VICINITY CHIPS

Miss Wilda Crossley of Toronto is visiting at her parental home here.

Mr. Fred Bellamy of Collingwood was a visitor in town over the week end.

Born—At Mitchell on Wednesday, Oct. 15, to Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Durrant, a daughter.

T. F. McArthur. wife and son, of Niagara Falls, visited at J. Stinson's, Toronto Line, last week.

The Ladies Aid of Flesherton Presbyterian church will give a fowl supper in the school room of the church on Friday evening, Oct. 24. Admission 50 and 35c

Mr. Chas. Moore moved his family to town last week and has taken up his residence in the premises recently vacated by Mr. McDonald, opposite The Advance office.

Mr. John Vause, who recently sold his farm on the Durham Road, has purchased a valuable farm a few miles east of Stayner, in the township of Sunnidale.

Mr. Ed Colgan of the Dundalk Herald gave The Advance a friendly call one day last week, while on his rounds delivering ballots for the election. Mr. Colgan is returning officer for South Grey.

The date of voting on the Priceville hydro enabling bylaw has been withdrawn and both bylaws wil be voted on at the same time about the first of December. The main bylaw will be passed at next meeting of Artemesia Council and date of voting decided at the same time.

A belated communication appears elsewhere in this issue from Mr. A. I. Smith, a one time resident of Osprey. This came too late to appear last week, but at the writer's special request we are printing it this week. Mr. Smith evidently believes in the maxim "better late than never". He also fayors us with his pheto to accompany the article.

Some excellent wells have been put down this summer by Mr. Bellerby with his very complete drilling outfit. The last was completed on Friday for the Munshaw House when, after going down 130 feet a strong spring was struck which gives 111 feet of water in the well Mr. Down has 90 feet of water in his well. Both of these wells penetrate the rock for some distance. Mrs. Wilson's well was only down about 70 feet when a spring was struck which overflows five feet above the level of the ground. All of which surely goes to prove that this is not a dry town.

Dr. Jamieson's meeting in the town hall on Thursday night of last week was well attended. Mr. Boyd of Markdale was in the chair. The speakers of the evening were Dr. Jamieson and Mr. Somerville, a Toronto lawyer. Dr. Jamieson's speech was well received, but while the other gentleman made his hearers laugh with his witticisms and old campaign jokes, his speech did not carry the weight of that of our late member, Dr. Jamieson. Although not what some would call a silver tongued orator, the Dr. has a convincing, manly, fair and honest way about him that makes for him many friends. May he long live to retain the reputation he has carried with him for so many years.

Mrs. A. Gillespie (nee Leone Thompson) of Toronto is visiting with relatives here.

Born—At Wellandra hospital, St. Catherines, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sargent, on Oct. 11, a son.

The Ladies Aid of Maxwell Presbyterian church will hold their annual fowl supper on Tuesday, Nov. 4. See bills for particulars.

The high school baseball team went up to Owen Sound on Tuesday of last week and played a tie game with the collegiate here. The final score was 1 to 1. The return game was played here Saturday, but as both the Flesherton pitchers were unable to be present, Owen Sound won by the score of 15 to 11.

EAST MOUNTAIN

"October strews the woodland o'er
With many a faded leaf,
November brings that sad, bare scene,
With melancholy days so cold and brief."

Mrs. Thompson Allen has returned home after visiting her sister at Mildmay.

Harold Lever and Jas. Colgan of Flesherton were callers in our vicinity.

We express our sympathy with Mrs. Wm. Semple, who recently broke her leg badly between the knee and ankle by stepping into a hole.

William Harbottle has purchased R. Fawcett's place, between Duncan and Heathcote. He has also purchased a handsome driver. What does all this mean, Willie ?

Viola Lewis and Pearl Allen of Hamilton Normal school, and Annie Allen, teacher from near Creemore, spent Thanksgiving at their parental homes.

Over a Billion Saved by People

Some Striking Figures of Savings Deposits from Bank Statement for August.

A total of $1,196,632,931 in savings bank deposits is a gratifying report that many of the countries which have emerged from the war would be glad to report today. This is the position of Canada as revealed in the bank statement for August.

The amount is $181,921,066 better than the same month last year, notwithstanding the fact that a good part of it was transferred to last years $600,000,000 Victory Loan, and is $21,540,778 better than July of this year.

This is a promising outlook for the Victory Loan campaign which is at present being carried on. If the depositors in Canada's savings banks were to say the word, they could subscribe the $300,000,000 asked nearly four times over. The success of the present effort should be overwhelming.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Charlie Thistlethwaite, who died October 18th, 1918.

We often sit and think of him,
But not with outward show,
For the heart that mourns sincerely
Mourns silently and low.

Ever remembered by his mother and father.
