Poole---Lawlor

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr and Mrs. George Lawlor, Eighth Line, Artemesia, at 4 o'clock, on Wednesday, March 19, when their second eldest daughter, Lilian Mae, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Poole, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Forth, of Maxwell. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of pearl grey silk crepe de chene with silver bead trimmings and wore a bridal veil of silk embroidered net and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas with maiden hair fern. Mrs. W. Irwin, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, and during the signing of the register the groom's sister, Miss Margaret Poole, sang "The sunshine of your smile."

The house was very prettily decorated and about fifty friends of the young couple witnessed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents.

The happy young couple left on the morning train on Thursday to visit friends in Windsor, Hamilton and Toronto. The bride's travelling dress was of navy blue serge with hat to match and she wore a set of fox furs.

After the honeymoon the young couple will reside on their farm on the Eighth Line, where they will be at home to their many friends after April 15th.

The Advance joins with their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.

Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Alex English, Rock Mills, wish to thank their many friends for their sympathy and assistance during the illness and death of their beloved daughter, Irene.

Taylor--Smith

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Smith, Rock Mills, was the scene of a very happy event at high noon, on Wednesday, March 19th, when their eldest daughter, Violet, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Taylor, of Portlaw. To the strains of the Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Lizzie English, of Singhampton, cousin of the bride, the bridal party entered the parlor, and took their place beneath a prettily decorated evergreen arch, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Quinn, of Flesherton, in the presence of about fifty guests. The young bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a beautiful gown of silk and georgette crepe beaded. After congratulations the company adjourned to the dining room where a dainty wedding dinner was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a pendant and to the pianist a brooch. Shortly after the wedding the bride received a letter of congratulations from her brother, Capt. Edwin Smith, of Palestine.

The happy young couple left on the afternoon train for Toronto. The bride's travelling costume was of brown silk poplin, with navy blue coat and small pineapple straw hat. The Advance joins with their numerous friends in wishing the young couple a long and happy married life.
