Rev. Mr. Spurgeon's Home.—He lives at Palace Station, seven miles south from the centre of the city. A little over a mile in a cab brought me to the house. It is a delightful situated a piece of ten acres, sloping towards the south. Mr. S. showed me the fernery, the flowers and the garden. Then we went to the stable; and as he opened the door, Mr. S. said: "There, you may eat your dinner off any part of the stable you please, it is so clean." Nor was the praise extravagant; the straw in the stalls had, at its outer edge, a narrow rim of straw matting, so that, in a sense, it might be said that the stalls were carpeted. Over two of the stalls were the names of the occupants, "Brownie" and "Beauty." Mr. Spurgeon said: "My horses are under the law. They observe Saturday. On the day, they are never taken out, no matter who wants to go any where. So that when they carry me to town on Sunday, their Sabbath is not interfered with."

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair

The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.

North of Scotland Canadian Mortgage Company

They charge no fines? they do not equalize your payments, nor charge you 12 per cent on over-due payments: but they do give the most reasonable privileges of any Company lending money,

AND THEIR COSTS ARE LOW!

Special rates given to parties wanting specially large loans, offering special security

I have also a few thousand dollars of

PRIVATE MONEY!

To invest on very reasonable terms, and at 7 per cent. interest. This is a rare chance and the amount is limited. As many English and Scotch capitalists are withdrawing their capital from the market, I believe a change in the money market may soon be expected. Money has reached rock bottom. Now is the time to borrow, and the place is

The Flesherton Real Estate, Loan and Insurance Agency.

INSURANCE!

It is of the greatest importance to Insurers that they select a Reliable and Safe Company, and that they do their business through a reliable Agent. I am prepared to take applications for the Strongest, Safest and Best Companies in Canada, and for a Stock Company, at rates as low as any reliable Mutual. My Companies are the

Lancashire and Citizens, (Stock)

The Waterloo County and Gore District,

(Mutual and Cash.)
