In commenting on the game between Chatsworth and Flesherton played in Markdale rink recently in which Chatsworth won 5-4 we clip the following paragraph from the Chatsworth News :—"The people of Markdale, of whom there were many at the game, were with the Chatsworth boys throughout and rooted hard for their favorites." This was noticed and commented upon by different parties from around the countryside. people who were at the game, said that the people of Markdale should have cheered for the Flesherton team, after all the patronage the Fleshertonians have given the Markdale rink this year. The writer noticed that all the rooting was not all for the Chatsworth team and that about a score rooted for our locals—and hard, too.

Markdale 6 Flesherton 0

A hockey match was played in the Dundalk rink on Wednesday evening of last week between the Flesherton and Markdale junior clubs, in which the former was beaten to the tune of 6-0. Hard luck seemed to follow the local club that evening as a number of the boys were laid off by accidents. The Markdale clan were a heavier bunch by far than the Flesherton boys, and also outskated them, which is not to be wondered at as the local rink here is conspicuous by the absence of ice and the boys have no place much account to practice on. All through the game the Markdale club was on the offensive, but there was very little combination play and it was very much every man for himself. For a defensive game Flesherton hockeyists did well and so they are not downhearted yet. Arthur Varty, of Markdale, gave very good service as referee. The line-up for the local team contained C Fisher, goal ; F Thurston, point ; C Sproule, c point ; E Muir, rover ; R Patton, centre ; S McTavish, l wing ; W. Orr, r wing.

SERGT. R. E. PURVIS

The Advance had a pleasant call on Friday from Sergt. R. E. Purvis, of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. R Purvis of Eugenia, who, with his wife and daughter, were up visiting his parents. Sergt. Purvis saw two and half years of service in France and came through with only a flesh wound in the leg and a couple doses of gas, but expects to be all right again. His worst experience was at the Somme on October 9th last when he, with his bunch of gunners, was buried completely two different times by Hun shells, but not one of them was seriously wounded. He was attached to the 31st Battery, 9th Brigade, C.F.A. He landed at Halifax on Jan. 25, and is delighted to be in old Canada again.

Rev. S. D. Gaudin Dies at Cross Lake

Word arrived here Monday that Rev. S. D. Gaudin, brother of Mrs. W. H. Thurston of Flesherton, had passed away at his home at Cross Lake, Manitoba, of the influenza. For nearly thirty years he had been a missionary to the Indians in that district. The despatch stated that the Indians at Cross Lake had been wiped out with the plague. The departed missionary was heart and soul with his work and loved his Indians. He leaves behind a wife and two young daughters and one little son to bear their great loss. Miss Irene Gaudin, who attended the high school here a few years ago, and is now studying for a nurse at Philadelphia, was the eldest daughter. The deceased was 57 years of age and in his boyhood days lived at Kimberley.

Reeve Weber's Son Gets Ten Years

A sentence of fifteen years' penal servitude reduced by Order in Council to ten years, has been passed upon Pte. Elmer Joseph Weber, a son of Reeve Weber, of Neustadt, found guilty of desertion.

The sentence was passed at Exhibition camp last week at the quarters of the Second Canadian Garrison Regiment.

The prisoner received the sentence with apparant indifference when it was read by Captain R. A. Plato, regimental adjutant.

Following the promulgation of sentence Pte Weber was taken to the detention barracks, where he awaits transfer to Portsmouth Penitentiary, Kingston.

The official statement of the committee of the Privy Council, to whom the sentence of the court martial was submitted for approval, is as follows :—

"The committee of the Privy Council have had before them a report dated 27th January, 1919, from the Minister of Militia and Defence, stating that before a General Court-Martial held at Toronto on the 14th day of January, 1919, Pte. Elmer Joseph Weber, 2nd Battalion, Canadian Garrison Regiment, was tried on the charge of having when on active service, deserted His Majesty's service.

"It appeared from the evidence that this was a particular flagrant case. The accused lived in a German settlement, and his whole course of conduct from the time the Military Service Act went into operation, indicated determination to evade Military service. He applied for exemption which was disallowed and appealed. His father, who was in business with the accused and one other son, got up petitions for his exemption. and under threat of boycott, induced manufacturing firms with which he was dealing to write to the Military Service authorities in behalf of his son. When exemption was refused, money was furnished the accused, whereby he was sent West and lived there for a long time under an assumed name. He was finally apprehended in the Province of Saskatchewan. It was clear from the evidence that the accused and his family were the centre of a disloyal German community, and it was a clear case of deliberate desertion. The evidence brought forward on behalf of the accused did not cast any doubt on the truth of the facts above enumerated."

Gave Cider a Kick Cider Kicked Back

License Inspector M. C. Beckett of Owen Sound and High Constable Cook of Ceylon went into the township of Euphrasia and rounded up a number of young men who had procured several gallons of cider and put something into it to give it a "kick." But the kick was a little too strong and as a consequence they appeared before Magistrates McMullen and Fawcett at Kimberley on Wednesday, Feb. 5. William Parks was fined $50 and costs for giving intoxicating liquor to a minor, one young man, who was defended by H. Tucker of Owen Sound, was fined $200 and costs, and four others against whom information was laid had skipped out. The return of the wanderers will be celebrated in due time—but there will be no cider at the banquet.
