The staffs of our public and high schools are spending the holidays at their several homes as follows : H. S. White at Port Hope, Miss Crowe at Guelph, Miss Holmes at Winchester, Mr. Holland and Miss Bunt at their homes here.

The Advance has once more to thank the ladies of the Women's Institute for their annual gift of a good fat goose May their society prosper and every member have a happy and prosperous New Year. For the past five years the W. I. have been doing a splendid work, first in war assistance and now in the endeavor to raise money for a memorial park. They are worthy of every assistance.

The workmen engaged in laying the cement floor in Mr. Down's new garage made a very close acquaintance with death on Saturday afternoon last, from a dose of the deadly gasoline gas. The building was closed up tight and heated by a wood stove and coal furnace, while a gasoline engine ran the mixer. Along in the afternoon the six workmen began to feel " queer " and lose strength. Two of them quit work and went home. The three remaining worked for some time longer until they were staggering and unfit to do any more. It was with difficulty that they were able to get to the door and to their homes. Mr. Down himself, Malcolm McDonald and Joseph Blakely were the unfortunate ones and a doctor's services were required. They were all able to go to work again on Monday, but you can wager that it was not under the same conditions.

Mr. Wm. Nixon, of Amulet, Sask , is spending a few weeks with his wife here.

Miss Pearl Radley of Toronto visited her father over the week end.

Mrs. A. Thistlethwaite left on the 17th for Toronto to stay with her son, Jeff, under the care of Dr. Robb.

Don't forget the entertainment in the Presbyterian church on Christmas night. Tea will be served followed by a good entertainment.

A delightful time was spent in the public school Friday afternoon, when a Christmas tree was unloaded and a neat program given. Master Melvin Sled made an ideal little chairman.

All subscriptions sent in by mail and postmarked not later than December 29, 1919, will be received at the dollar rate. After December 29th the rate will be $1.50.

Mr. Andrew Gilchrist has sold his farm near Ceylon and purposes, we understand, to live in Flesherton. Mr. W. Caswell of the Toronto line has handed the homestead over to his son, Nat, and will also move to town. Both families will be heartily welcomed.

The English astronomer who predicted the end of the world or some other great disaster last week has failed in his forecast, as so many have before him. Nothing out of the ordinary happened because of the conjunction of six planets, unless the cold weather could be called extraordinary, but neither bad storms, earthquake or other phenomena occurred. Therefore we will not print the letter provisionally promised last week.

The Owen Sound Sun-Times published a photo of G. M. Leeson, M.P.P., last week, and announced him as the member elect for Centre Grey. If it were not for Bro'r Fleming's well known temperance principles one would be tempted to believe that he had been sampling some of the swampy variety of wet goods recently unearthed up around Owen Sound. Mr. Leeson is member for SOUTH Grey and it is in order for Lieut.-Col. Carmichael, who carried off such an astounding victory in Centre Grey, to enter a protest.

Mr. R. Bentham of the suburbs captured two foxes in his traps one day last week, for the pelts of which he received $44—a good day's work. Dick has received $99 for the fur captured within the past month right on his own farm and within a few rods of his own buildings. The captures comprised four foxes and three raccoons. Dick seems to have a fur farm run at a minimum cost and he knows how to secure the pelts. Those who hunt the wary animal with dogs have not been so fortunate by a long way.

Dr. Mearns of Hanover, in a recent address in his home town, criticized the Grey County Road Commission very strongly. Among other things he said, " This rotten committee ought to be turned out." His uncalled for charges brought forth a hot reply from Mr. Boyd in last week's Sun Times. Now Dr. Mearns says he did not know he was speaking for publication. It would seem that the Dr. has one variety of facts for the public and another for home consumption. The knowledge of this fact ought to pretty near shove the Dr. out of public life.

Announcement

I wish to announce to the people of Flesherton and surrounding country that I am opening a Gents' Furnishing Store on Jan. 2nd, 1920, in the building recently vacated by J. H. Hales, music dealer. I have secured the sole agency for Hobberlin ready-made suits and overcoats. My ambition will be to please my customers to the best of my ability, hoping to receive your patronage in return. Wishing you all the compliments of The Season, I remain, yours faithfully, H. J. LeGard, Gents' Furnishings, Flesherton, Ont.

Raised Sub. Rate

After sticking to the old subscription rate for almost three years after all the other other Grey County papers had raised, the Flesherton Advance in its last week's issue announced that its rate after Jan. 1st, 1920, will be $1.50 per annum.

By sticking to the old rate the Advance says it has lost money ; and no doubt it has. In fact, the paper situation is such that several publishers of weeklies and semi-weeklies are seriously considering a further increase per annum. — Owen Sound Advertiser.

Courting At Markdale

Mr. Bruce Burnett, of the suburbs, was given a fair warning in court here last week and taught that interfering with a Constable in the discharge of his duties can't be done.

It appears that on Saturday night, December 6th, a number of young men, some of whom were intoxicated, became very troublesome on our streets, which resulted in Chief Hartley attempting to make an arrest. One, Rance Teeter, was the man pursued, but somehow, it is understood, that Mr. Bruce Burnett attempted to prevent the arrest. Consequently he appeared before Magistrate Armstrong on this charge. Mr Armstrong and Lawyers Henry and McCullough pointed out the seriousness of the offence—a fine of $100 could have been imposed, or six months in jail. After grave deliberation Magistrate Armstrong dismissed the case, with costs. We might mention here that it is declared that the Court will support Constable Hartley in the discharge of his duties, and all such public nuisances are to be dealt with to the limit hereafter.

Arthur Wrightman, who appeared on a charge of "drunk and disorderly" was fined $5 and costs for being disorderly and making use of profanity ; $10 was imposed for being intoxicated.

Rance Teeter did not appear, having "skipped the country." However the Court declared "we'll get him yet," so he will probably suffer most severely, he having really been the chief cause of the disturbance.—Standard

Tree Fell On Him

Hamilton McFadden, aged 55, who resides about three miles north of Markdale, was brought to Owen Sound Hospital on Saturday morning, suffering from a bad fracture of the upper end of the thigh bone. He was felling a tree at his home, and when it fell, it pinned him to the ground, where he lay for several hours, knowing that his family would be on the spot sooner or later. Dr. Brown was called in and had the unfortunate man brought to Owen Sound where he is now recovering. Dr. Middlebro is attending Mr. McFadden here.

Mr. "Cam" Peppler, of Hanover, met with a most unfortunate and distressing accident while at work in the Knechtel factory on Friday afternoon of last week, when he had the two middle fingers of his left hand severed and the index finger and thumb badly cut by getting it in contact with a saw. "Cam" is one of the town's well known hockey players and the accident will keep him out of the game this year. His many friends regret his misfortune.
