VICINITY CHIPS

Born—In Flesherton, on Sunday, Jan. 18, to Mr. and Mrs. R. Down, a son.

Miss Hazel Henry was in Dundalk last week assisting her sister, Mrs. Howard McCauley, with her reception on Friday.

Miss Flo Lever, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident in Toronto a few days ago, is visiting with friends here.

The concert advertised for Wednesday evening of last week failed to materialize owing to illness of members of the company in Toronto.

James S. Carleton, editor and proprietor of the Creemore Star, died on the 5th inst. He leaves a wife, a daughter and one son.

Mr. George Clark of Ponoka, Alta., and cousin, Miss Ruby Aikenhead of Toronto, visited with relatives here for a few days during the past week.

The sensational photo play, Mickey, will be at the Regent, Markdale, on Jan. 30 and 31. Watch for particulars next week.

Mr. Andrew Wallace, one mile north of Kimberley, will hold a credit auction sale of farm stock and implements on Wednesday, Jan. 28. See advertisement and bills. J. A. Myles auctioneer.

We make a charge of 10c a line for all church announcements, concerts etc., up to 5 lines. Over that number 5c a line. No reading notices inserted under 50c. Count six words to the line.

A meeting of the Osprey branch of the U.F.O. will be held in the Methodist hall, Maxwell, Jan. 23 at 2 p.m. Members are requested to attend. Ladies cordially invited.—H. Spofford, Sec.

Mr. C. A. Norsworthy, manager of the Merchant's Bank, got a nasty cut under the eye with a puck while playing a practise game of hockey one evening last week. It did not improve the artistic contour of his features for a few days—to any appreciable extent.

Mr. Winslow Kernahan, son of Mr. J. A. Kernahan of Feversham, has been appointed clerk of Osprey township in place of Mr. T. N. Scott, resigned. Winslow is a returned man, as was his predecessor, and is a young man of sterling qualities and the best qualifications for the office. We believe that the Osprey council made a wise choice from the several applications considered. Both clerk and treasurer are now central in the township, which will be a convenience for all concerned.

The Board of Agriculture meetings here on Friday last were not so well attended as usual, owing to the great amount of sickness and 30 below zero weather which prevailed. The ladies, however, had a well attended and quite interesting meeting in the afternoon, with Miss Gilholm of Bright as speaker. The combined evening meeting was more poorly attended than any we have ever seen here, and those who were present had to wear overcoats and wraps, and some even had to leave the hall and return home, owing to the coolness of their reception. Mr. H. Down occupied the chair. The speakers were Miss Gilholm of Bright and J. A. Fallis of Millbrook. Rev. McVicar also spoke shortly and Miss Maud Acheson gave an exceedingly humorous recitation, which was loudly applauded.

The sensational photo play, Mickey, will be at the Regent, Markdale, on Jan. 30 and 31. Watch for particulars next week.

Mrs. John Richardson will hold an auction sale of household furniture, etc, at her residence in Flesherton, at 2 o'clock p m. on Saturday, Jan. 31. D. McPhail auctioneer.

The Annual Meeting of Artemesia District L. O. L. will be held in Clayton's Hall, Flesherton, on Friday, Jan. 23rd, at 2.00 o'clock p. m. Albert Jackson, W. M.; Glenn Davis, Rec.-Sec.

Evangelist G. M. Sharpe commenced a series of evangelistic services in the Methodist church Sunday last. Meetings will be held every night except Saturday, commencing at 8 p.m. Mr. Sharpe will speak on the following subjects: Tuesday—How to have a revival in Flesherton. Wednesday—Boosters and knockers. Thursday—How to beat the devil. Friday—Bible Bells. Sunday a.m., Jan. 25th—Heaven and how to get there. Sunday afternoon—Sunday school rally. Sunday evening—Fences across the road. Monday—The four corners of the bed.

Since last issue the railways have been fighting snow, and train service has been somewhat irregular. Saturday morning a snow plow got off the track near Laurel. The morning train went as far as the derailed plow and waited for the up train. When that arrived the letter bags and passengers were transferred and brought up the line backwards. The afternoon train from Owen Sound passed here about 7.30 p.m. and the Saturday night train from Toronto arrived at 3 a.m. Sunday. Thus the joys of railroading are emphasized this winter. What will they be in February?

Markdale this season has the fastest hockey team ever seen around here. Flesherton again attempted to go up against it in the rink here on Monday night of this week and got almost as bad a drubbing as they did on the last occasion. At the same time, the home team was badly handicapped by having some of its best players absent and snowbound, necessitating the placing of some green men on the team. The game was a clean one throughout. The score was 18 to 2. Markdale beat Dundalk on Thursday last by a ssore of 5 to 4.

Col. Robt. J. Bates

The subject of the following sketch from the Detroit Free Press of recent date, was born at Feversham and his sister, Mrs. Thomas Cooper, still lives there. Col Bates later lived in Flesherton and was in business with his brother, J. W. Bates. It is over thirty years since he left here.

Cited with the highest decoration in the French Legion of Honor, as a mark of appreciation by the government of France for splendid co-operation and efficiency during the war, Col. Robert J. Bates, formerly of Sault Ste. Marie, has taken residence in Detroit, after faithful service to the nation and the state of Michigan in a military career dating back over a period of 28 years.

Colonel Bates is the oldest active military man in Michigan. He joined the ranks of the old Michigan National Guard over a quarter of a century ago, starting as a private and working his way up to commanding general of the forces of the state under the guard arrangement prior to the war. He participated in two strike campaigns, and during the Spanish-American war commanded the upper peninsula battalion of the old Michigan Thirtyfourth, which saw service in Cuba. Upon the return from Cuba Colonel Bates was instrumental in the drafting of a bill which passed the state legislature providing the appropriation of $190,000 to care for the men, many of whom returned from Cuba in a deplorable condition.

Just four years ago Colonel Bates was induced to go to Canada, where he organized, trained and commanded a British regiment, which he took overseas in August, 1916. At the entrance of the United States into the war, Colonel Bates immediately resigned and returned to America where he entered the service of the United States. He returned to France in 1917 as a major, and in his 18 months of service overseas under the American flag, his efficiency as a military leader won for him two promotions, returning a full fledged colonel.

In France he established, built and commanded the largest air base in the world, the A. S. P. C. No. 2 During his service he launched the first Liberty plane which flew the American colors on foreign soil. His splendid work as a military leader and co-operation with the French gave him his two decorations by the French government.

The resignation of Walter G. Rodgers as quartermaster general of Michigan after faithful service of 20 years has resulted in a vacancy in the state military ranks for which Colonel Bates is a candidate. His efficient military career, his untiring efforts in behalf of the men in the ranks, and his established loyalty to both state and nation, makes his name one of the most ideal of the candidates ior the post.
