

Babiak - Porter Wedding

White wicker standards of white and aqua gladioli and daisies adorned the altar of Trinity United Church, Bowmanville, on Saturday, May 12, 1979 at 3:00 p.m., when Catherine Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Porter, Bowmanville, became the bride of Steven John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Babiak of Scarborough. Reverend John Peters officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Jean Billett, organist, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Sandra Porter, cousin of the bride. The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a formal organza over taffeta gown featuring Bishop sleeves, an empire waist, a Keyhole neckline and an attached chapel train with a pleated flounce. The gown was trimmed in Venice lace. Her matching headpiece of lace and pearls held a cathedral length silk illusion veil with Venice lace trim and she carried a silk cascade of red roses, orange blossom and lily of the valley. Matron of honour, Mrs. Martha Bergantini and bridesmaids, Miss Marianne Bell, Miss Jeannine Bellaire and Miss Sue Wey, friends of the bride wore identical spaghetti strap blouses styled aqua jersey gowns with aqua chiffon capes. The bridesmaids carried white baskets filled with silk spring flowers of colours of aqua, pink, yellow and white, with matching flowers in their hair.

The flower girl was Miss Sandy Verleysen, wearing an identical aqua jersey gown with a chiffon cape and she carried a small white basket of silk spring flowers with a matching headpiece. Master Jason Hellan, acted as the ringbearer wearing a sandalwood tuxedo trimmed with dark brown and a dark brown vest and carrying a white satin pillow bearing the rings. Mr. Renato Bergantini was the best man and the ushers were: Messrs. Peter Babiak, brother of the groom, Bill Kossta and Jerry Porter, brother of the bride. The groom and his attendants wore sandalwood tuxedos with dark brown trim and dark brown vests, moist brown shirts with brown satin bow ties. The groom's boutonniere was a red silk rose while the attendants had aqua-white silk carnations. The reception and dance were held at the Bowmanville Golf and Country Club. The bride's mother wore a beige floral chiffon dress with a corsage of granada silk roses. The groom's mother wore a peach jersey dress with a silk corsage of Queen Elizabeth roses. Both fathers wore dark brown tuxedos. Mr. Jerry Porter, brother of the bride, was the Master of Ceremonies and Mr. Chuck Havill, Toronto, proposed the

Fleetwood - Thiele Wedding

St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Bowmanville, was the scene of a lovely wedding on Saturday, July 14th, 1979 at 4:00 p.m. when Reverend Francis Mihelic, P.P. united in marriage, Jo-Ann Mary Thiele and Murray Frank Fleetwood. The organist was Joan Santomero.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele of R.R. 3 Bowmanville and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fleetwood of 28 Smart St., Bowmanville. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal chiffon over taffeta gown, featuring Empire waist, mandarin collar, ruffled bodice and three cascading flounces forming a train. The gown was beautifully trimmed in Venice and Chantilly type lace. A matching head piece held a three tiered silk illusion veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and baby's breath. The bridal attendants were Rose Martin of Bowmanville, maid of honour and the bridesmaids were Jacqui Palmer of Tyrone and Mary Fleetwood of Oshawa, sister of the groom. Junior bridesmaid was Dianne Thiele, sister of the bride. The maid of honour wore a formal gown of pink floral lace with a short lace jacket, and carried a parasol trimmed in pink silk roses with a corsage on the stem. The bridesmaids and junior bridesmaid wore matching formal gowns in yellow floral lace with a short lace jacket and carried parasols trimmed in yellow roses and ribbon and a corsage on the stem. The best man was Lawrence Groszelle of Bowmanville, the ushers were Ernie Fleetwood of Bowmanville, brother of the groom and Garry Thiele, brother of the bride. Junior usher was Donald Fleetwood of Bowmanville, brother of the groom. The groom and the best man wore dark brown tuxedos trimmed with dark brown velvet and matching pants. The ushers and junior usher wore champagne coloured tuxedos trimmed with dark brown velvet and dark brown pants with trim. The boutonnières were white carnations. Receiving the guests at the reception held at the Church Hall, the brides' mother wore a formal gown of mint green and a corsage of yellow orchids. Assisting in receiving the groom's mother wore a formal gown of silvery pink polyester knit and a corsage of two beige orchids. Leaving on a honeymoon to the east coast, the bride wore a two piece outfit pant and jacket of beige polyester cotton with a matching plaid cotton blouse of light and dark brown and a corsage of a silk dark brown pomme. Mr. and Mrs. Fleetwood are now residing at 69 East Beach, Bowmanville. Prior to her marriage, Jo-Ann was entertained at a big miscellaneous shower given by the bridal party and both families. A stag was held for Murray by his best man.

Wesleyville

With no church service for Hope Township pastoral charge on Sunday, August 12th, some members took the opportunity of attending worship at other churches. Most people made the annual pilgrimage to place flowers for remembrance of loved ones at Port Hope, Wesleyville, Welcome, Newtonville and perhaps other cemeteries. Mr. and Mrs. Murray Payne were among those attending the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Stan and Rosemary Tisnovsky, Port Granby, which was held at the "Dutch Oven", on Saturday evening Aug. 11th. People from the community whose farm animals had been cared for faithfully for years by Dr. C. Davey, attended the party given in his honour in Port Hope on Friday evening. All wish him and Mrs. Davey many years of happy retirement. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Moorcraft of Bowmanville visited with the Barrowclough families on Sunday afternoon. Those interested in astronomy, or just spectacular stary displays, were disappointed Saturday and Sunday nights when cloudy skies prevented seeing the promised meteor showers. One falling star is an interesting thing to see but a shower of star pieces would be worth waiting up for the promised hour of twelve to one. Sunday night was bright and clear but too cold to stand outside, so this watcher saw two only, from the window. The time of harvest is here. Combines are in the fields and tomatoes are appearing at roadside stands, and in gardens. Tomato worms have been plentiful and so is a little black bug, no bigger than the head of a pin, but its multitudes are perforating the leaves of cabbages. It is strange that in this same garden there has not been a potato bug or the usual cabbage worm, which can make such a mess of a head of cabbage. Sunday night was bright and clear but too cold to stand outside, so this watcher saw two only, from the window.

toast to the bride. The bride's going away suit was navy blue linen with a white and navy polka dotted blouse and a red rose corsage. The groom wore a grey blue suit with a red rose boutonniere. The couple left for their honeymoon in Hawaii. Prior to their marriage, Martha Bergantini, and attendants and the staff of the X-ray department of the Hospital for Sick Children held a surprise shower, aunts of the bride, Mrs. Lazelle Porter and Mrs. Dorothy Todd held a miscellaneous shower and Mrs. Doris Ormiston and the Jane St. neighbours held a kitchen shower. The staff from Sun Alliance presented Steve with a filled wine rack and gift of money.

Archdeacon Tom Gracie united in marriage Valerie Farrand and John Coatham, on Saturday, July 21st, 1979, at 4 p.m., in St. John's Anglican Church, Bowmanville. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farrand, 7 St. George Street, Bowmanville, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Coatham, R.R. 1 Orono. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a blouson style gown, with chiffon over a white underskirt. The neckline and waist was trimmed with lace and pearls. A Juliet cap held a fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of peach and yellow roses, white stephanotis and baby's breath. The bridal attendants were the matron of honor, Mrs. Carol Mercer, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Misses Carol Lunau, and Miss Jane Colmer. Best man was Mr. Steve Mercer, and the ushers were brothers of the groom, Messrs. Ken and Carl Coatham. The mother of the bride received the guests at the reception held at the Flying Dutchman Motor Inn, wearing polyester and a corsage of yellow roses and white carnations. She was assisted in receiving by the groom's mother who wore a gown of floral print polyester, and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations. Leaving for a honeymoon in Dorset, the bride wore a pale yellow suit and a corsage of yellow daisies. Mr. and Mrs. Coatham are now residing in Newtonville.

Very pleased to report Mr. Dick Davison is doing splendidly since returning home from his long sojourn in hospital. Being home helps a lot! Many friends are dropping in to have a visit. On Sunday, daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elliot, family and friends of Leaskdale entertained the Davisons to a birthday party at Springwater Park with a delicious barbecue supper in honour of Winnie's birthday which is Aug. 15. This was also Dick's first party since his illness. "Warmest Regards" to Dick and a "Happy Birthday" to Winnie on her big day coming up. This past Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Grahame Fish had an enjoyable visit and supper with Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pearsell of Haliburton. Mr. and Mrs. Norm Mairs, Nestleton, accompanied by Norm's sister and brother-in-larger attendance this past week. The prize winners in order were Mesdames Taylor, Stiver and Hall. An interesting evening of cards will be a feature next Wednesday evening - same place - same time. Try to attend! The Ladies' Auxiliary would appreciate it. Friends Who Have Been Ill Ella and George Bowers, Nestleton, are progressing very well, and the best of luck for a complete recovery soon. Sorry to hear that Leona Sadler, Nestleton, has been in Port Perry Hospital. We trust Leona will soon be her old self again. "Warmest Wishes" from all the area folks! YELVERTON

In the last week's news budget we mentioned a family gathering at Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hunter's in Port Perry but not those present. These included cousin Della - Mrs. Della Bjorkland of Simmie, Sask.; her sons and their wives - Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Bjorkland of Ottawa, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bjorkland of Lanigan, Sask.; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Karatow of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Van Camp of Blackstock, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Malcolm and Miss Ruth Proutt of Nestleton, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Malcolm of Yelverton. Mr. and Mrs. Orval Quackenbush and Gilford have just returned from a two week motor vacation. Yelverton Girls Softball team won their first game in semi-finals with the Pontypool Blues this week and meet them this Thursday in Pontypool. A small turnout was present on Sunday to hear Mr. George B., a local member of AA speak on the work of that organization in assisting alcoholics to overcome their problem and become productive members of society. Some interesting facts include observation that 65 per cent of the population are social drinkers and of this number one out of 13 became alcoholics. Two thirds of divorces are credited because of alcoholic abuse by one of the partners involved. Also assisting in one capacity or another in the service were Quinten Robinson, Mrs. Art Rowan and Mrs. Ray Robinson. Please note that there will be no service at Yelverton next Sunday, August 19 but Mr. Bob Kennington will address the congregation Sunday, August 26 in Drug Problems encountered in the school system. Should be worth hearing. Mrs. Joe Hurtig and her eldest daughter have returned home from a three week vacation visiting relatives in East and West Germany. Miss Tammy Colley was an overnight guest of Miss Mona Malcolm this weekend.
