IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. D. W. Jamieson, who died November 17, 1915.

We saw her suffering, heard her sigh
With aching hearts and weeping eye ;
We saw her sinking hour by hour
But could not stay death's awful power,
But now she calmly sleeps at last;
All pain, all aches, all suffering past.
When a mother breathes her
last farewell,
The loss is more than tongue can tell,
The world is quite another place,
Without the smile of mother's face.

—The Family.

Chrysanthemum Wedding

At one o'clock noon on Wednesday, Nov. 12th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Karstedt was the scene of a happy event when their eldest daughter, Ella Mabel, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. C. A. Belry, pastor of the Methodist church, to George Alexander McTavish.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully gowned in white georgette and silk crepe, with silver trimmings, and carried a magnificent bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums and fern, with drooping ribbons to which 'mums were attached. Little Miss Audrey McTavish, of Oshawa, acted as flower girl and Miss Elda Karstedt, of Flesherton, played the wedding march. During the signing of the register Miss Allie Williams, of Toronto, sang very sweetly "Oh! Promise Me."

The drawing room was decorated with ferns, 'mums and smilax, and the dining room in pink chrysanthemums, cream tulle and smilax.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome cheque, and the flower girl, pianist and soloist also received much appreciated favors. Among the other numerous gifts was a handsome cheque from the bride's parents.

The happy young couple motored to Toronto and left next day for Cleveland. On their return they will reside in Flesherton where The Advance, along with a host of friends, tender the young couple a hearty welcome.
