SPRINGHILL

Reference was made last week to a presentation made Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Corbett before their removal from Spring Hill. Following is a copy of the address:

To Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Corbett.

Dear Friends,—We, your friends and neighbors, are assembled here this evening to bid you farewell and spend one more evening with you before you take your departure from us. You have not been long among us, but long enough for us to know and appreciate your kind and cheerful dispositions and honorable and upright principles. We regret very much that you are leaving us so soon, but such is the way of life. As you go from us we want you to know that the best wishes and prayers of this neighborhood will follow you wherever duty leads you. We feel that we cannot allow the present opportunity to pass without an expression of our appreciation of you and your family. So we wish you to accept this little token, not for its value, but for the best wishes that accompany it. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors—Mildred Caswell, Jim Harrison, Hugh Moore.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Caesar, who is staying at Mr. Porter Beard's, fell and dislocated her shoulder. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. W. J. Caswell has moved his family to town.

Miss Mabel Irwin and brother, Will, attended the Croft—Reid wedding on Wednesday last.

Mr. Nat Caswell has taken possession of his father's farm at the Durham Corners.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Wm. Sharp is improving nicely after her recent fall.

The people of this community sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. W. Wyatt and family in the loss of their daughter, Ida May.

Osprey Council

Osprey Council met at Singhampton on March 6. All the members except Dep. Reeve Arnott were present and the Reeve presided.

—H. W. Kernahan, Clerk.

DURHAM

The chair used by Hon. Dr. Jamieson when speaker of the last Ontario Legislature arrived in town this morning and is now one of his most valued pieces of furniture. In presenting the chair to Dr. Jamieson the Legislature has but followed the usual custom that the Speaker of the House becomes the possessor of the chair occupied by him when his term of office expires. It is a handsome piece of furniture and it is to be hoped the genial doctor will live long to enjoy it.

Albert Noble's livery stable had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Friday morning of last week. On returning a horse to the barn early that morning a couple of customers, on opening the door, found the place filled with smoke, and after a hasty search located it in the office. On opening the door they found the proprietor's fur coat smouldering and almost immediately the door was opened it burst into flames, but was quickly extinguished, but not before its usefulness as a piece of wearing apparel had been destroyed. Mr. Noble's loss will be in the neighborhood of $50.

On Sunday morning about nine o'clock Wm. Nichol, caretaker of the Methodist church here was on hand in time to prevent a serious fire loss. He detected smoke in the church basement, and on investigating discovered the floor under the furnace was on fire, which had evidently been smouldering for some time. Soon R. E. Richardson, John Whittaker and Dr. Wolfe were on hand and on moving the furnace found the floor and joists had been burned to charcoal, and only needed a supply of air to cause a general conflagration. It was fortunate the discovery was made just in time, and the damage will be light. The service for the day had to be dispensed with—Chronicle.

Victoria Corners

Too Late Last Week

A number of the neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Corbett last Friday evening on the eve of their departure for their new home near Swinton Park and presented them with a cabinet of silver.

Mrs. Tucker of Dromore visited at Mr. James Best's.

Mrs Milton Bannon visited a few days with her mother, Mrs. Robinson, of Wideawake Land.

Elmo Stevens has been laid up with sciatica.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Will Talbot, March 5th, a son.

Address and Presentation

Previous to leaving the farm for their new home at Maxwell Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawler were waited on by their neighbors and presented with a handsome chair accompanied by the following address:

To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawler:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Lawler—We, your friends and neighbours, have assembled here tonight to bid you farewell before you take your departure to your new home. We feel we would be missing a grand opportunity had we not accepted this evening to bestow our good wishes upon you.

You will be greatly missed in our community as you were always ready with a helping hand for those in need, a sympathizing and comforting word for the afflicted and a neighbor beyond recall. So, as a token of reward, we ask you to accept this gift, not for its value, but to show the high esteem in which you were held. And our best wishes for a prosperous and happy life go with you to your new home, and may God's presence be with you wherever you roam.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors—Charles Hanley and Garnet Magee.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr and Mrs. Wm Wyatt desire to express their appreciation of sympathy and assistance received from kind neighbors in their recent sorrow caused by the illness and death of their beloved daughter, Ida May.

PRICEVILLE

Our first thaw in 1920 took effect last Thursday and Friday, March 11 and 12, and rendered many roads impassable for teams until Saturday, when frost hardened the roads up again.

Mr. James McDonald, who lived half a mile south of the village, passed away Friday morning, March 12, after a life of about 90 years. He was the eldest of a family of six brothers and one sister and outlived them all by several years. McDonald was a fine plowman, and in his younger days used to win prizes at plowing matches down the country. Mr. Anderson, a soninlaw, of Owen Sound, was at the home for a few days and took charge of the funeral arrangements. Deceased leaves a widow, one son, James, in the far west, and one daughter, Mrs. Anderson, Owen Sound. Rev. C. S. Jones, Presbyterian Pastor, conducted the funeral services at the home and at the cemetery.

Real estate deals—Mr. Jones, father of the Presbyterian pastor, has purchased the Baptist church and lot and will build a dwelling house next summer——Harold V. McDermid has purchased Gordon McDonald's farm of 75 acres a short distance east of the village, and will take possession this spring.

Don. McKinnon has been supplying a number of farmers in this vicinity with fertilizer for their crops this spring.

PROTON

The citizens of Proton were very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Louis Becker which took place at his late home, 36 Malton Ave., Toronto, on Saturday afternoon, March 13. The deceased was born in New Hamburg, Ont., 69 years ago and did business as a general merchant in several parts of the province. He was for several years a much respected merchant of Proton. About four years ago he, with his estimable wife and daughter, Alyda, retired to the city, leaving the business in the hands of his son, H. L. Becker. His widow, three sons and two daughters, mourn his loss. Proton friends extend their sympathy to the bereaved family. The L.O.L., of which he was a member, sent a floral wreath as a tribute of respect

Mrs. Consley has returned home from Toronto.

The U. F. O. unloaded a car load of salt on Monday.

We are pleased to report that Mrs. Meddaugh, who has been suffering with sciatica, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hodgins of Owen Sound were callers in this village last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Binnie are spending a few days in Toronto.

Miss Mildred Binnie is at her home here
