Who Shot the Deer ?

County Constable Cook had two well known citizens of Artemesia—W. Caswell and Jos. Watson—up Friday evening last in the town hall on a charge of shooting deer out of season. A large number of witnesses were called but absolutely no evidence was produced connecting these gentlemen with the crime, and the case was dismissed. The incident occurred on January 31, when two deer were killed down near the townline between Artemesia and Proton. The animals were dragged to the clearance where a team had been tied and were taken out on a sleigh.

Some two weeks ago Constable Cook seized four deerskins which had been left at the tannery in Markdale to be tanned. These skins had been left there by R. J. Porter of Proton, who had informed the tanner that two belonged to him and two to another man. When invited by Constable Cook to give up the nam eof the other man he refused. The above two gentlemen and Mr. Nat Caswell had been out fox hunting that day and in order to narrow the case down the two were brought before Magistrate McMullen, but as we have said, a large number of witnesses could not connect them in any way with the offence. Commodore Eeley, Deputy Provincial Game Warden, of Owen Sound, was present at the trial.

Since then two charges have been laid against Porter, one of shooting deer out of season and another of illegially having deer skins in his possession. None of the skins had tags on them. This case is to be heard Wednesday night of this week at the Orange Hall, Ceylon, when it is expected that the real culprit will be discovered.

Down--Carter

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter, Melancthon, was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday, March 12th, when their daughter, Gladys Irene, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Down, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Down, of Flesherton. At high noon, to the strains of the Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Jean Small, Shelburne, cousin of the bride, the bridal party entered the drawing room and took their places beneath a prettily decorated arch, where the solemn ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. G. Blackwell, Dundalk, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The young bride, who was unattended, looked charming in a gown of white crepe de chene with trimmings of white satin and ninon and wore a veil and wreath of apple blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. After congratulations the company adjourned to the dining room, where a dainty dinner was served.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. The groom's present to the bride was a set of red fox furs and to the pianist a gold pin set with pearls.

The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Toronto and other parts. The bride's going away costume was a navy blue serge suite with hat to match. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with the young couple for a long and happy married life. They will be at home to their friends after April 1 at their home 3rd line, Osprey.
