We are pleased to hear that little Lizzie McMullen is improving nicely.

DUNDALK

Born—In Dundalk, on Saturday, February 21st, to Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wellwood, a son.

A letter this week to Mrs. James Madill from her old home in Norway, tells of an interesting incident in which her brother, Mr. O. Hansen, was concerned. A few months ago while out off the coast he discovered a large motor boat bottom upward and floating and apparently drifting in from the North Sea. He took the craft in to shoreand had it straightened up and put in good shape Three months later he found out that the boat belonged to the British naval service in patrol work and had been lost in the final days of the war. He received $8000 from the Government for the rescue and the return of the repaired craft.—Herald.

In Memoriam

In memory of Miss Reta Osborne, who died February 27th, 1919, aged 26 years.

Around the open grave we met
Our tender hearts in sorrow bent,
And wept to see her laid away,
Who was on earth our dearest friend.
Her fond caresses, her words so dear
That greeted us each night and morn,
In vain we now would seek them here,
Oh how we miss her now she's gone.
Her voice on earth is no more heard,
Her battle's fought, her race she's run
With just enough clouds o'er her life
To cause a glorious setting sun.
We would not call her back dear Lord,
O earthly strife she had her share;
But now she rests in Heaven with Thee
And by Thy grace we'll meet her there.

— Emerson.

CEYLON

Address and Presentation

Last Wednesday evening the friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Caswell. During the evening an appreciative and complimentary address was read by Mr. W. J. Moore, when Mr. and Mrs. Caswell were each presented with a handsome leather rocking chair. Mr. A. Harrison and Mrs. C. Akins made the presentation on behalf of the company present. Mr. Caswell thanked those who had so kindly remembered them and assured their friends that there would always be a warm place in their hearts for their neighbors. A very pleasant time was spent, after which the ladies served lunch. The address was signed by Geo. White, LeRoy Thistlethwaite and Wm. J. Moore.

EUGENIA

Too Late Last Week

Wedding bells are ringing.

Mr. George Park has returned to his home at Emerson, Man. Miss Marjorie Park accompanied her uncle to Toronto for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Nixon of Saskatchewan have spent the winter with the latter's parents, returned to their home last week. Mrs. Paul went with them to spend the summer with her sons and daughter.

Mr. George Querin and brids of Listowel are spending their honeymoon with Mr. and Mrs. A. Tuohy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuohy gave a party last Monday evening to their many friends in honor of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Querin, of Listowel. The evening was spent in games and dancing. Violin music was supplied by Messrs. Munshaw and Park. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. We wish the young couple a long and happy life.

Mrs. McMullen has returned to her home here after spending a few weeks with her daughters at Kimberley.

We are sorry to report Mrs. John Walker on the sick list and Mrs. Munshaw not so well.

Miss Turner, an evangelist, took the service in the Methodist church Sunday evening. The service was much appreciated.

Mrs. (Rev.) Eagle has the sympathy of the community in the death of her brotherinlaw.

Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Will Hill and family of Markdale in their sad bereavement.

Miss Flo Lever of Flesherton spent few days with her friend, Miss Parliament

Rev. McVicar preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday and spoke words of encouragement to his congregation, advising them to go on with the work of the Master and never falter. The good wishes of the community go with Mr. McVicar and his family in their new charge at Inwood.

Mr. Munshaw and Mrs. Large attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Will Hill, at Markdale on Tuesday.

The Leap Year Box Social held here in the hall on February 9th, under the auspices of the Women's Institute, was a great success, Although the night was a stormy one and the crowd small they were by no means a SMALL crowd. The programme was well carried out and especially amusing was the dialogue given by the young people of East Mountain entitled "Deaf Uncle Jeff." The fife and drum music by Fred Large aed Harold Tuohy was also good, in fact every item on the program was splendid. Mr. Peter McVicar filled the chair very acceptably and carried out an auction sale of the boxes after the programme and made the evening lively with his jokes as he went along. Mr. McVicar donated a beautiful comforter to the cause and there were four ladies names put up to vote on—Mrs. F. Genoe, Mrs. L. Badgerow, Miss M. Park and Miss A. Betts. The contest will be carried on until about the first of May and if there is anyone wanting to donate to a good cause give any of these ladies what you wish to. Every cent counts a vote. There was about $150 realized at the social and whatever the comforter brings will swell our funds. A great deal of the credit for the success of the evening is due to our good friend, Mr. McVicar, who has been interested right from the first and has come twice now all the way from London to help us out. Our Memorial would soon go up if all took as hearty an interest as Mr. McVicar does.

In Memoriam

English—In loving memory of our dear little daughter, Irene Elizabeth, who was laid to rest on March 3rd, 1919.

It was not in cruelty,
It was not in wrath,
The reaper came that day,
But an angel visited the green earth
And took the flower away.
