This Road Is Bad

To the Editor of The Advance:

Dear Sir,—I want to call the attention of those who are responsible for the improvement and repair of the county road between Kimberley and Eugenia to the condition of that piece of road. It is a mail and leading road to market. The county has had control of it for two years and I believe it is now worse than it was before they took it over, and that was bad enough. If there is a worse piece of county road, I do not know where it is. Hoping it will be attended to this summer, when we will all feel very grateful, —RATEPAYER

Drover Goes For Trial

(Owen Sound Sun-Times)

Mr. Wm. Thompson, the drover from Dundalk who assaulted the C. P. R. conductor at Dundalk on Thursday, March 11th, was brought to Owen Sound on Friday night and appeared in Police Court Saturday morning charged with "assaulting and causing grievous bodily harm." As the magistrate was ill the case was remanded till Tuesday morning, Thompson being allowed out on $1000 bail.

The case was opened in Police Court Tuesday morning by the evidence of Mr. P. J. Scanlon, the conductor assaulted. Mr. Scanlon, according to his evidence, was in charge of train 707 which left Union Station, Toronto, at 5.25 p. m. on Thursday, March the 11th. Thompson got on the train at Parkdale and sat in the "smoker." As the car was full he was leaning on the arm of one of the seats when Scanlon came by collecting the tickets. When asked for his ticket Thompson wanted to know if Scanlon would "take it now or wait till you get it." Scanlon said he would like it then as he was busy. Thompson said Scanlon knew where he was going. Scanlon said he did but he would like his ticket. The conductor then went on to the front of the smoker and on his way back again asked Thompson for his ticket. Thompson again asked him if he would take it then or wait till he got it. By this time the train was drawing into West Toronto. When it stopped Scanlon beckoned a C. P. R. policeman into the car and pointing to Thompson said he had refused to give up his ticket. Thompson then found his ticket and gave it to the conductor.

Nothing further happened till the train arrived at Dundalk about 11 45. Scanlon got off between the first and second class passenger cars and walked toward the front of the train. He passed Thompson near the front of the second class car, or "smoker," and stopped about ten yards further on at the door of the baggage car. As he was standing there he heard some one come up from behind on his right. As he turned his head he saw Thompson and at the same time received a punch in the face. The next thing he remembered is being supported by the baggagemen, Edwards and Faulkner, while blood flowed down his face from his nose and lip and over his uniform. Dr. Martin of Dundalk was called and dressed the hurt and about fifty minutes later the train pulled out for Owen Sound. At the time Scanlon felt a pain just above his heart but he did not find he had a broken rib till he saw a doctor in Toronto.

Dr. Howey was called and told of dressing Scanlon's injuries on his arrival in Owen Sound.

The two baggagemen testified as to the blow struck. Faulkner said that Thompson said after Scanlon was down that he could lick any man on the C. P. R.

This concluded the evidence and Thompson was sent to the Assizes for trial. Bail was renewed.

OBITUARY

MISS ALICE CHERRY

It is with deep regret that we have learned of the sad death of Miss Alice Cherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cherry, of Kimberley. The deceased, who had been ailing for some months, underwent a serious operation the day previous and on March 21st at Collingwood hospital, she passed peacefully away. Through all her sufferings she was always patient. Miss Cherry was in her 48th year and her character was one that was highly respected by all who knew her. She was ever ready to give a helping hand to those in need. All who truly knew her would surely love her kind and loving disposition. In religion Miss Cherry was a Methodist and died trusting her Saviour.

The funeral took place from the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. John Brown, of Clarksburg, on Tuesday afternoon to Thornbury cemetery. Rev. Mr. St. John officiated at both house and grave.

Among those who are left to mourn her loss are her aged parents, three brothers and four sisters: Joseph of Markdale, Alex of Kimberley, John of Clarksburg, Mrs. Charles Brockelbank of Duncan, Mrs. Joseph Ward and Mrs. George Cornfield of Kimberley, Mrs. John Brown of Clarksburg and a host of relatives and friends.

The floral offerings were beautiful, among which was a large wreath and an arch "The Gates Ajar," from the family.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Joseph and John Cherry, John Brown, Charles Brockelbank, George Cornfield and Gordon Ward. Mr. D. W. Cherry of Toronto attended the funeral. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones, especially the aged father and mother.

Do not ask us if we miss her,
There is such a vacant place;
Can we e'er forget those footsteps,
And the sweet familiar face.
'Tis hard to part with those
We hold on earth so dear,
The heart no greater trial knows,
No sorrow more severe.

Price of Labor On County Roads

At the special meeting of Co. Council last week some discussion took place with reference to the amount to be paid for various classes of work on the road construction and maintenance. Mr. Hutchinson moved that seven dollars should be paid for teams. Mr. McTavish wanted $7.50 per day for teams and $6 per day for road foremen. Others favored $6.50 per day as recommended by the report. It was finally decided that construction foremen get $5.50. The teamsters will get $6.50, tractor and steam roller operators will get $4 50, and laborers $3.50. Maintenance foremen will get $4 50. A team on maintenance that hauls only a yard will bet $5 and $6 50 for a yard and a half. Laborers on maintenance will get $3. The report as amended was passed unanimously.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams of Eugenia were the recipients of a remembrance from their neighbors on March 22, previous to leaving for Toronto, accompanied by the following address:

To our friends and neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams and family:

It is with regret that we have heard of your intention to change your place of abode. We will miss you from our midst, but hope that our loss may prove your gain. We have appreciated your sympathy, kindness and real practical help on many occasions, and your help has always been given with cheerfulness and pleasure. Your kind and generous spirit has won for you numerous friends who could not allow you to depart without expressing in some way their friendly feeling. We now ask you to accept this purse as a slight token of esteem and good will of your friends. In conclusion, our earnest prayer is that you and your family may have mueh happiness and prosperity in your new home. Signed on behalf of your friends—Mrs. H. Foester, Miss Kate Jamieson.

The cement smoke stack is being taken down and will be shipped to some place near Renfrew, where it has been purchased by a saw mill company. Since the introduction of the hydro into the plant a couple of years ago, the company have had no use for it and disposed of it some time ago. While working at the top of it a week ago, some of the tackling gave way, and a couple of the workmen are reported to have had a narrow escape from a 200 foot drop.—Chronicle.
