The risk attending sidewalk coasting with small wagons was distressingly emphasized in Grand Valley when a Belwood resident, Mr. J. S. Goodail, was thrown from his wagon and badly injured about the head when his horse took fright at the noise emanating from that particular pernicious source of amusement.

The jury in the case of Amos Sherrick, who was charged at Collingwood with shooting a pig thief, and who died of heart failure in court, brought in a verdict that Sherrick was justified in shooting as he did.

Card of Thanks

Mr and Mrs. R. B. McIntosh and family wish to express their thanks to their kind friends of Priceville and the vicinity for the kind sympathy shown them in their recent sad bereavement. They wish to thank also the Red Cross and Girl's Club for their kindness to their son, the late Lance Corp. Harry McIntosh.
