The weather for the past two or three weeks has been of the choicest garden party variety and these exotics have accordingly flourished amazingly.

Inspector Beckett had three citizens of Ceylon and Flesherton up on a charge of being intoxicated on a recent date. The proof failed to materialize and the cases all fell through.

During the electric storms Saturday afternoon and early Sunday morning lightning struck in three places in town. The fluid hit the residence of Mr. Luke Bowers and broke a rafter but did no material damage. A cedar tree was shattered at Nuhn's pond and a bolt passed down the cistern pipe at the Park House, doing some slight damage to the cistern.

Talk about phenomenal growing weather! Why, even the banking systems of this country are feeling the pulsations of expanding life, and two new banks have been started within twelve miles of Flesherton—one at Kimberley and the other at Feversham. The Merchant's Bank has opened at Kimberley under the management of Mr. Smith of Thamesville, and the Bank of Toronto at Feversham under the management of Mr. R. Bellamy, who was with that institution previous to the war and since returning has been stationed at Welland. "Bob" is a Flesherton boy, a son af Clerk W. J. Bellamy. He came up Friday last and went to Feversham on Monday to open up the new institution, which will be a great convenience to the people of Osprey Township, all of whom have plenty of money to handle.

Mr. J. H. Campaign of Chicago is visiting old friends here.

Twenty four pupils wrote on the Entrance examination here last week.

Mrs. Geo. Cairns and children of Glenella, Man., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crossley.

Anniversary Services were held in the Presbyterian church here on Sunday morning and evening last, when Rev. Jones of Priceville delivered excellent sermons to large congregations. Miss Ida Osborne of Maxwell assisted with the music and gave a beautifully rendered solo at the evening service. Rev. McVicar took the services on the Priceville circuit. The Methodist congregation here very kindly withdrew their evening service.

The death of Mrs. (Dr.) Fred Murray on Thursday of last week was peculiarly sad. After eighteen years of married life Mrs. Murray gave birth to her first babe the day previously. The baby is living and a healthy little boy, while the mother's life was sacrificed. The remains were brought to Flesherton and interred Saturday afternoon in Flesherton cemetery. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late James Henderson and a niece of Mr. Wm. Henderson of Flesherton. Dr. Murray and the other sorrowing relatives have the sympathy of many friends here in their sore bereavement.

Institute Report

For the year 1918

The Ceylon Branch of the Women's Institute was organized by Dr. Sirrs, July 5th, with 40 members. Previous to this the ladies worked under the title of "The Willing Helpers." All their work so far has been war work. For the year they have knit 579 pairs of socks, value $579.00. 267 pair of these socks were sent to the Ceylon boys, 254 sent to French fund, 14 pair sent to Serbia, 32 pair to Belgium and 12 pair on hand. 170 boxes were sent to the boys, value $4 a box, total value $680.00. One bale was sent to Serbia, value $90.25, one bale to Belgium, value $68.70. $231 00 was raised with bazaars, teas and oyster supper. The boys as they returned were given a ring each with his battalion number on it. The 21 rings cost $126. Total of money raised and value of work for one year was $1648 95.

Sudden Death In Osprey

Wellington Dobson of the 10th con., Osprey, about three miles east of Feversham, was found dead, by his son, on Thursday evening last. The deceased, who was about 66 years of age, ate his supper as heartily as ever and between 7 and 8 o'clock took his dog and went to turn some horses out of a field. Not returning, his son went to look for him and found the body reclining against a fence with both arms over a rail and head reclining on the rail between his arms. The coroner was notified and after viewing the body he gave a certificate of death from heart failure. The deceased leaves a widow and grown up family. He had been suffering for some time from heart trouble.

Osprey Council

Osprey Council met at Singhampton on June 24 according to adjournment from May 25, last.

Communications, accounts, etc., were received from—Municipal World, acct., $38.94; T. N. Scott, administrator for the estate of the late Thomas Scott, deceased, account $154.60.

The following motions were passed: That the account of the Municipal World of March 6 for $10 be referred back and the clerk ask for an itemized account.

That the account of $39.60 for election expenses and $125 for salary in full to March 31st, 1919, be paid to T. N. Scott, administrator of the estate of Thomas Scott, deceased.

That Garnett Magee be paid the sum of $8 for lamb injured by dogs on July 5, 1918, inspected by the late James Douglas, and that the treasurer pay the same upon Mr. Magee asking his declaration.

That Mr. Arnott be released of the responsibility of paying to the treasurer the amount of culvert which he was asked to return to the treasurer in the fall of 1917, which amount was drawn in the fall of 1916, expecting that the work was done and which, through unavoidable circumstances was not completed in the fall of 1916 nor in 1917, but which work was completed in the year 1918, satisfactory to this council.

That the appropriation of each road commissioner be raised $200 to be expended where it is positively necessary, and not to be exceeded by any commissioner except in cases of emergency and only by authority of the Road and Bridge Committee.

That Arnold Hutchinson and Wm. Scott be appointed fenceviewers in place of Edward Mullen and the late John Ross, and that the Clerk send them the necessary papers

That the motion of the meeting of April 12, setting the wages, be rescinded and that a man and team be placed at $5 per day and shovellers at $2.50 per day.

That the Clerk be, and he is hereby instructed, to correspond with Mr. John Parker, County Clerk, re taxes against lots 25 and 26, con. 2 N.D.R., the same being exempt by the municipal Council,

That the Clerk be instructed to amend the Bylaw 645, Aug. 10, 1918, and that those along the county road where statute labor is commuted, pay $1 25 per day and other unperformed statute labor in the township $1.50 per day.

That the claim of W S Inkster re overcharge of taxes on the collector's roll of 1918 be referred to next meeting of the council.

That we now adjourn to meet at Feversham on August 9th.

Council adjourned.

—T. N. Scott, Clerk.

A few miles from Wingham, a returned soldier is having considerable difficulty in teaching his war bride how to perform household duties, says the Ripley Express. She does not take kindly to washing dishes and keeping the home in order. After meals she insists on sitting on the table, smoking cigarettes and taking life easy. She says Canada is a horrid place, with no life or brass bands, and wishes she was back to old London.
