THE MIXING BOWL

BY Anne Allan HYDRO HOME ECONOMIST

Hello Homemakers! If there is one thing that will make a gourmet out of an otherwise simple soul, it is the lushness, the juiciness and the colorful array of the summer's fruits and berries. The fact they are perishable and delicately fragrant seems seems to make them even more tempting.

The conclusion is obvious. Even to make them even more tempting. served in its most flavorsome way is best. The fruit "compote" is highly recognized in all the leading dining rooms for this season.

SUMMER COMPOTE

Bring ¾ cup sugar and 2 cups of water to a boil, and cook 4 minutes. Wash 8 plums and 8 crabapples and simmer gently for 5 minutes. Add 1 qt. fresh blackberries and let stand in the hot fruit juice 5 minutes. Chill in electric refrigerator. Serve plain or with half-frozen cream.

PEACH AND MELON COMPOTE

1½ cups diced peaches
1½ cups diced melon
1½ cups granulated sugar
2¼ cups water
2 tablespoons ginger syrup
2 tbsps. finely chopped ginger

Prepare fruit. Make a syrup of sugar and water, when slightly thickened add the ginger and giner syrup. Bring to boil and add peaches and melon. Simmer slowly until fruit is slightly transparent. Remove fruit to serving dish and cook the syrup till thickened. Pour over fruit. Chill well in electric refrigerator and serve topped with whipped cream. If desired, sprinkle with chopped nuts.

BAKED PEACHES

6 large peaches
6 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter
½ cup hot water

Peel peaches, cut in half and remove pits. Place ½ tablespoon of sugar and dot of butter in each half. Place in shallow baking dish. Add the water. Bake in electric oven a 375 degrees for 20 minutes. Serve with cream.

REFRIGERATOR CAKE

1 can (1⅓ cups) sweetened condensed milk
¼ cup lemon juice
1 egg yolk; few grains of salt.
1½ cups raspberries or halved strawberries
1 egg white
½ pound graham crackers

Combine condensed milk, lemon juice and salt. Add the egg yolk and mix well. Add the fruit and fold in the stifly beaten egg white. Line a round or oblong pan or mold with graham crackers and cover with fruit. Add another layer of graham crackers then the remaining mixture Cover with cracker crumbs. Chill several hours or over-night in the electric refrigerator. Unmold and serve iced all over with whipped cream and garnished with whole berries. Serves six.
