POLITICS IN EAST AND CENTRE GREY

The bringing into the field by the U. F. O. of Lieut.-Col. Dougal Carmichael in East and Centre Grey has created an interesting situation in that riding, where the present member has held the fort for over twenty years. It is generally conceded that the U. F. O. have found the strongest man possible to contest the seat. His brilliant record overseas will materially assist him in reaching the goal of his ambition, and the large number of soldier voters who served under him in France are his most enthusiastic supporters. The development of the contest in this riding will be watched with interest, it being generally believed that Hon. I. B. Lucas has never had, in all his contests, an opponent approaching in strength the soldier candidate.

This conviction is so strong that it probably has given birth to certain rumors, one to the effect that the Attorney General will not commit all his eggs to one basket, but will also choose some other constituency in which to run, so as to provide for contingencies in case of his defeat by the farmer candidate—probably one of the Torontos. This rumor is prevalent in Toronto, but The Advance can scarcely credit it We do not believe that a good fighter would trim his sails so openly, even if he did see a little storm brewing. But the situation is more interesting than it has been in the last two decades.

VANDELEUR

The Vandeleur Branch of the W. I. gave a banquet in honor of their returned soldier boys on Tuesday evening the 9th, in the Foresters' Hall, at which about 125 guests sat down to a sumptuous fowl supper and other good things such as the ladies of this neighborhood are wont to provide. Thirteen of the returned boys were guests of honor and occupied a table in the centre of the hall, the tables surrounding being occupied by their immediate relatives. The tables and hall were tastefully decorated for the occasion with flowers, evergreens and maple leaves. After tea all repaired to the school house, where an excellent program was rendered, after which they returned to their homes, having spent a very pleasant and happy evening.

Stuart Gilray of Toronto spent the past week at George Wright's.

A number from this neighborhood attended the W. I. county convention at Flesherton on Friday last.

Miss Jean Wright returned to Toronto on Monday to attend Normal School.

Mrs. Wilson and son of Toronto were visitors at Jos. Buchanan's last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard spent a week in Toronto, returning last Monday.

Wilfred and Howard Graham, Mrs. Graham and Miss Annie Graham, motored to Toronto last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGee of Toronto visited with the former's mother, Mrs. Richard Genoe, last week.

CITIZENS' LIBERTY LEAGUE

Is Absolutely Opposed to a Return of the Old License System

The Citizens' Liberty League, consisting of prominent men and women in Ontario, place themselves on record as being unqualifiedly opposed to any measures that tend to bring back the bar and the unrestricted sale of spirituous liquors.

On the other hand, the Citizens' Liberty League sincerely believes that the present situation demands a repeal of the unsatisfactory Ontario Temperance Act, and the inauguration of sane, moderate temperance legislation.

These leading men and women, with no selfish ends to serve, and having in mind only the best interests of all the people in Ontario, are convinced that the true solution to the temperance problem is to allow the general sale of more appetizing, non-intoxicating beer and light wines, with the sale of spirituous liquors placed under proper Government regulations and restrictions.

Unite with the Citizens' Liberty League in its earnest, sincere endeavor to obtain temperance legislation which meets the needs of all but curtails the liberties of none.

Ensilage is Profit

Ensilage is clear profit. It gives your stock health and weight they could get in no other way.

Have proper ensilage and lots of it. A good silo is a paying investment on the farm. The construction of the Toronto Silo assures you of ensilage properly protected against air and cold. The Hip Roof allows you to put in several more tons than other silos. In the Toronto Silo you can tramp the ensilage, right to the top.

The Toronto Ensilage Cutter has set a new standard of service. You will find it trouble-free and amply powerful for your needs. And you'll have it when you need it.

Let us tell you all about these two important Toronto Products. Our booklets are complete and illustrated. They will be sent free if you write for them.
