Presentations

One night recently a very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr and Mrs. Sherman Ottewell, of the Town Line, when a few friends and neighbors met to welcome Pte. Fred Osborne, who is home from France. An appropriate address was read by Mrs. John Ottewell, after which Fred was presented with a handsome gold watch and fob by Mrs. Garnet Magee. All were pleased to be able to help show their appreciation of his work after two and a half year's hard experience.

About two hundred neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Patterson met at their home recently and spent a pleasant evening with cards and dancing. During the evening the following address was read:

Dear Friends—We are this evening assembled together at your home, our one aim in view being to pay you and yours a tribute and at the same time a farewell, having learned with regret that you are about to sever your connection in this locality.

Many years have passed since your settlement in this neighborhood, in which time you have witnessed many and various changes in every scene of life. New acquaintances have come and again removed to other parts of the great world. Many old friends at one time here have passed to the great beyond. In you we have always had a friend very pronounced from every point of view. You have been with us in our joys and pleasant pastimes, and again you have assisted us to bear our sorrows in the hour of trouble, when everything looked dark and dismal. We uphold you in a very high degree as being courteous, hones and very obliging neighbors, alway ready to come to our rescue as necessity demanded. Now that you have concluded to leave our midst and remove to other quarters, our earnest prayers are that kind Providence may in His wisdom grant you both His richest blessing and spare you long to one another, and bestow health and happiness during the remainder of this life. In concluding we bid you fond adieu and in so doing ask you to accept this chair as a mere memento of the long established friendship existing between you and the friends here assembled. Signed on behalf of friends and neighbors—D. Harrow, A. Carson, G. Campbell.

Rod and Gun

The February Rod and Gun, which is now on the newstands has much to interest the sportsman in story, article and special departments. "In the Deadfalls," Pea Soup," "A Year with the Deer," "British Columbia Lions," "Shooting the Wilson Snipe" are some of the titles.

Fishing Notes includes articles on The Rainbow-Trout and On Making a Bait Casting Rod, the latter profusely illustrated. Guns and Ammunition contains an article by Townsend Whelen on Long Range Shooting and many other interesting articles as well as the ever popular Queries and Answers Department. Along the Trap line, Rod and Gun Mechanics, Kennel and Trap conclude this issue of an ideal outdoorman's magazine. Rod and Gun is published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, at Woodstock, Ont.

Administratrix Sale
OF FARM LAND

The undersigned have received instructions from the Administratrix of the estate of the late Gervas Hazard to sell by Public Auction at Cap. McLachlan's Hotel, in the Village of Ceylon on at the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon Lot Number Five, Concession 4, North of the Durham Road in the Township of Artemesia, containing 100 acres more or less, known as the Hazard farm. The soil is said to be a good clay loam, about 85 acres of which are under cultivation; nine acres of good hardwood bush and the balance in beavermeadow and swamp. There is said to be erected on the premises a log barn, good frame stable and also a comfortable log house. The place is well watered and fairly well fenced; about 2¾ miles from Priceville and 3¾ miles from Flesherton, and one third of a mile from school, and is accommodated with rural mail delivery. The sale is being made with the approval of the official guardian on behalf of the infants by whom the reserve bid would be fixed, and the purchase money is to be paid into the Canadian Bank of Commerce to the joint credit of the Official Guardian and the Administratrix.

For further particulars and conditions of sale apply to the undersigned.

Dated at Owen Sound this 31st day of January, A.D. 1919.
