VANDELEUR

Thomas Gilray, a well know grain and clover thresher of this vicinity, while operating his machine on the farm of George Wright on Tuesday of last week met with a very painful accident in which he had his right hand cut off and the arm so badly mangled it had to be amputated about three inches below the elbow. The accident occurred about half past five in the evening when he attempted to remove some straw that had become lodged in the cutting box, getting his hand caught in the knives. Drs. Ego and Brown were hastily summoned and operated on the injured member, and at the last report he was progressing as well as could be expected, and is being cared for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright, who are relatives. His sister, Miss Annie Gilray, trained nurse is in attendance.

Hallowe'en passed off very quietly around here, there being only a few small tricks done.

Misses Annie and Edith Betts spent Sunday with friends at Eugenia.

Jamieson--Chant

Bathurst street Methodist church, Toronto, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding at high noon on Saturday November 1st, when Amelia Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. C. H. Chant, of Unionville, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Albert Jamieson, son of Mrs. J. H. Jamieson, of Flesherton, and formerly Sergeant in the 15th Batt., serving overseas. Rev. J. J. Ferguson, pastor of the church, conducted the ceremony, the young couple being unattended.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Professor Chant, of Toronto University, wore a handsome brown velour suit with pressed beaver hat to match. After the ceremony the happy couple left for Buffalo and on their return will reside at 32 High Park Ave, Toronto.

The groom, who has been Instructor in Vocational Training, has been appointed Inspector of Soldiers Civil Re-establishments. The bride, who was a Nursing Sister and rendered valuable services during the war, was on the eve of her marriage given a very generous miscellaneous shower by her friends in Toronto.

Major-General Mewburn, Minister of Militia, speaking at a reunion of the 16th Batt. members, announced that a silver cross, hung from a purple ribbon, would be given to every mother who lost a boy at the front. Eight war memorials are to be erected to the memory of the Canadians who fell overseas. One of them would take the form of a hall of records, while the others would be memorials commemorating the fallen.

PRICEVILLE

The continued wet weather last week delayed the harvesting of the turnip crop.

A thunder storm with heavy rain passed over here during Thursday night of last week.

We are late in mentioning our fall fair concert, but we may say that it was quite a success. All space in the hall was filled. T. Nichol, Esq., was chairman. The Proton orchestra in rendering music was as popular as ever, and Miss Irwin of Durham ably presided at the piano. W. G. Kirkwood of Toronto gave a number of Scottish songs, but Miss Louie Rodney of Toronto was the favorite of the evening. She appeared several times and was repeatedly called back again. $116 was realized.

Six cars of potatoes have been shipped from this station already.

A Farmers' Club has been organized here and the first shipment of live stock was made last Tuesday.

We were sorry to hear that Miss Myrtle McArthur of Buffalo, N.Y., was badly injured last week in an auto wreck. Her mother and sister, Mrs. D. Campbell, took the first train to be with the injured one.

Fred Pinkerton, an ex soldier, brought home his bride a few days ago. Fred became acquainted with an English girl while he was overseas, so he sent her an ocean ticket and met her in the city and was married.

Wm. Smellie, an old resident of Glenelg, passed away on Oct. 18 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. McLean. Mr. S, came to the county in 1857, and a few years after bought the farm on the Durham Road, where he lived until old age caused him to retire. He wac a good carpenter in his day and a fine penman. He was for many years appointed deputy returning officer at the elections in Glenelg. The funeral on the 21st was largely attended, his pastor, Rev. C. S. Jones, conducting the service at house and grave.

Dr. McIntyre, V. S., has been ill for some time, but Dr. McFarlane has treated him successfully and has him on his feet again.

Mrs. J. Beaton is still under the doctor's care.

Coal-Dust Explosion At Cement Works

Mr. James McLean was the victim of a serious coal dust explosion at the Cement Works on Wednesday. While aloft on a tank endeavoring to clean some clogged pipes, the coal dust surrounding him, the explosion took place, the flames for a moment making a frightful showing. His legs and face are severely burned and he suffered much till help and remedies came. Brother workmen were not near him at the time and it is a wonder how he divested himself of his ne her clothing, the skin of his legs being severely burned. Mr. Shock, the new manager, gave unremitting attention to the sufferer until medical help arrived, and we hope that skill and care will soon bring "Jim" around again.—Durham Review.
