VICINITY CHIPS

Mr. Charley McTavish of Regina Sask., called on his parents here Saturday, returning West on Monday.

Misses Olive Henry and Nita Smelser of Toronto are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry.

The annual meeting of East Grey Agricultural Society will be held Friday afternoon of this week.

The annual financial statement of the Osprey Municipal Telephone System is given in full on the back page.

The annual meeting of Osprey Ag'l Society will be held in Feversham on Monday afternoon of next week.

Dr. J. S. Shepherdson, Markdale, wishes to announce that he has resumed his Veterinary practice and solicits the patronage of his former clientele.

Mr. S. Brownridge, lot 3, con. 9, Osprey, will hold an auction sale of farm stock and implements on Tuesday, Jan. 21. See bills. W. Kaitting auctionee,

Dr. Harry G. Ekins, who has been visiting his brother Claude, here, since before Christmas, returned Tuesday to his home in Wichita, Kas.

Prince Arthur Lodge, A.F. & A.M. have tendered a letter of condolence to Mr. George Watson and family, of Priceville, in the death of their beloved wife and mother, who died recently.

Miss Hulse, who has been off duty since some time before Christmas, at her home in Orangeville, through illness, returned Monday to her position as teacher of French, Art and Physical Culture in the high school here.

Thursday and Friday of last week gave us our first real taste of winter, with a howling gale and blinding snowstorm As there was but little snow before, i did not block things up badly, and since then the weather has been ideal.

The Dundalk paper published last week a list of the members of the new County Council but failed to include the name of our Reeve. Now what has Bro. McIntyre got against our Dan that he should snub him this way.

The Owen Sound Sun Times says Mr. McKenzie is the Reeve of Euphrasia, and says it twice in the same article. Now what do you think of a "moulder of public opinion" who knows as little as that about what has been going on in Artemesia for the past twelve years?

Quite little flurry took place this week among those interested in live stock, owing to British cancellation of contracts for bacon and ham. The Toronto market on Monday for live hogs was non existent no purchases being made by the large buyers. The price of live hogs here was quoted Tuesday at 16½ as compared with 17½ last week. Cattle were also slightly lower.

It was announced some time ago in the Toronto papers that Fred Fisher, son of Mr. Sam Fisher, of Toronto, had been killed in action. Later word received by Mrs. John McKee, of the 4th line, goes to prove that the information was incorrect. The letter was written on Dec. 12, and stated that Fred was alive and well. He was supposed to have been killed a couple of days before the armistice was signed. Fred was a fireman in the Toronto Fire Department.

The annual meeting of the Flesherton Library Association will be held on Friday, Jan. 24. at 8 p.m. in the reading room. The Executive will meet at 7.30 p m. the same evening. Prepare reports. The library is one of our best assets. Bolshevism thrives where there is no reading public. How can it be otherwise when they only know life through hard work? The new era, if Christian and truly democratic, cannot dispense with an intelligent citizenship. The library informs us of the necessity, the requirements, achievements and life of all the components of social, economical and political activities. Membership $1 per year. All are welcome to the annual meeting.

The Soldiers' Aid will hold their tea at the home of Mrs. G. W. Phillips on Friday afternoon of this week.

Seaman Harold McLean of the U. S. navy returned on Tuesday to his headquarters at Pittsburg, after spending a few weeks with his parents here Harold expects to begin his training on a battle ship in the near future.

At the inaugural meetin of Artemesia Council on Monday the following municipal officers were appointed: Assessor—A. D. McLeod. Auditors—Glen Davis and Robert Paton. Member of Board of Health—Alex. McLeod. High School Trustees—Flesherton, J. Smith; Markdale, Harry Shaw. Medical Officer Dr. Guy of Maxwell. Sheep Valuators—John Fadden, S. McMullen, J. Lockhart, M. McIntyre, Geo. Warling, R. Plantt, S. Pedlar, and George Cairns.

The joint committee appointed on the afternoon of nomination day to decide on the nature of the monument to be erected to fallen soldiers from this township and village, met in the township hall on Saturday afternoon last and was quite representative of the district, there being about thirty members present. After considerable discussion and the airing of divergent views, it was decided that the councils of the two municipalities would move the township hall so that it will face on Elizabeth street, a monument to be erected on the lot facing on Toronto street. The improvements to the property and cost of changing the site of the building will be secured by debentures and the price of the monument will probably be raised by popular subscription. A committee was appointed to secure designs and estimates for a monument.

Notice to Subscribers

For the past four years The Advance has been working against heavy odds with the all round increase of everything that goes to make up a paper and living in general. Notwithstanding this great loss we have consistently set our face against raising the price of the paper to our subscribers, and it still remains at one dollar per annum, but unless a lower trend in prices comes within a reasonable time the price will have to go up. In the meantime we have decided to place a premium for prompt paying subscribers—who are many—by placing an additional fifty cents on all who allow their subscriptions to run six months or over. Hereafter all subscriptions six months or more overdue will be charged at $1.50 per annum. This leaves everybody the chance to get in on the dollar rate. A number of subscribers this season have paid two and three years in advance, which is good policy, as it insures them the dollar rate for that length of time. Remember, The Advance is one dollar per annum or one dollar and fifty cents if not paid within six months. Better be prompt and not run the risk of forgetting.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of East Grey Agricultural Society will be held in the town hall, Flesherton, on Friday. Jan. 17, 1919, at 1.30 p.m. All members are requested to be present.

F. BROWN, President. W. A. HAWKEN Secretary.

R. C. BISHOP BOOSTS S. A.

That there is no race or creed in the appeal of the Salvation Army for one million dollars to carry on its after the war work among the returned soldiers and to continue its campaign in France and Germany until the last Canadian soldier is home, is evidenced by the hearty endorsement that comes to the headquarters of the Army from Rev. N. F. Fallon, Roman Catholic Bishop of London, Ont. Bishop Fallon spent some months with the troops at the front, and is in a position to know what is being done there by the many social organizations. He writes to Lieut. Col Rawling, 394 Clarence street, London, Ontario, as follows:

"I am in receipt of your letter of the 27th inst. and I beg leave to tender you my sincere thanks with the good wishes it contains. I heard and saw much of the good work done by the Salvation Army for the social welfare of the Canadian troops fighting in France and Flanders Every organization which contributes to this cause has my deepest sympathy, and I am glad to know that your society is doing valuable and effective service."

Mr. McKenzie, Warden?

If everybody gets their just due Mr. McKenzie, Reeve of Artemesia, will get the Wardenship this year, regardless of the claims of other aspirants. Mr. McKenzie has been a member of the County Council for eleven years consecutively and is now the oldest member of that body. He has filled all the important positions in the Council with honor to himself and credit to the County. Mr. McKenzie would also grace the position of Warden, and THE ADVANCE trusts that he will receive the honor. County Council will meet on January 28.

Death of Mrs. Tucker

Mrs. Henry Tucker, who lived at Ceylon for several years, and was well known here, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. Cruikshank, Paisley, where she had lived for the past seven years. The deceased was a gentle and kindly person, who made many warm friends where she resided. She was the oldest of a family of ten, her maiden name being Miss Emma Burrows. Five of these still survive her. She was born near Hamilton and most of her girlhood was spent in Holstein. In early life she united with the Methodist church, of which she remained a consistent member until her death. She married John Cushnie, who died in 1870, leaving three children—George of Mt. Forest, Wm. deceased, and Mrs. Cushnie of Paisley. By her second marriage to Henry Tucker who died at Ceylon seven years ago, there were two children—Dr. Robert Tucker of Kingston and John of Toronto both of whom were present at the funeral. Mrs. Tucker had been failing in health for a year past. A funeral service was held at the Cruikshank residence conducted by Rev. Mr. Walker and the remains were taken to Mount Forest for burial.

A McIntyre "Joke"

The Dundalk Herald last week gave its readers the following nice, friendly? little description of Flesherton and Ceylon. It said:

Flesherton is the oldest place on the Toronto and Sydenham road and the biggest village in Grey County not located on a railway. This place has always entertained worthy aspirations as a centre of culture (agri.) and refinement music and art, education and religion. The handicap in the matter of railway facilities is partly overcome by a motor bus and the constant business ambitions of the citizens. Ceylon is the home of High Constable Cook and Auctioneer Dugald McPhail. It is the railway suburb of Flesherton, which is a distinction of no small order."

As a matter of fact two places within the county, fully as large as Flesherton, are quite as far away from a railway station as is Flesherton—Clarksburg and Ayton. Bro. McIntyre should put on his glasses and look at the map before writing senseless squibs like the above.

ANOTHER BOUNDARY DISPUTE.

Newfoundland Differs With the Province of Quebec.

The task of determining the boundary line between Ungava, now a portion of the Province of Quebec, and that part of the Labrador coast belonging to Newfoundland, may be referred to the judicial committee of the Imperial Privy Council very shortly. Since Ungava was added to Quebec in 1912 the Government of that province has been anxious that the line between its territory and that of the ancient colony should be defined. Several practical issues, moreover, have arisen to make a decision desirable. For instance, the Canadian and Newfoundland Governments clashed when a Canadian customs officer proposed to collect duties at Port Burwell, which he asserted was Canadian territory. Again, the Quebec and Newfoundland authorities differed when the latter undertook to grant concessions on Hamilton Inlet.

For some years past there have been at intervals negotiations between the Dominion Government and the Quebec Government on the one hand and the Newfoundland Government on the other looking to a reference of the case to the Privy Council. Canada and Quebec proposed that a question based upon the statutes, orders-in-council, and proclamations upon which were founded the respective claims of the parties should be propounded for the consideration of the Imperial court. Newfoundland expressed the opinion that no orders-in-council existed which could be evidence of a claim. Copies of certain orders were thereupon sent from Canada to the Government of the ancient colony. Negotiations have since then been suspended. Quebec however, is now pressing for a settlement of the dispute, and, it is said, that if a reply is not received within a reasonable time from Newfoundland will join with the Dominion of Canada in submitting the whole question to the Privy Council.

The western and southern limit of the Newfoundland territory has been fixed at 64 degrees west longitude and 52 degrees north latitude. From that point is to be run northward a line which, according to the Newfoundland claim, would give the Dominion a strip of coast all the way north to Hudson Strait, but which, in the Canadian and Quebec view, would reach the sea shore at a much more southerly point. The documents in the case go as far back as the proclamation of the King of Great Britain, dated Oct. 7, 1763, which first set forth the boundaries of Quebec.

Had a Strong Back.

Sir Charles Davidson, Chief Justice of Quebec, at a luncheon given in his honor by fellow-Canadians told this one: In the Country Club at Ottawa there was a woman who assisted the cook by peeling potatoes. She had a son who was at the front. For extraordinary gallantry he was personally decorated by King George with the Military Cross. A self-appointed committee of women members of the club went out into the kitchen to inform the mother of the event and to congratulate her upon her son's valor. "Isn't it wonderful!" said one of them. "Three times your son went out into No Man's Land under heavy fire and brought in wounded men." The answer of the mother shows that in Canada they seem to take heroism very much for granted. "I always knew Jimmy had a strong back," she remarked, and resumed her task of peeling the potatoes.

When "Boozed."

"Don't you think you talk entirely too much when you have been drinking?" asked Uncle Bill Bottletop. "I fear I am very much inclined to unboozem myself.

There are about 200 separate and distinct kinds of shells fired from German guns.
