Induction Service

The induction of Rev. F. G. Fowler to the pastorate of Flesherton, Proton and Eugenia Presbyterian Churches took place in the Presbyterian Church here on Thursday afternoon, May 6.

Rev. F. C. Harper of Hillsburg preached the induction sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. At the close of his sermon fitting reference was made by him to the memory of four former members of the church here who lost their lives in the great war, after which a handsome shield containing the names of the fallen, namely: Gnr. Chas. McMullen, Pte. Ira Perigo, Pte. Chas. Thistlethwaite and Pte. Max Bannon, was unveiled by Lieut. J. A. Legard.

Rev. C. S. Jones of Priceville, interim moderator, presided and inducted the new minister to his charge.

Mr. T. O. Goldsmith favored the congregation with an excellently rendered solo, which was highly appreciated.

After the induction Rev. G. W. Rose of Corbetton preached to the new minister and Rev. A. E. Thornley of Shelburne preached a strong and able sermon to the congregation. The service closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

The ladies of the congregation lived up to their fine reputation and served a sumptuous repast in the basement at the close.
