He leaves his wife (Margaret Little of Wareham) and two little sons—Murray and Stanley—to mourn a loving husband and father. The remains were interred in Thornbury cemetery on Saturday last. Wm. Gaudin was one of nature's noblemen, who lived only to do good to his fellow men until the malady developed which caused a cessation of his labors.

The return hockey match between Flesherton and Dundalk high schools was played on the latter's rink on Friday evening. The score was 9 to 4 in favor of Dundalk. This time the Flesherton team was weakened by the absence of some of its best players and the Dundalk team strengthened by the addition of some of the Intermediate hockey team, which accounts for the above result.

Dr. Guy of Maxwell has had a case of the mysterious sleeping sickness under treatment. Little Burton Smith, the grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. E J. Parsons of the 8th line, Artemesia, was the sufferer. The child was only 4 years of age. The strange disease followed a case of the flu, and the little fellow was seven days in a comatose state before he began to come around. He has now recovered.

The Flesherton high school hockey team journeyed to Markdale on Friday night last to play a return match with the high school there. The first period was close and exciting but Markdale was more lucky than the locals and managed to bulge the nets 3 times to Flesherton's once. The second period was also good and our boys, working like trojans, tied the score, the period ending 4-4. The final period was a humdinger and both teams tried their best to win, Flesherton were without subs. and were tireing but the good work of Jack Dow in goal saved them However both teams managed to score one each and the period ended 5-5. It was then agreed to play ten minutes overtime and although pretty tired they went at it as hard as ever. Flesherton scored the first goal in the overtime and with less than a minute to play looked to have the game won, but the puck glanced off one of the Flesherton player's into the net and the game ended 6.6. After the game Mr. Morrison, principal of Markdale high school, invited the boys and their few supporters to his home where a lunch was served and a very pleasant social hour spent. The boys are grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Morrison for their kindness and hospitality.

In Memoriam

In sad and loving memory of my little grandson, Ambrose Findley, of Fort William, who departed this life Feb. 28, 1919.

Short and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all.
The blow was great, the shock severe,
We little thought his death so near.
Just only those who loved can tell
The pain of saying a sad farewell.

—Grandmother.

At the annual meeting of the Bruce Printers and Publishers Association held in Walkerton on Thursday last it was definitely decided to raise the subscription price of all weekly papers in the County to $2.00 a year in advance, the new rate to come into force some time next summer. In the meantime subscriptions will be received at the old price of $1.50 per year. Owing to the increased cost of everything in the publishing business the $1.50 weekly is no longer a paying proposition, and the 50c. raise in subscriptions will hardly take care of the advance in white paper, etc, which the publishers are obliged to meet. In many places in Canada and in most of the United States the $2.00 subscription rate has been in force for some time. —Herald and Times.
