Eugenia Methodist Sunday School will picnic in the Hydro Park on July 8th. Everybody of any denomination is invited. Bring baskets.

Mr. Tom Brady arrived last week from overseas. Tom went over with the Bruce battalion. He and his wife are visiting with the latter's parents here.

Anniversary services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sabbath next at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., old time, when Rev. C. S. Jones of Priceville will preach.

A garden party will be held on Mr. Sam Phillips' lawn, Rock Mills, on Thursday, July 3. Baseball match—Maxwell vs. Rock Mills. Good program and supper. Admission 40 and 20 cents.

The following were up from Toronto over the holiday : Miss Hattie Cole, Miss Pearl Radley, Mr. Cliff Blakelev, Mr. Wes Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs, H, Hyland, Miss W. Crossley, and Mr. R. McAuley.

A meeting of Eugenia citizens is called for Friday evening of this week in Hydro Park, at 8 o'clock, to discuss the subject of placing a monument in the park. Some of the Hydro officials will be present.

Mr. Charley McTavish drove up from Oshawa on Saturday and took his two children back. Mrs. McTavish accompanied him to Toronto. Charley did the trip up from West Toronto in three hours and 25 minutes actual running in his Baby Grand Chevrolet.

Dominion Day sports here were somewhat of a frost, owing to more attractive demonstrations in surrounding towns. There were no horses, and only amateur baseball games on the grounds. The concert at night, however, was well attended, the auditorium of the high school being well filled.

Dr. Ern. Armstrong. who visited with relatives here the past week, went overseas as Lieut.-Col. with the 159th Batt. of North Bay which he organized, as well as another battalion from the north. In England he reverted to Captain in order to get to France, where he was Deputy Commander of Field Ambulance Transport. At the battle of Cambrai he was in charge of 180 ambulances. He was twice slightly wounded with shrapnel.

There are some who still do not realize our new terms of subscription, If your subscription goes six months overdue it will be $1.50. By paying promptly you ave fifty cents.

Mr. S. Sample of town had nineteen nicely grown chickens destroyed by some animal last week. He set a trap for the marauder and caught an enormous cat that had evidently gone wild and belonged to nobody. The animal weighed an even sixteen pounds. It had evidently lived "on the fat of the land."

Mr and Mrs. W. Karstedt of Indianapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Wenger and three children of Kokomo, Indiana, motored over from the Hoosier State last week and visited for a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt. They returned home by way of Toronto, Cleveland and Toledo, and report a very delightful trip on the way over.

The Upper Canada Biole Depository kept at The Advance office, has just received a complete stock of Bibles, ranging in price from 50c. to $5.25. Among these are some beautiful things for presentations. There are also Bibles for old people with large print, pocket testaments and Psalms. Come in and look at them.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School held their annuol picnic in Lever's grove on Saturday last. A large crowd turned out and spent the afternoon in baseball and various other forms of amusement. The ladies lived up to their reputation and supplied an abundance of good eats.

Another barn was burned last week by the Glenelg firebug. This makes the fourth casualty caused by this fiend. Shooting on sight would be too good for the outlaw. The latest victim is Patrick Haley, lot 11, con. 7, Glenelg. Mr. Haley, an aged gentleman, and his nephew were alone at the time. His son, who was married on Wednesday of last week, was on his wedding trip.

There was a good representative meeting in the town hall on Thursday afternoon to discuss the memorial question. Two committees were appointed, one to wait on the executors of the Flesher estate with a view to securing a location for a monument and another to wait on the two municipal councils on a proposition to enlarge and move the town hall and placing a monument in front. These committees are to wait on the respective councils and report forthwith.

Miss Dell Thurston, who has taught the Rock Mills school for the past three years, was pleasantly surprised on Friday afternoon last before the closing of school, by the visitation of a number of of ladies, who carried with them material for an afternoon tea. They also brought along and presented to the retiring teacher a handsome silver biscuit bowl. Master Freddie Hargrave also gave her a pretty cut glass marmalade jar. Miss Thurston was thoroughly taken by surprise and was very grateful for this mark of recognition of her services.

Scott--Black

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr, and Mrs. Neil Black, 548 Bathurst street, Toronto, when their youngest daughter, Maude, was united in marriage to Lieut. T. N. Scott, youngest son of the late Thomas Scott, Singhampton, Ont., by the Rev. R. B. Cochrane of College street Presbyterian church. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a gown of white satin and georgette crepe, and a tulle veil arranged in pretty cap effect, with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. During the signing of the register Miss Louise Black sang "A Paradise for Two." After the wedding dinner Lieut. and Mrs. Scott left for a short honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Buffalo and New York. The bride travelled in a navy blue satin suit and picture hat of black tulle. On their return they will reside at Singhampton.
