PALE PEOPLE

Have their blood enriched, their heart strengthened and their cheeks rosy by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Insufficient quantity or poor quality of the blood is one of the evil results that usually follow any derangement of the heart.

If the heart becomes weakened in any way it cannot pump the blood to the lungs as it should, there to be purified and impregnated with the life-giving oxygen.

As a result the blood deteriorates. It loses its nourishing, vitalizing, health-giving qualities. The face becomes pale, thin and waxen, the lips bloodless, the hands and feet cold.

There is weakness, tiredness, shortness of breath and palpitation. When those suffering from thin or watery blood start taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills they are assured of a cure. Every dose acts on the heart itself, causing it to beat strong, steady and regular.

Every dose, too, introduces into the blood those vital elements necessary to make it rich and red.

Soon the pale cheek takes on the rosy hue of health, there is strength instead of weakness, energy and activity take the place of tiredness and lassitude.

Miss M. Skullion, 50 Turner Street, Ottawa, Ont., says: "I was greatly troubled with my heart, together with extreme nervousness for many years. These complaints brought about great weakness and feeling of tiredness. My blood was of poor quality, so much so that I became pale and languid. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cured me after all else failed. They built up my system, enriched my blood, strengthened my nerves and restored me to health."

From Unrecognized Heroes

BY JOAQUIN MILLER

And what for the man who went forth for the right,
Was hit in the battle and shorn of a limb?
What honor for him who fell in the fight,
Falls wounded of limb and crippled for life;
Give honor, give glory, give pensions for him,
Give a read and give shelter for babes and for wife.

But what of the hero who battles along,
In battles of thought where God set him down,
Who fought all alone and who fell overthrown
I tell you 'twere better to cherish that soul—
That soldier who battles with thought for a sword,
That climbs the steep ramparts where wrong has control,
And falls beaten back by the rude trampling horde.
Ah, better to cherish his words and his worth,
Than all the Napoleons that people the earth.

The Sabbath is finding friends even in France where the Lord's Day has long been given over to sport and business. But that this day is held at the peril of public interests appears, when the French government itself becomes the patron of an international convention called to consider the question of Sunday as a legally and socially recognized day of rest. The sessions will be held in the Palais du Congres of the exhibition, there being two sessions daily, at 9 and at 2 o'clock.

The president of the organizing committee is Senator Berenger, and representatives from both Catholic and Protestant clergy are on the committee, which includes members of Parliament, economists and statists, and delegates from various chambers of commerce, manufacturers' unions and railway companies. The tide has been against the preservation of the seventh day of rest. It has already turned in its favor, both in Gaeat Britain and on the continent. How long before the forces which are now working in America for the overthrow of this sacred institution, will be turned and put to rout by sober public opinion?

The Seed and the Grave

In the town of Hanover, in Germany, there is buried a German Countess who denied the existence of God and ridiculed the idea of the ressurection. To further show her contempt for Christianity, she ordered that on her death her grave should be built up of solid masonry and covered by large stones bound together by iron clamps. On this tomb was engraved her defiant challenge that through eternity this tomb should never be disturbed.

But one day the seed from some tree either blown by the wind or carried by a bird, became lodged in a small crevice of the tomb, where soon it sprouted and began to grow. And then as if nature had seemed to mock the haughty infidle, she quietly extended the delicate roots of that seedling under the massive blocks of stone and slowly raised them from their place. And now, although scarce four generations have passed since that tomb was sealed, that most insignificant seedling has accomplished what God himself was challenged to accomplish.—D. L. Moody.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident, of which Mr John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first make a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cts a bottle, every bottle guaranteed. Sold by R L Stephen.

To keep a piano in proper condition be careful not to have many large plants in the room with it, particularly if they be of a big leave variety. Such plants (as is well known) exude a good deal of moisture, and this in time most injuriously affects the instrument.

Carpenters' Kidneys.

Carpentering is not an easy trade. The constant reaching up and down, the lifting and stooping over are all severe strains on the kidneys. No wonder a carpenter exclaimed, recently, that every time he drove a nail it seemed as though he was piercing his own back. He uses now on the first sign of Backache and is able to follow his trade with comfort and profit.

DOAN'S Kidney Pills

"I have had kidney and urinary troubles for more than three years with severe pain in the small of my back and in both sides. I could not stoop without great difficulty, and I had severe neuralgic pain in both temples. Seeing the advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box. They have given me quick relief, removing the pain from the back and sides, and banishing the neuralgic pains from my head. The urinary difficulty is now entirely gone. I feel fresh and vigorous in the mornings, and am much stronger in every way since taking these pills." CLARENCE E. SEEDS, Carpenter and Builder, Trenton, Ont.
