Mr. and Mrs. H. S. White left on Tuesday morning to heliday at their homes at Blenheim and Port Hope.

Meet me at the garden party in Flesherton on Saturday. Dundalk, Eugenia and Flesherton will play baseball. Come and make Peace Day a real holiday.

All roads lead to Eugenia today, (Thursday) for the returned soldiers' garden party. Baseball competition in the afternoon, good supper, and a great concert at night with first class Toronto talent to supply the program. Don't fail to go.

We do not know what some of the returned soldier boys around here think about it, but this is the opinion of the Bruce Herald and Times : "While matches made in heaven may be all right, some of those made in England haven't turned out a howling success."

Saturday of this week has been proclaimed by the government as Peace Day and a public holiday The ladies of Flesherton have undertaken to give a bumper afternoon of sports that day, and you know the ladies never fail in their calculations. There will be a baseball tournament between Flesherton, Eugenia and Dundalk teams, tug of war, foot races, etc. Supper served from 5 to 7. The proceeds are to go towards a memorial and the price of admission to all will be 40 and 25c. See bills for full particulars.

Flesherton baseball team took a trip over to Feversham on Wednesday of last week and beat the team there by the score of 12 to 5.

Miss Susie McClocklin of Durham, who is well known in Flesherton, where she visited her aunt, Mrs Mark Wilson, was recently married to Mr. Stanley McBeth, a young Durham druggist.

Roy McMullen of the 15th battery arrived home recently looking hale and hearty. Roy had many exciting experiences and came off a lucky hero, having been wounded only once, on Aug. 19th, 1918, after a trying period of nearly four years in France. He is a brother of Mrs. Wm. Semple of the 12 h line, Artemesia.

The Upper Canada Bible Depository kept at The Advance office, has just received a complete stock of Bibles, rnnging in price from 50c. to $5.25. Among these are some beautiful things for presentations. There are also Bibles for old people with large print, pocket testaments and Psalms. Come in and look at them.

Mr. Dugald McKillop was called to Capreol near Sudbury, last week, by a telegram announcing the death of his daughter, a Mrs. Carr. The funeral took place on Friday last. A little son of the deceased lady, Emerson, has been living with his grandparents here and attending school. He accompanied his grandfather to Capreol.

A monster garden party will be given by the Woman's Institute, on Saturday, July 19th. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 p. m. (new time). Three good baseball teams will play. Tug of war between married and single men. Racing and other sports for which prizes will be given. Games to start at 3 p. m. Admission 40 and 25c. Proceeds for memorial. Mrs. W. I. Henry, Sec.-Treas.

There was a very large crowd of people at Markdale on July 12, and the affair went off very nicely. The business people there took in a lot of money, but there is a hint from some of the Orangemen that they kept it all and did not put any out for the prizes which were advertised. The baseball match was one of the best seen around here for some time. The contest was between the Power House and Flesherton, the former winning by two runs—score 11 to 9.

This Sunday auto visiting is becoming a genuine hardship in many cases. We have in mind a case where one woman was obliged to get meals for eleven Sunday visitors, and as a result her Sunday rest was an unknown quantity. How long can a woman stand that sort of thing? If it keeps up everybody will hove to purchase tents and take to the tall timbers over Sunday, where their long lost friends cannot find them, but conveniently to town so that they can sneak in by back streets when the church bells ring. Otherwise the women folk will have to keep on washing dishes instead of attending the church services.

Reany-MacPhail

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacPhail, 3rd con. Artemesia, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Wednesday, July 9, when their second daughter, Gertha, became the bride of W. Meredith Reany, son of J. W. and the late Mrs. Reany of Port Elgin. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, wearing a satin charmeuse dress carrying a shower bouquet of white, and took her place beside the groom, while the wedding march was being played by Mr. Bob Black, cousin of the bride. The marriage was performed by the Rev. J. Matheson of Mono Mills, until very recently of Priceville. After the ceremony lunch was served to the immediate relatives who witnessed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Reany left on the afternoon train for Belleville and Montreal. the bride wearing a suit of Navy French serge with georgette blouse and leghorn hat. Among the many handsome gifts was a mink cape, the gift of the groom. On their return they will reside in Southampton, Ont.

Victoria Corners

Mr. Stevens, sr., and Mr. Joe Stevens and daughter, of Tillsonburg, visited the former's son, Albert. Mr. Stevens, Sr., is remaining for a time.

Miss Beryl Rennie of Dromore is visiting at James Best's.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ludlow visited Mr. Ludlow's mother at Shelburne.

The neighbors mostly enjoyed the celebrations on Saturday at Markdale.

In the absence of our minister, while on his holiday, the Sunday service was taken at Inistiore by the Epworth League. The topic was ably taken by Miss Marjory Acheson. A reading was given by Johnny Duncan, "Keeping the Sabbath." A very appropriate solo was rendered by Miss Edna Acheson.

Bob Cook Complains

Bob Cook has entered a complaint with the Orangeville Sun that the people are not keeping the promises they made to the boys before they went to fight the Hun. Bob's kick is that he applied for the overseership of a Dufferin county good roads job and failed to get it, and he feels sore over the fact that promises made to soldiers are treated as scraps of paper. Bob went to France and fought in the front trenches until he was blown up with shrapnel. The scars on his face and a mutilated right hand, once so powerful and mighty, are about all Bob has to show a grateful country for what he made out of the war.

Last Friday, between 6 and 7 p m. fire broke out in a building at the rear of the home of Colin McMillan, Dromore, and inspite of steps to stay its course the fine brick residence was destroyed, also harness shop, furniture store room and hearse near by. The loss is a heavy one as an insurance of $3000 will not begin to cover the loss on the valuable property. Other buildings near by were in much danger and their safety had to be strenuously fought for. The origin of the fire is not clear, but a supposition is that it sprung from children playing with matches—Review.

"To the glory of God and in loving memory of eight Teeswater boys who gave their lives for their country in the great war of 1914-18" —thus reads the inscription on a fine marble memorial tablet which has been erected in the vestry of Knox Church, Teeswater ; as a tribute from the living to its heroic dead.
