Markdale high school sent a hockey team down to play the Flesherton high school team on the ice here Thursday evening last. The score was pretty even and a good game resulted, with 8 to 6 in favor of Flesherton.

A bunch of Flesherton hockey fans drove to Markdale Friday night to see the game with Dundalk. They left here about 6.30 and arrived at Markdale at 9 o'clock—2½ hours going six miles. This gives an idea of the condition of the roads.

The annual meeting of the Flesherton Library Association will be held in the library building on Monday, February 2nd, at 8 o'clock. The executive will meet at 7 o'clock. About twenty new books have just recently been added to the library.

During the four long years of the war a very aged lady in town, Mrs. Hannah Pedlar, busied herself like many more in knitting socks for the soldiers. The Advance, as well as many others, tried to learn from her the number of pairs manufactured, but was always met with a blank refusal. At the time we decided to start an underground wireless that would bring us in the information. It is only within the past few days that our underground wires started humming, and they inform us that this esteemed lady knitted 665 pairs of socks in the four years besides other work. Over four score years, and produced that number ! How was that for war work ? The lady herself implied when interviewed that it was nobody's business how much she did ; she wasn't doing it for honor, anyway. Well, The Advance believes in giving honor where honor is due, and there is considerable honor attached in this case.

Mr. Harmon Hales is visiting friends in Owen Sound.

Flesherton W. I. have donated ten dollars to the Armenian relief fund.

Owing to the Prayer Meetings the W. I. meeting announced for February 4th, at the home of Mrs. Ed. Best, has been postponed to Wednesday, February 11th.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. John Dand, of the 12th Line, Osprey, has been ill for some time suffering from nerve trouble. There is very little change for the better.

Mr. Hickling took twelve of his birds to the poultry show at Owen Sound last week and returned with twelve prize tickets. Mr. Hickling now breeds the Indian Game, Birck Leghorn and S. S. Hamburgs. The show was the most successful ever held in the county town.

Died—On December 29th, at the home of his parents, 84 Oxford St., Woodstock, John Kenneth Ludlow, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Will J. Ludlow, aged 4 years and 4 months. Death resulted from an attack of diphtheria. One little brother, aged six years, remains.

Died—In Toronto, on Friday, Jan. 23, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. N. M. Hall, 66 Homewood ave., Margaret Eva McFarlane, widow of the late Archibald Boyd. Mrs. Boyd lived in Flesherton and vicinity for a good many years, and with her husband was highly respected. They left here about ten years ago. Mrs. Boyd was a cousin of Mrs. H. LeGard. The funeral took place to Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Toronto, on Saturday.

While Albert Smith and Saul Fawcett of Kimberley were driving home from Markdale about 2 a. m. last Saturday morning their cutter upset in a drift near Davis' corner, Meaford Road. The mare made a bolt and the lines broke, the cutter righting itself, and both cutter and horse disappeared. Neither animal nor cutter have since been seen or heard from. Anyone knowing of their whereabouts will confer a favor by communicating with Mr. Smith.

A gentleman who pins his faith to the pig "melt" told The Advance some time ago that the winter would be hard at the beginning, but would taper off and the latter part would be mild. Well, it will soon have to begin to taper, or that man's reputation as a weather seer will suffer in our sanctum. During the whole of the past week the temperature here has ranged from zero to 26 below. Let her taper quick or our wood pile will arrive at a sharp point first.

The Scarlet Chapter L. O. L. of Artemesia met on the 20th inst and elected the following officers : W. C. in C., Geo. Cairns ; E. C., T. Bentham ; Scribe, C. J. Bellamy ; Treas., H. Piper: Herald at Arms, Snowden McLeod ; Chap., Jos. Blakeley ; 1st Lect., A. E. Bellamy ; 2nd Lect., J. F. Mathewson ; 1st Cond., D. McLeod ; 2nd Cond., John Hales ; I. H., Fred Wright ; O. H., Geo. Snell ; Installing Master, D. McLeod.

The last league game of hockey for this group was played at Markdale on Friday night between the Dundalk and Markdale teams. An irritating writeup in the Dundalk paper last week put the Markdale boys on their mettle and the drubbing they gave the Dundalk players will be immortalized in the history of hockey here. It was a whitewash complete—the worst drubbing of the winter. Dundalk went home without scoring a goal, while Markdale got eight or ten and could have made it twenty if they had half worked. Dundalk has been doing a little sneering at Flesherton during the past season, but the chickens have gone home to roost—no, only old hens without much scratching ability. The sneerers are dumb.

There was quite a bit of excitement in town the last of the week over the wedding of a returned soldier from Owen Sound who had been in town receiving vocational training. A young lady from Owen Sound arrived on the afternoon train Friday and the young couple were married that evening. An irate grandfather arrived on the scene from Owen Sound Saturday morning, claiming that the young lady was under eighteen and threatening all sorts of trouble for the young man. The young couple returned to Owen Sound with him Saturday and the public curiosity is naturally great as to the outcome.—Shelburne Economist.

Alexander Campbell, aged 65, of Owen Sound, was probably fatally burned in the bedroom of his nephew, Norman Barclay, in Toronto. Both men, according to the police, had been drinking in the room, and in some unknown manner Campbell's clothing caught fire and he was unable to call for help. His clothing and flesh from the ankles to the thighs were burned from his body and his condition is so serious that doctors in the General Hospital hold out no hope for his recovery. Norman Barclay, aged 29, was locked up in West Dundas Street station charged with being drunk. From information secured by Policeman McRae, Campbell had been invited to Barclay's room early Sunday afternoon. Both men had been drinking heavily. A coal grate was burning and whether or not Campbell's clothing caught fire from it has not been made known.

Vernon, B. C., is without a city council or a police commission, no nominations having been made for them, and the time having expired of those in office in 1919.
