On Tuesday evening of last week the Presbyterian Guild held an interesting debate in which it was resolved "That Daylight Saving is Beneficial to the Country." The negative side was successful.

A regular spring thaw Sunday and Monday took away most of the snow, but a sudden change on Tuesday morning brought more snow and at time of writing it looks as though winter would linger with us yet a spell longer.

There will be a baseball meeting at the Munshaw House on Thursday evening, at 7 30 p. m. There is an effort being made to start a league among the towns and villages around and everyone interested in baseball should be at the meeting. The Advance regrets to acknowledge that we overlooked mentioning the fact last weekt tha Mrs. E. Wickens had been taken to Owen Sound for the removal of an internal cyst. Dr Danard, of Owen Sound, came down and took Mrs. Wickens to the hospital, where he performed the operation, a serious one, but which was quite successful. Later word is to the effect that Mrs. Wickens is improving nicely. The stricken lady has many very warm friends here, who are anxious for her complete recovery. Her mother, Mrs. John Pedlar, is with her this week.

Lieut. Thos. Scott of Singhampton, who recently returned from overseas, was given a reception in the Orange Hall there on Friday, March 7. The hall was crowded and a good program of speeches, music, etc., was rendered. Lieut. Scott was a sniper for seventeen months in France and later an observer. He had just got his commission when the armistice was signed. He was only once slightly wounded. Tom was the first Orangeman from the Singhampton lodge to enlist for overseas.

Mrs. Wyville, of the suburbs, lost five valuable hens recently. She tried hard to catch the thief in a trap, but was unsuccessful. The other morning, however, Mr. Thief stayed too long at his feat and the dog got on his trail. He was run to a beam of the driving shed and was knocked down and killed. It proved to be a very large coon, and had a strap around its neck, proving that it had at one time been the property of someone—and Mrs. Wyville would like to know who that somebody is.

Expect 4th C.M.R. Home on Thursday

The 4th C. M. R. arrived at Halifax on Monday and is expected to arrive at Toronto on Wednesday. This bunch of returned soldiers is largely made up of Grey County men and with them are a number from Flesherton and district. Owen Sound is preparing to give the boys a big reception and will try to persuade them all to go to Owen Sound for a reception and parade. Warden McQuaker is making a big effort to get a big crowd to Owen Sound. He may be successful, but if we read the feelings of the soldiers aright, their first thought will be to get home—home! The boys will feel that exhibiting themselves has palled on them and they will want no more of it. However, there are a large number of Owen Sound men in the C. M. R. and these will make a very respectable showing of themselves, and they will be banqueted by the town. Flesherton has apparently done nothing towards welcoming her returned heroes.

The 58th Battalion was also expected to arrive at Halifax on Tuesday of this week. In this Battalion are also a number of men from Artemesia and Osprey townships.

Drills Start Again

As spring advances and the robins and bluebirds arrive with their spring songs, the dull thud of oil drills will once more mingle in the spring harmony. Mr. Cable is on the ground with a powerful drilling outfit and will complete the hole started by the Bellerby Bros, whose drilling apparatus was not strong enough to put down a deep hole. The drilling will be started as soon as the machinery now on the ground can be put in shape. This well is at the rear of Reeve McTavish's farm in the suburbs.

The Cox well on the Lever farm, which was never completed for want of funds, will also be proceeded with at once, the machinery having recently been overhauled and sufficient funds secured to complete the well, which, when operations were stopped, was showing excellent signs of oil.

Here's luck to both companies.

Cold Tea Again ?

The Chatsworth News contains a windy column last week in regard to the Flesherton hockey team at the tournament in Chatsworth.

The trouble in Chatsworth arose out of the prizes awarded. It was supposed to be $7 for 1st and $4 for the 2nd, but the "BOSS" of the tournament claims Flesherton was phoned to the effect that the prizes were changed to $5 and $3, respectively. As far as we can ascertain from anyone here, no such word was spoken to any of the boys here, but if the committee in charge of the tournament in Chatsworth are so small as to cheat a bunch of boys, why in the future we will know how to deal with them, "once bitten, twice shy."

The News goes on to say that the Flesherton team was playing two Markdale boys, but it has not a word to say about one of the Owen Sound teams playing the C P.R. news agent, who, unfortunately for them, had to travel home with the Flesherton players next morning.

In regard to the names of the players. If the Editor of the News gets as badly mixed up in his newspaper work as other business he has been seen in, why we don't wonder at him getting things balled up. He has evidently lost his pants again. However, here is hoping the two bucks helps the Chatsworth committee out of their financial difficulty and that their wee boys (?) will win a few more games yet, before they get big and strong.

Plantt--Fisher

The home of Mrs Wm. Fisher, 4th line, Artemesia, was the scene of a pretty event on Wednesday evening, March 5th, when her youngest daughter, Annie Florence, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Fred Plantt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Plantt, of Eugenia, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Belfry, of Flesherton.

The bride, who was charmingly gowned in white silk crepe de chine with bead trimmings, and wore a veil and orange blossoms, was given away by her eldest brother, Robert, while Miss Mildred Pedlar, niece of the bride, played the wedding march. The happy young couple, who were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, will reside at their farm on the 4th line.

The newly married couple were treated to a shower and also presented with a purse by their neighbors on Monday evening of last week.

The Advance, along with their many friends, wish the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life,
