Two Assize Cases

Two cases of interest to this section were tried at the Assizes last week. One was a case of malicious prosecution and slander. The defendant, a returned soldier named Elliott, came up with his wife a year ago and took over a farm near Markdale. The farm at the time was rented by one McNeilly. Some hard feeling was stirred up and apparently the two families became antagonistic. McNeilly moved to a farm adjoining the Elliott farm. In June Elliott went to a magistrate, alleging that McNeilly had stolen certain articles from his (Elliott's) farm. The search was made but the articles were not found. Other unpleasantness followed and as a result the action was entered. The case occupied a great part of Thursday and ended by the jury bringing a verdict of "not guilty."

An alimony action, Goodwill vs. Goodwill, was adjourned till the June Sessions. This is an action by Mrs. Goodwill of Glenelg against her husband who is doing a three year term in the Kingston Penitentiary on a charge of attempted rape.

Address and Presentation

After choir practise on Saturday evening last, at Proton Anglican church, an address and presentation was given to Miss Ethel Ludlow, previous to her marriage, which event took place on Tuesday. The presentation was made by Mrs. H. Thompson and the following address was read by Mr. J. Neilson:

Dear Ethel:—We, the young people of the Anglican choir, have gathered here this evening to show our appreciation to you as our organist, who has worked so faithful and cheerful in the past, which we hope you will be able to continue in the future. We wish you every success in your new life and trust that God's blessing may follow you in your new home. We ask you to accept this gift, not for its value, but as a very slight token of our good wishes.

Signed on behalf of the choir—Mrs. H. Thompson, Mr. J. Neilson.

DUNDALK

Just as we go to press we learn of the passing away this Wednesday morning of Mrs. Thomas Talbot, an aged resident of Dundalk and a pioneer of Inistioge district.

A Choral Society is being talked up in Dundalk under the leadership of Mr. Thrasher of Owen Sound. The movement is a worthy one and all interested in vocal music will no doubt support the enterprise.—Herald.

The Flesherton Bible Depository has just placed in stock the largest selection of Bibles and Testaments ever shown here, ranging in price from a few cents to five dollars. There are some very fine gift books and family Bibles in this lot. The Depository is kept at The Advance Office.
