Miss Moore of Hespeler is spending a few weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore.

Miss May Deavitt of Meaford, who was a nurse overseas during the war, has been appointed as night supervisor in Owen Sound hospital.

One day last week a freight car jumped the track near Amaranth Station and the passenger train from Teeswater was held up and the passengers had to be transferred. It caused a delay of nearly three hours.

We make a charge of 10c a line for all church announcements, concerts etc., up to 5 lines. Over that number 5c a line. No reading notices inserted under 50c. Count six words to the line.

Mr. Johnston Cullen, who has been confined to the house all winter, was in town Monday looking up some of his old friends, to see how they had stood the siege of cold and storm. Mr. Cullen himself appears to have weathered it in pretty good form, and many friends were pleased to see him again.

Two detectives came up from Toronto Friday and took W. Thompson of Dundalk to Owen Sound on a charge of assaulting Conductor Scanlon. The accused came before a magistrate on Saturday and the case was set for hearing on Tuesday of this week, but up to time of going to press the result is not known.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson of Hamilton were visitors in town for several days during the past week. Jim is an experienced marble man, having had many years' experience with some of the largest firms in Canada, and he was here looking over the ground with the possible view of establishing a marble business here this coming summer. We hope the opinion formed is favorable. Mr. Thompson worked here years ago with E. VanZant and knows the territory thoroughly.

The boys and girls had their last skate for the season on Saturday night last.

Messrs. H. B. Smith and J. M. Kilbourn of Owen Sound have presented Mr. Trout of the Children's Aid Society with a new Chevrolet car.

Mr. Price Teeter returned Monday after visiting his brother, Lewis Teeter, who is ill at his home, Erin, and is not expected to recover.

C. E. Jennett of Windsor has been located in the Standard Bank here, taking the place of Mr. Herb Sullivan, who goes to Harriston.

A special meeting of Grey County Council has been called for Thursday of this week to deal with Owen Sound's desire to become a city, the road question and general business.

We are pleased to know that little Milbourne Martin is recovering from his sickness of painless pneumonia. The ladies of the Methodist church have their thanks for the generous treat sent to the little fellow in his illness.

Rev. K. J. Jewitt, of Chatham Presbytery, occupied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church on Sunday last. Rev. D. J. Campbell of Russeltown, Quebec, is expected to preach this Sunday.

Mrs. John Brown met with a severe accident on Sunday which will keep her from household labor for some time. While standing on a chair the chair tipped and allowed her to fall. In alighting on the floor one bone in her wrist was broken and another dislocated. She was brought to town and the injured member was attended to by Dr. Henry.

Mr. Alfred Down returned last week from Detroit, where he has been taking a three months' course in the big automobile school there. Alf. is now versed in all makes of cars and will be able to take care of any automobile business that may come his way this summer.

A company is being formed in Owen Sound to run a flying machine route between that town and Toronto this coming summer. The company will start with one machine, which could make four or five trips a day. We fancy it will be some time before business would warrant the placing of more than one machine on the proposed route.

The time tables for the various departmental examinations are to hand. They occur as follows:—Lower School June 9th to 18th, Pass Matriculation June 14 to 28th, Normal School Entrance June 21st to 28th, Junior High School Entrance June 28th to 30th. These examinations are considerably earlier than last year, finishing on June 30 h.

Those who are entitled to pay a government income tax will do well to watch our advertising columns for the next few weeks. The government is publishing a series of advertisements explaining the law on the matter and the way to find out if you come under the tax is o care fully read these advertisements, the first of which appears on our back page this week.

Mr. W. Caswell of town received word last week that his daughter, Miss Myrtle, who has been training for a nurse in Kitchener hospital, had contracted smallpox from nursing a smallpox patient, and was in the isolation hospital there. Before the nature of the disease was known her sister, Flo-, a trained nurse, came from Detroit to nurse Miss Myrtle and now she, too, is in quarantine.

On Tuesday evening, March 2nd, a number of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Beecroft to bid them adieu before their departure for Owen Sound. During the evening a neatly worded address was read by Miss Nettie Teeter, while Lloyd Talbot presented a handsome silver tea service. The recipients expressed their thanks for kindness shown and hoped to have old friends call on them in their new home in Owen Sound.

The W. I. will meet at the home of Mrs. D. McTavish at 2 30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 31. Rev. C. A. Belfry will address the Institute on "Conditions as we find them and wha to do to improve them." Mrs. Thurston will give a paper on "Getting the best out of life." Mrs. George McTavish will give a reading. Tea will be served at the close and a social time spent. Come in time to answer to the roll call, with something more than the "present."

St. Patrick's Day In the Evening

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church always puts up a good entertainment on St. Patrick's Day, and last Wednesday evening was no exception to the rule. Rev. G. A. Belfry acted as chairman and gave a short history of the life of St. Patrick, who was born in Scotland, although he is a patron saint of Ireland. The ladies' and the gentlemen's chorus were loudly applauded, the former giving an encore and the latter singing the chorus of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" "backwards." Viola Thistlethwaite, Laura Boyd and Marie Patton gave a dialogue which was illustrated with a pie plate, rolling pin and large spoon. These young ladies will doubtless become famous bakers in the future. Miss Mabee, Mr. Dinwoodie and Mrs. Thurston each gave appropriate recitations, and Mrs. Down a reading. Mr. Dinwoodie also gave a jewsharp selection. Miss Aleda Mitchell and Master Gerald Large gave a duet which was much appreciated. Ken. and Reg. Boyd gave a piano duet, and these young gentlemen are clever musicians. Mrs. Will Moore and Mrs. Murray gave a dialogue, showing how easy a matter it is to fall into unkind criticism and gossip. An orchestra of about ten assorted pieces gave two laughable selections under the leadership of Dr. Murray. Mr. F. G. Karstedt, Mr. Hickling and Mr. George Mitchell were called upon for impromptu speeches. Mr. Karstedt was absent, and Mr. Hickling being too modest Mr. Mitchell was the only one that responded. Mrs. Joseph Clinton was called upon to make the closing speech, which she did in her usual witty manner. Before she left the platform Mrs. W. Armstrong, on behalf of the Ladies' Aid, presented her with a large bouquet of carnations, it being Mrs. Clinton's 75th birthday. The ladies had provided a bountiful lunch, which was passed around to the large audience that packed the schoolroom of the church.

The collection taken at the door amounted to $30.
