C. Brown, with a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Nancy Lake, sister of the groom, gave a kitchen shower for the bride at her home.

DOBSON - FONK

At Shiloh United Church, in a setting of pink and white gladioli, Miss Mary Louise Dobson, Newtonville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dobson, Newtonville, became the bride of Mr. Clifford William Fonk, Newtonville, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fonk, Burks Falls, Ontario.

Reverend R. White, Newtonville, was the officiating minister at the ceremony on May 17. The soloist, Mrs. Morley Robinson sang "The Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony. When the couple were signing the register the soloist sang "Because", accompanied by Mrs. E. Westheuser.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white Chantilly lace and tiers of net with a bouffant skirt and a matching lace jacket trimmed with pearls. The elbow length veil caught by a white nylon net tiara, was embroidered with pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweet-

B. & P. Speaker Tells of Bird Watching Pastime

A vivid description of the fascination of bird watching was given by Mrs. Henry Marsh, Toronto, in her address at the dinner meeting of the Bowmanville Business and Professional Women's Club on Thursday evening. The well attended meeting was held at the Balmoral Hotel.

The president, Miss Madlyn Wilcox, welcomed two new club members, Mrs. Minerva Kerr and Mrs. Beryl Hughes, and two guests, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. G. Schermit. Miss Edith Laycock, and Mrs. Marion Jeffery were the program convenors. Mrs. Jeffery led the sing-song, with Miss Helen Nelles at the piano.

heart roses and lily of the valley on a white Bible, with flowing streamers of red rose buds.

The bride attendants, Miss Patricia Fonk, Toronto, sister of the groom, maid of honour, Miss Brenda Yellowlees, Toronto, and bridesmaids, Miss Verda Porter, Oshawa, and Miss Marilyn Lowery, Toronto, cousin of the bride, wore identical gowns of ice blue lace and net over taffeta. They wore waltz length with bouffant skirts and matching lace boleros. Their headbands were of matching blue feathers and they carried bouquets of yellow Marguerites, white pinocchio poms and pink sweetheart roses.

Performing the duties of best man was Mr. Garth Bates, Burks Falls. Ushers were Mr. James McRobbie, Oshawa, and Mr. John Fonk, brother of the groom, Burks Falls.

The reception was held in the Shiloh United Church parlours. The bride's mother chose a blue-turquoise gown with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a navy blue gown with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

For travelling to Montreal and points east, the bride chose a blue tweed suit with white flecks, and blue flower hat. Her accessories were beige and her corsage was of yellow roses and white carnations. Upon their return, the couple will reside in Newtonville.

This wedding was the first to take place in Shiloh United Church, though it is 96 years old. Because of this, the Church Board presented the bride-elect with a white bride's Bible which she carried at her wedding.

OBITUARY

MISS N. V. LAMMIMAN

The funeral service for Miss Nancy V. Lammiman, who died at the Oshawa General Hospital on Wednesday, June 18, was held at the McIntosh Funeral Chapel, Oshawa, at 2 p.m. on Saturday, June 21.

A member of the Robert Simpson Company 25-year Club, Miss Lammiman had been in poor health for five months.

She was the daughter of the late William and Mary Lammiman, and born at Solina. Moving to Oshawa early in life she received her education there.

More than 30 years ago, she went to Toronto, where she was employed by the Robert Simpson Company. She was a member of the Durham County Club in Toronto and of King Street United Church, Oshawa.

Miss Lammiman leaves a sister, Mrs. Leslie Evans, and two nephews, Charles H. Evans of Oshawa, and W. Murray Evans of Red Rock, Ont.

Rev. M. A. Bury, minister of King Street United Church, conducted the service. Interment was in Mount Lawn Cemetery. The pallbearers were Mr. George Vice, Mr. Otto Sharard, Mr. Fred Popham, Mr. Mervin McLean, Mr. Hilton Tink and Mr. Ross Broome.
