Around Grey County

Pte. Herb Baldwin, of Wiarton, is the proud possessor of some coins that he could dispose of at a good price if he so desired. While his platoon were digging in the earth on railway construction at Amiens, they found an old stone jar in which were about 2000 coins. These had no doubt been buried there by the Ancient Romans for some of the coins were dated before Christ. Coin hunters would tumble over one another to get anything like this.

A dance given in the town hall, Walkerton, in aid of the hospital fund, only netted 25 cents.

Anthony Kocker, a Carrick youth, (evidently of German extraction) stole four skunk skins and got two months in jail as a solatium.

A farm stock sale near Dunkeld netted the owner, John Flack, $5000.

A wiarton constable pointed a gun at an Indian at Cape Croker, from whom he wished to make a seizure, and was fined ten dollars and costs.

Chas. Montag, a farmer living about two miles from Neustadt, died Saturday morning as a result of injuries received when a log rolled over him at Blinkley's saw mill about noon Friday. Montag had gone to the mill with a load of logs, and with others was assisting in unloading them. One rolled off the sleigh and over him. He lived about twelve hours. He was about 52 years old and is survived by three sons and two daughters. —Review.

George Martin, of Collingwood, met with a peculiar and serious accident at the shipyard on Tuesday morning. He was engaged in loading a cart at the coal dump when the coal commenced to slide and about eight tons covered him before he could escape. His right arm was fractured in two places and his back injured.

Address and Presentation

On Monday evening, March 3rd, the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James Walker, Kimberley, met at their home previous to their departure for Meaford, for the purpose of wishing them good bye and to present them with a well worded address, two handsome chairs and a purse. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were taken by surprise at such kindness. Mr. Walker replied in a few well chosen words expressing his appreciation of the good wishes of his friends and neighbers. The following is the address:

To Mr. and Mrs. James Walker.

Dear friends—It was with feelings of regret that we learned of your intended removal from our midst. You have been esteemed residents of this community for many years; kind and helpful neighbors; active in church and social life and always willing to take your part of the work. Your removal from us leaves a vacancy that will be hard to fill, but we hope your new surroundings may be pleasant and that you may be spared many years to enjoy your home. We ask you to accept these chairs as a slight token of our esteem for you. Our best wishes follow you.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors—George Cornfield, Robert Lawrence, A. E. Myles.

Burke--Kaitting

An interesting wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's church, Maxwell, on Tuesday, March 4, by Rev. Blackwell, of Dundalk, when Miss Ada Kaitting, daughter of Mr. J. J. Kaitting, of Travers, Sask., was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. Burke, of Feversham. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Wellar and Miss Winters sang a solo. The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Will. She was dressed in a navy blue travelling suit and hat to match.

After the ceremony the happy couple drove to Dundalk, where a wedding dinner was served at the rectory, after which they took the train for Toronto and other points. They will reside on Maple Grove Farm, one mile west of Feversham.

Mrs. Burke was for several years operator on the Osprey Telephone system and made many warm friends, who wish her much happiness.

Address and Presentation

Previous to leaving Hatherton for Flesherton the neighbors called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Down and presented them with a fine easy chair and Alfred Down with a tie pin and a scarlet button from the Orange Society. Following is the address:

To Mr. and Mrs Down and Alfred:—

We, your friends and neighbors, deeply regret that this is the last opportunity we will have of spending an evening with you in your home on the 3rd line.

During your all too brief a sojourn among us we have learned to look upon you as willing and efficient leaders in all our undertakings. Your genial dispositions have enlivened our neighborhood and your helpfulness and sympathy, in hours of trial, have made the burdens of many sad hearts lighter. We cannot let you leave us without trying in some measure to express our feelings for you. Your labour has not been in vain. We feel that

The good begun by you shall onward flow,
In many a branching stream, and wider grow ;
The seed, that in those few and fleeting hours,
Your hands unsparing and unwearied sowed,
Shall deck your graves with amaranthine flowers,
And yield you fruits divine in Heaven's immortal bowers.

We know that in your new home you will make many friends but we hope that your old friends at Hatherton will not soon be forgotten.

Not for the value but as a slight token of our regard for you, we ask you to accept these with our best wishes for your welfare.

Signed on behalf of the neighbors—W. B. Winters, Harold Loughead.

How Every $4 Helps

Four dollars, the price of a War Savings Stamp, is not much, but it will pay the wages of a competent Canadian artisan for one day. In these days when to provide employment at good wages is so necessary, this is something. The more money that is placed at the service of the Government through the sale of War Savings Stamps, the more credits will be able to supply to other countries. Consequently the greater the trade that will come to Canada, and consequently the more Canadians will there be employed.
