Many More Distinctly
New Styles in Summer
Dresses

We sold so many dresses last week that we had to scour the markets in order to secure new numbers, for this week's showing, we are pleased to state that we have been fortunate enough to procure twenty-five distinctly new individual dresses, which we offer the women and misses of Bowmanville at prices that compete with any city store.

If you have not seen the wonderful assortment of Dresses and Waists that we are showing in our new Shoppe, take advantage of the first opportunity you have and try on as many as you like without any obligation to buy.

Reilly Tailored Waists in splendid assortment.

Andrew and J. Armstrong visited at the former's home in Pickering; League Wednesday evening was in charge of President Miss Alma Werry. Topic "Books", was ably taken by Mrs. H. J. Werry; a duet was sweetly given by Miss Maudie Ashton and Mr. Claude Smith; a reading "When to Fraise" was given by Miss L. Andrew.

SALEM

Anniversary services of Salem Sunday School on Sunday were a splendid success. Weather was fine, congregations large and everything helped to make the anniversary all that could be desired. The program in the afternoon by the school "The Call of the Flowers" in song and story was very interesting and the young people under direction of Miss Effie Rutledge with Mr. Leslie Collocott, organist, deserve credit for their efforts. Rev. Geo. Mason, Bowmanville, gave a short timely address and Mr. Milton Sanderson, acting-pastor, assisted in the service. The evening service was also largely attended when Rev. Mr. Mason preached a very helpful sermon, Mrs. Alex. Colville, Bowmanville, sang two solos most acceptably, and the school and choir led the musical service. Collections amounted to $50. The floral decoration was very attractively done.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lane, Seattle, are visiting at Councillor Silas Williams'.

Eldad Anniversary has again passed into history. Sunday Rev. R. A. Delve, Brooklin, gave a fine talk to the children in the afternoon and a splendid discourse at the evening service. Singing by school under training of Miss Lydia Taylor was very creditable at both services. Acme Quartette of Oshawa, assisted in the evening.

The big shed was prettily decorated with flags and bunting. The energetic Superintendent, Mr. W. T. Taylor, gave a report of the work of the school for the year which was very creditable.

Monday's football game was played by Zion and Solina Schools in the afternoon. Mr. Anson Balson was referee. Solina lads were outclassed. Enniskillen and Solina played later a real game of football, both teams playing good ball. Mr. Edgar Horn, Hampton, was referee. Score 2-1 in favor of the home team.

After all had partaken of the choice viands and had enjoyed a social period as a great many were present from the towns and villages and surrounding country, the entertainment of the evening was started with Rev. W. W. Jones, B. D., the pastor, in the chair. Acme Quartette & Co., of King Street Methodist Church, Oshawa, furnished the program which was good from start to finish. The solos, quartettes, choruses and readings were splendidly rendered and the large audience was well entertained.

Mr. W. J. Challis, Bowmanville, auctioned a few eatables which ended this great annual event. Proceeds were very satisfactory—$240.

Among visitors were noted: Mr. Gordon and Miss Florence Ashton, Newcastle, at Mr. H. E. Tink's; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larmer and daughter, Blackstock, at Mr. W. T. Taylor's; Mr. and Mrs. J.
