Mr. W. Orr, Toronto Line, has sold his farm of 100 acres to Mr. Herbert Corbett of Proton. The consideration was $7000. Mr. Orr does not yet know where he will locate. He is having a sale on April 10.

A correspondent, who signs his name "Produce" registers a kick to The Advance in regard to the cash system as adopted by all merchants in the county, and thinks it is not working out in the producer's favor. He says, "If you have no produce you pay cash, 100 cents on the dollar, and if you have produce and don't require goods and must have cash you are paid off at 97 cents on the dollar." Will some of our merchants explain their attitude for the benefit of this inquiring producer?

The Upper Canada Bible Depository, kept at The Advance office, has just received a complete stock of Bibles, ranging in price from 50c. to $5.25. Among these are some beautiful things for presentations. There are also Bibles for old people with large print, pocket testaments and Psalms. Come in and look at them.

On Friday evening, March 14th, the friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson met at their home and spent a pleasant evening previous to their departure to their new home and presented them with two handsome rocking chairs. The address was read by Mrs. L. McCracken and the presentation made by Mr. Fred McMullen and Mr. John Beecroft. Mr. Thompson made a suitable reply thanking the friends for their kindness.

Pte. Herb LeGard arrived home from overseas on Tuesday after seeing service in France for about two years. Herb. enlisted from this office with the 147th Battalion in February, 1916, and after reaching England was attached to the 8th reserve. He went to the 4th C. M. R. in France with whom he stayed to the end without having suffered a casualty, although he was in the trenches all the time. He was in the thick of the fight at Vimy Ridge, Passchendale, Lens, Amiens, Arras and Cambrai.

Our old time friend, Mr. J. F. Hutchinson of Flat Rock, Mich., in renewing his subscription, says: Your good paper is an important part of my life. I have read it so many years that I feel it to be a vital part of my life. The Germans having postponed the time of their arrival in Paris until 1925 gives us a breathing spell. By that time the French people will be ready to entertain them in a becoming manner. If this wireless telephoning continues we won't need newspapers, or our old mail service, or fast air ships. We will just sit in our homes and talk with the uttermost parts of the earth. Clergymen will also lose their jobs, as we can talk to the planet Mars and the regions beyond. There's a new day coming for this old world. Old things are passing and all things are being remade. Philosophy, religion, art, journalism, all are passing through the crucible of an advancing age.

Change of Time

The Daylight Saving Bill was defeated in Parliament last week, but all railways in Canada have decided to shove their clocks on an hour. This new time began on Sunday night last. Remember to count an hour ahead when you run to catch the train

Interesting Letter From Winnipeg

A remittance letter from Winnipeg gives us the following interesting facts concerning certain conditions in that city at the eastern door of the great West:

It may be interesting for you to know that although everything is more or less unsettled (like some subscriptions), every one out here seems to be quite optimistic with regard to the near future. There is beginning to be a great stir in houses. Moving time has arrived (nearly every one who has to move does so in March or April) and it is like a game of checkers; houses are all occupied and one cannot move until another does, and it is then a move all round—a sort of "pussy-wants-a-corner" game. Building material for every kind of house costs is so high, and the labor question so unsettled, that no one is anxious to undertake any building and this in the face of the large number of soldiers returning with wives, and also large numbers of people who have "doubled up" during the winter to keep down expenses, now wanting to single out again, is making the housing situation acute. Quite a number are buying because unable to rent.

In religious matters two things seem to be worthy of mention just now. The Christian Men's Federation, a dominion wide non denominational organization, is gaining a good foothold here; quite a number of churches have already organized, the one with which we are connected being just in process of organization at present. This Federation seems to promise good things. The other event of interest is the campaign to raise $100,000 to be used in clearing the debt off all the smaller churches in the city—an original idea and one that would work inestimable good if supported to the point of complete success, or even if only partially successful it is bound to be a splendid thing for Methodism here and for the city as a whole.

Who Shot the Deer

This puzzling question has not yet been answered to the satisfaction of the "Coort," although fines have been flying around rather promiscuously during the past week. Commodore Eely of Owen Sound got into the game and on Monday last had George Porter, son of Robert Porter, South Line, and George Watson of Priceville, before Magistrate McMullen, each charged with shooting a deer last fall. They acknowledged the misdemeanor and were each fined $100 and $3 costs.

But these were not the two deer shot on Jan. 31, the slayers of which Constable Cook has been after. Robert Porter was before the magistrate Tuesday evening of last week charged with being the guilty party, and also with having four deer skins in his possession in contravention of the game law. The charge of shooting was dismissed, but he was taxed $80 for the four skins which he took to Markdale to have tanned. Mr. Porter claimed that two of these skins were secured in the north last fall and the destruction of the animals from which they were taken complied with the regulations in every respect. One of the four skins belonged to his son, George, and the other to Mr. Watson of Priceville. These two latter were from Artemesia deer—not Muskoka mutton—and were killed last fall. As deer in this county are exempt from sacrifice, even in sacrificial season, of course convictions had to come—and the full penalty was exacted. But the question still remains unanswered—

Who shot THE deer?
