DUNDALK

Mr. T. D. McIntyre received a severe blow on the leg on Wednesday of last week while helping in the harvest field at Walter Carson's farm near the village. The horses were stuck at a ditch with a heavy load of grain. T. D. was standing close behind the team when a tug broke springing the whiffle tree against his leg with full force. He is limping around with the help of a cane and is thankful the leg is not broken.

Rev. Mr. Sinden while helping Lauchie McQuarrie of Shrigley at the harvest last week got a fall backwards from the top of a load of grain to the barn floor narrowly escaping a broken neck. He is a heavy man and the shock of the fall was severe. The back of his neck was badly injured. To add to his misfortune while Mrs. Sinden was dressing the injured part on Sunday morning Mr. S. fainted and fell off the chair against a coal oil stove and was burned quite badly on the neck and shoulder, the pain of which brought him out of the fainting spell. It is hoped he may soon recover from his double mishap and be able to resume his pastoral duties again.

Passes Away At 100 Years of Age

Mrs. Susanna Calbeck, who rounded out her century of life on July the 12th last, passed calmly away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Swanton, near this village, on Tuesday evening of last week. Only last July 12, on the anniversary of her birthday, The Advance had the pleasure of taking this remarkable old lady for an auto ride and was astonished at the vigor she displayed on that occasion. She was born in Down's County, Ireland, and came to Canada with her husband in 1847. They were among the very first settlers in Artemesia township. Besides her daughter she leaves one sister, Mrs Richard Whittaker, who lives with her son, Richard, on the Stone line, and who is only two years younger than her deceased sister.

The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Flesherton cemetery, and was attended by a large number of friends and relatives.

Beautiful floral offerings were given as follows. Sprays by Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. W. Swanton, great grandchildren, the neighbors, Mr. and Mrs W. McLoughry, Mr. and Mrs. Loucks, Mrs. Hickling and Mrs. Moore: Sheaf of Wheat by Garnet Davis, her great grandchild.

The FOOD CONTROLLER SAYS:-

The crop of raw sugar in Cuba turned out to be 300,000 tons short of the estimates upon which the original allotments of sugar to the Allied countries, including Canada and the United States, were calculated. Fifty thousand tons were sunk by submarines off the American coast. The Louisiana cane crop and the American beet sugar crop were alike disappointing. The sugar beet section of northern France was overrun by the Germans, and the sugar beet section of northern Italy was overrun by the Austrians in their spring offensive. Consequently the world is short of sugar.

Hon. George S. Henry, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, reports an increased area of 260,000 acres over 1917. The spring wheat crop was more than doubled with a yield of 22 7 bushels to the acre, the highest in the history of the province. A total of 127,000,000 bushels of oats was raised in Ontario.

The consumption of Atlantic fish in Ontario fos the first six months of 1918 was 500 per cent. over that of last year. In the western provinces the consumption of Pacific fish has also been vastly increased since the war, but Canadian fish consumption is still far short of the one pound per week standard recommended by the Canada Food Board in order to conserve meat supplies.

Six hundred people assembled on Saturday afternoon to witness the reopening of the old Temple of the Children of Peace, located at Sharon village, and which was recently purchased by the York Pioneer and Historical Society as a museum for the preservation of articles of historical value to the county. Nearly all the speakers and many of the old timers of East Gwillimbury Township paid tributes to the religious sect founded by David Willson a hundred years ago, and honored the old temple, which was virtually hewn out of the forests during the winters of 1825 to 1830 by Willson and his followers.
