THE MIXING BOWL
with Ann Allen
STUDIO OF HOME ECONOMICS

Hello Homemakers! A Cuttin' party seems to be replacing weiner roasts. Could it be the cost of the main ingredients? By the way, this popular outdoor get-together is the occasion to cut and serve melons. As usual there were just watermelons at our first party, but now other fruits are also offered, but mainly the melons, such as cantaloupe, honeydew. Peaches, pears, apples and grapes, which can be eaten out of the hand, are also good.

People don't mind standing when they have a fragrant chilled piece of fruit in their hand. So set up a table for the garden with a platter full of sliced chilled melons. The only other items necessary are a shaker of salt and dishes of lemon or lime wedges. Cookies and a glass of punch complete a delicious repast.

TAKE A TIP

1. Cantaloupe should be left out of the refrigerator to ripen and develop flavor. Then it should be wrapped well in wax paper and placed in the refrigerator to hold its flavor.
2. A good cantaloupe is firm but when ripe will yield slightly to pressure on the blossom end.
3. You can usually tell the ripeness of a honeydew by the smooth skin that can be stretched when gently pressed.
4. Weight is a good indication of the juiciness to any melon when you select one from several of comparable size.
5. To tap a watermelon at home you may use a coring knife. Take out a plug to see if flesh is pink, as this indicates the ripeness.

FRENCH DRESSING

2 tsps. sugar
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. paprika
¼ tsp. mustard
6 tbsps. olive oil
2tbsps. vinegar

Pour sugar, salt, paprika, mustard, a tbsp. olice oil and a tbsp. vinegar into a bottle and shake well together. Then add a little more oil and shake until all has been thoroughly mixed.

CREAM FRUIT DRESSING

2 eggs
¼ cup sugar
1 tbsp. butter
3 tbsps. lemon juice
few grains salt
1 cup cream, beaten stiff

Cook and stir eggs, sugar, butter, lemon juice and salt. Cook until consistency of boiled custard. Cool and fold in 1 cup of whipped cream.

WHIPPED CHEESE DRESSING

1 small pkg. cream cheese
3 tbsps. boiled dressing
½ cup whipping cream
2 tbsps. lemon juice

Mash cheese with fork. Blend in boiled dressing. Whip cream and beat until fluffy. Then sprinkle in lemon juice and beat again.

FRUIT SALADS

1. On each plate arrange cubes of Cantaloupe, a slice of Pineapple a cooked Prune filled with Peanut Butter, a few black Cherries with stems on and a scoop of Cottage cheese. Serve with fruit dressing.
2. Arrange two Peach and one Pear half on a bed of shredded lettuce. Add a square of lime Jello sprinkled with chopped nuts, a slice of watermelon (without the seeds) and a wedge of Cream cheese seasoned with slivered candied gingers. Serve with mayonnnaise.
3. Serve Honeydew marinated in Lime juice, and fresh Apricots, Cucumber cubes dipped in sugar syrup and peeled. Pear quarters dipped in red colored water. Serve with whip cream dressing.

BLUEBERRY COFFEE CAKE

Topping

¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
3 tbsps. butter or margarine
1 cup cornflakes

Mix all ingredients together and set aside to top batter later.

Coffee Cake

1 cup sifted bread flour
1½ tsps. baking powder
¼ cup sugar
¼ cup salt
1 cup blueberries
1 egg, well beaten
⅓ cup milk
2 tbsps. melted shortening

Preheat oven to 400 degrees F. Grease well a 9-inch cake tin. Sift the dry ingredients together, including the sugar, into a large bowl. Stir in cleaned blueberries with a fork. Combine beaten egg, milk and melted shortening and stir quickly into dry ingredients. Spread batter in greased pan and sprinkle with topping. Bake in hot oven for 25 min. or until done when tried with the finger.
