PROTON

Intended For Last Week

Service in the Presbyterian church is withdrawn Sunday, July 6, on account of anniversary services at Flesherton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyville attended the marriage of their daughter, Myrtle, to Mr. James Burton at Toronto, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rutherford attended the Acheson—McMillan wedding.

Misses Marjorie Acheson, North Bay, and Mary Wyville, Northbrook, are holidaying at their homes here.

Considering the inclemency of the weather, the Scottish concert held on June 19 under the auspices of the managing Board of Knox church, was well attended and was much enjoyed by those present. The folk dances and instrumental music given by the children showed splendid training and cleverness on the part of the children. Little Dorothy and Sam Monroe sang several quaint and pretty songs and Alice Dunbar's quaint selections brought down the house. The proceeds of the evening were $125.

In spite of the fact that they had no practice and had just picked up a team, the Proton boys were brave enough to face the champion ball team—Dundalk—at Inistiogе last Monday night and handed them a glorious surprise when they gave them the first trimming they [illegible] t year in a score of 15 to 7. What's the matter with Proton? It's all right!

PORTLAW

(Last Week's Items)

Miss Shunk left for Toronto to spend her holidays with her parents. After teaching here the past three years she has been reengaged for another year.

Mr. Milton Walker, lately returned from overseas, visited among friends around his old home. We were all glad to shake his hand once more.

Miss Lizzie and Mr. Harry Thompson attended the wedding in Toronto of the latter's sister, Miss Gertie Thompson. Miss Lizzie is enjoying an extended visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Watson and children of Toronto are visiting with relatives here.

Mr. Murray Cornfield and friend of Toronto are holidaying at the former's parental home here.

Mr. Andrew Carr, who has spent the past nine months with his daughter at Manitoba, has returned. He was accompanied by his son-in-law, Mr. John Cathcart, who after twenty years residence in the west, will visit among his many Ontario relatives.

Mrs. McKenzie received the sad news last week of the death of her uncle, H. H. Walker, of Port Hope; also the death of her aunt in Orono.

Left Outfit Unprotected

On the evening of May 7th J. Gilpin of Caledon was taking a traction engine and sawmill outfit to the country and he'd up for the night on the roadside opposite Samuel Gray's, corner of townline and 1st line, east Mono. Fred Crisp drove along and his horse took fright and ran away, breaking the buggy and doing considerable damage. The horse ran so far that Fred did not hear of it for several days and the first inkling he got of it was that it wss in the vicinity of Fergus. Crisp entered an action in the division court here, claiming $60 damages from Gilpin. The latter claimed that he hung a lighted lantern on the outfit, but admitted the light was out at the time Crisp came along Crown Attorney Island, who acted for plaintiff, quoted the law on the subject to show that the outfit was not properly protected. It should have had a red light behind. Judge Fisher awarded Crisp $60. the full amount of his claim. Orangeville Sun.
