Straight Persecution

Reeve McTavish was haled to Owen Sound on Friday last to answer to a charge of having run his auto in the county town at night without a tail light on his car. As a matter of fact neither Mr. McTavish or his car had been in Owen Sound for two weeks previous to the day of his alleged misdemeanor. The Magistrate refused to accept an affidavit from witnesses here to prove an alibi, and Mr. McTavish was obliged to lose a whole day and take two witnesses along, which means a serious matter for a busy man like our reeve.

Just why it was that the Magistrate refused to accept the affidavits, more especially from a man in Hr. McTavish's position, is hard to understand. It seems to be a sort of persecution and a rank imposition which should in future be made impossible. It is claimed that a new man on the police force made a mistake in the number, and that he is prone to such mistakes, having lost four out of five cases. This greenhorn ought to be coached in reading figures before being let loose on the public.

PRICEVILLE

Acquiring truck farms in Florida and hoeing pineapples while the thermometer registers 90 degrees in the shade, is at a discount now. Our neighbors thiuk that Ontario temperature during the past week was quite as high as th-y could wish for.

Planting potatoes and discussing the different varieties, was very much in order during the last week. A few years ago a car was being loaded with potatoes and a number of bystanders were looking on while a farmer was emptying some sacks of very fine tubers. A green young Irishman whose smiling eyes were centred on the fine murphys, at last inquired, "Phwat de ye call thim foine white praties ye have, misther?" The farmer replied that seedsmen called them the American Wonder. John H—who was every inch an Irishma.—was standing by, smoking, but snatched the cob from his mouth, and, looking very indignant, growled out: "American h—. Shure don't ye know that all the good praties cum from Oireland furst?"

The people of Priceville arranged for a reception on Friday evening of last week, to four returned soldiers. A large gathering was present, and after a portion of the evening was spent in impromptu addresses and musical numbers by prominent citizens, an address was read and a purse of $25 was presented to Pte. Allan McLean, the latest returned soldier. The other three ex-soldiers had previously engaged in positions in Toronto and other distant towns, which they found it impossible to leave until the summer holidays, when we may expect to see them for a few days in our midst.

Rev. Mr. McCarten will be attending conference this week in Toronto, and desires his congregation to attend the Presbyterian church next Sabbath and look to Rev C. S. Jones for any ministerial services they require during his absence.

Yes, a Chevrolet car is fine, splendid. But methinks it wou'd be just about as pleasant to ride for five hours in a Ford as to wait for five hours on the roadside for a Chevrolet to fordo it. Now we wonder if any MORE friends agree with us on this point.

By all means remember that Thursday evening, the nineteenth of June, is the night of the concert in Proton. A travelling company consisting of the Monroe family and other musicians, also an elocutionist will provide the program. See the bills and advertisement in this paper elsewhere
