VICINITY CHIPS

Mrs. Blackburn was in Toronto last week.

Miss Flossie Richardson of Toronto is visiting her mother here.

Mrs. F. D. Goff of Thornbury visited relatives here during the past week.

Miss Mona White of Toronto visited with Mrs. Ed. Best over the week end.

Miss Jennie Winters spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. E. Cook, near Shelburne.

Hartman's hardware store at Thornbury was burglarized and about a hundred dollars' worth of stock taken.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell spent a few days of the past week with Toronto and Alliston friends.

Mr. Gilchrist's sale on Friday last was well attended and high prices were realized. One span of horses sold for $403.00.

Markdale and Flesherton play hockey on the rink here tonight (Wednesday) Game called at 8 o'clock. Admission 25 and 15c.

The public school board have recognized the H. C. of L. and have added $300 to the salaries—$200 to the principal and $100 to the junior teacher, Miss Bunt.

Hon. F. C. Biggs has announced that the Government has decided to take over as a Provincial Highway the hundred mile road from Toronto to Owen Sound, or, strictly speaking, from Port Credit to Owen Sound.

The Baptist church service in town was withdrawn on account of anniversary services at Rock Mills. In the Presbyterian church Rev. Jones of Priceville preached. At the Methodist church Sunday evening Miss Turner delivered an address on missions to a large congregation.

The Flesherton Bible Depository has just placed in stock the largest selection of Bibles and Testaments ever shown here, ranging in price from a few cents to five dollars. There are some very fine gift books and family Bibles in this lot. The Depository is kept at The Advance Office.—

Some little time ago a telegram arrived here for a coal traveller and this fell into hands that it was not intended for. It read in effect: "Sell all the coal you can—can ship two or three cars a week to all dealers. But don't cut the price." Now what was back of that telegram?

With the election by acclamation in Halton on Monday of last week of Hon. W. E. Raney the Drury government is now off to a good start. Everybody has been shouting "Give Drury a chance." Now he has got his opportunity and you can wager without fear of loss that he will make the best of it. Most people, both secretely and openly, sort of "cotton" to Drury, believing he is the best thing possible for this country just at present, and that numerous abuses and several tons of dirt will be removed during his imminent house cleaning process. Here's wishing him wisdom and determination in his efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Down accompanied the remains of the former's sister, Mrs. Hodgson, to Shelburne cemetery last Thursday.

Mrs. W. L. Wright is in Toronto this week attending the millinery openings This is her thirteenth season. She should understand the millinery business.

Markdale Creamery is now open for business. Highest prices paid for cream Phone or write for can. A square deal is our motto. Give us your patronage. Satisfaction guaranteed. Markdale Creamery Co., phone 44.

March did not come in like any lamb we ever knew, and anyway we are simply disgusted with pig melts, the beechnut, short fur and all other infallible signs that always fail This sort of thing is calculated to make a doubting Thomas of any man.

In a hockey match on the rink here on Wednesday night of last week between Dundalk and Flesherton high schools, the sextette from the south put it over the local puck chasers by 6 3. This is the first defeat the local boys have suffered at home this year The leniency of referee Brown caused the game to become rough at times and much tripping and slashing was indulged in A good crowd was present.

Mrs. (Dr.) Henry is in Toronto undergoing her final examination in law. The good Dr. will henceforth probably find the law governing his daily actions laid on his breakfast plate each morning. Notwithstanding the fact that Mrs Henry is likely soon to become a full fledged lawyer, she is a charming little personage who would not be too severe, even in the capacity of a judge. We would be willing to trust our case to her hands, even as the Dr. has already done. No, we don't exactly mean that, either. These lines might fall under the observation of our own law giver.

The anniversary services at Rock Mills Baptist church on Sunday last and the concert Monday evening were very successful affairs. Large congregations on Sunday and a crowded house on Monday evening, greeted Mr. Watson of McMaster university. This gentleman gave a thrilling description of Vimy Ridge, where so many of our Grey boys participated and where numbers are still "holding their ground" there. Pathos and humor were charmingly intermingled and those who listened to Mr. Watson enjoyed a rare treat.

Death of Isaac Sargent

A victim of influenza, Mr. Isaac Sargent, a former resident of Owen Sound, died last week, and the funeral took place Monday afternoon from the residence of his brother, Mr. James Sargent, to Greenwood cemetery. Mr. Sargent was born in Holland township thirty-nine years ago, and for several years he resided in Owen Sound, being employed as foreman with the Carney Lumber Co. About seven years ago he went to Temiskaming district, where he was in the lumber business with his brother William. He leaves his widow and three children, also his father and mother, Mr and Mrs. Edward Sargent, of Ceylon, and three brothers, Edward and James, of Owen Sound, and William of Temiskaming. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. E. Langford, rector of St. Thomas Church.—Advertiser.

Victoria Corners

Miss Maggie Johnson of Berkeley visited her cousin, Mrs. Milton Bannon.

Mrs. Will Ludlow and little son of Woodstock are visiting at A. and T. J. Stinson's, also Mrs. Best and other friends.

Miss Boles of New York, granddaughter of the late George Armstrong, who lived at Inistioge a number of years ago, visited this place last week and took photos of the old home.

Sure It's Yorkshire?

A Yorkshire sow belonging to John A. Priddle of Badjeros district is somewhat of a record breaker in the matter of large families. Mr. Priddle will have owned the porker two years next April. During the period of his ownership the sow has given birth to five litters of young, making a total of 88 in all. She gave birth to twenty a week ago of which twelve are now living. In the five litters twelve was the average number raised. Sixty thrifty porkers is a big record in less than two years.—Herald.

"Boom" Days On The Wane

Unless all signs fail, the high cost of living is on the wane, the seemingly impossible being brought about by the closing of the European markets to Canadian and American goods. The exchange situation is, of course, the prime factor in these pending readjustments. From all the points where produce and other North American products accumulate for export, come stories of warehouses being blocked with goods for which there is no export demand. It is well known that packing houses are filled from cellar to roof with products bought at high figures, and which cannot be sold in Europe in the present condition of the money market.

If the foreign situation holds, and there is no apparent reason to believe that the finances of the various European nations are on the up grade, or are likely to be for a long period to come, restricted sales of our products abroad will continue. Such being the case, we will, to all intents and purposes, be called upon to consume the products of our own industry. In this event, it will not be long before there is a large surplus, and this situation will, in the natural course of events, bring down prices.

Once the high cost of living problem is surmounted, other changes will come in due course. First of all, there will not be a legitimate demand for higher wages. Of course, these demands will still be made, but their legitimacy, once questioned by the barometer of falling prices, such demands must cease.

These changes cannot, of course, come about without a slowing down of industry. When packing houses can no longer ship freely their products to Europe as they have been doing in huge dimensions for some years now, there will not only be a curtailment in buying their raw materials from the stock raiser and the farmer, but also in employment in their plants. Manufacturing concerns that have also been busy on European orders, will, under present monetary conditions, find a large percentage of their markets cut out from under them, and will naturally seek the home trade at perhaps materially lower prices. This, again, will have a tendency to slow down industry. In other words, there is every reason to believe that our "boom" days are on the wane, and that sooner or later we will get back to earth, and something approximating our pre war period.—Toronto Saturday Night.
