Cough Caution

Never, positively never poison your lungs. If you cough—even from a simple cold only—you should always heal, soothe, and ease the irritated bronchial tubes. Don't blindly suppress it with a stupefying poison. It's strange how some things finally come about. For twenty years Dr. Shoop has constantly warned people not to take cough mixtures or prescriptions containing Opium, Chloroform, or similar poisons. And now—a little late though—Congress says "Put it on the label if poisons are in your Cough Mixture." Good! Very good!! Hereafter for this very reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance then, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and note the difference. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding

BEWARE OF FREQUENT COLDS

A succession of colds or a protracted cold is almost certain to end in chronic catarrh, from which few persons ever wholly recover. Give every cold the attention it deserves and you may avoid this disagreeable disease. How can you cure a cold? Why not try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended. Mrs. M. White, of Butler, Tenn., says: "Several years ago, I was bothered with my throat and lungs. Someone told me of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I began using it and it relieved me at once. I used it for some time and it cured me. Now my throat and lungs are sound and well." For sale by R. L. Stephen.

PHYSICIAN GIVES ADVICE

Tells Why So Many Suffer from Catarrh and Rheumatism.

A distinguished physician, famous for his successful treatment of catarrh and rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, states as follows:—

"Our climate being more or less damp and changeable, is bad for catarrh and rheumatism, and care must be taken not to let these troubles gain headway. In addition, he states that a great many Canadians are careless in their habits, and to this as much as climatic conditions is due a great deal of the trouble. Insufficient clothing and improper eating will cause rheumatic and catarrhal troubles in any climate.

This eminent authority gives the following as the simplest and best treatment known to science, and to it he gives credit largely for his success:—

Fluid Extract Cascara	½ oz.
Carriana Compound	1 oz.
Syrup Sarsaparilla	6 oz.

Directions: One teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

The ingredients are all vegetable, and have a direct and specific action on the liver, kidneys, and bowels, eliminating all poisonous matter from the system. Any druggist can dispense this, or you can buy the ingredients separately and mix at home by shaking in a bottle.

Many of our readers should benefit by this article. Save the recipe.

Messrs. N. and B. Merrifield, of Meaford, have gone to Mount Forest to start a theatorium.

Preventics, the new Candy Cold Tablets, are said by druggists to have four special specific advantages over all other remedies for a cold. First—They contain no quinine, nothing harsh or sickening. Second—they give almost instant relief. Third—pleasant to the taste, like candy. Fourth—a large box—48 Preventics—at 25 cents. Also fine for feverish children. Sold by W. Turner & Co.

Local Option Campaigns.

The local option campaign over the Province is now in full swing, and nearly one hundred contests will take place. Of these 59 will be in municipalities where no vote was taken before and 211 bars are open; three will vote where local option failed to carry three years ago, and five bars are open; and in 31 places the hotel men are attempting a repeal where local option has been in force the necessary three years, and 103 bars were closed. The coming elections will witness one of the keenest struggles in the history of the campaigns, for votes will be taken in one city, Woodstock, and several large towns, such as Owen Sound, Picton, Ingersoll, Tilsonburg and Whitby. Owen Sound is the storm centre, for local option carried there three years ago by nearly two to one. Last January the temperance forces were routed in the municipal campaign, and prophecies were freely made that a similar fate would befall them in the coming repeal contest, but the law has since that time been rigidly enforced; nearly half a dozen hotel men imprisoned, others fined, and with a good organization the temperance people expect to win back the strength of three years ago. The revision of the Owen Sound voters list took place last week. 598 appeals were made by the local optionists and they were successful in 451, while the antis introduced 193 appeals and succeeded in 103. Out of 109 places where local option has been in force three years or more there will be repeals attempted in only 31.

The Conundrum Social held in Inistogue church on Wednesday evening last was a splendid success and was very enjoyable throughout. After lunch was served in the hall a highly interesting program was rendered in the church, consisting of solos by Rev. Mr. Laidlaw, Misses Viola Rennie and Reta Wyville; a number of recitations; a Scotch reading by Mr. E. Duncan, also a well rendered dialogue, "An Old Maid," which was cleverly given. Rev. Mr. Laidlaw acted as chairman. Proceeds amounted to $7.55.

No Liquor for Railway Men.

The Georgetown Herald says:—Under a statute passed in 1906, hotelkeepers are forbidden to sell to a railway employee any intoxicating liquor, while the latter is on duty. Under the act the proprietor of the Exchange hotel here was charged on Wednesday last that he "did sell, give or barter spirituous or intoxicating liquor to Wm. Johnston, conductor, and Alex. Ross, engineer, of the Grand Trunk Railway, while actually employed in the course of their duty in connection with the operation of a train, and that such liquor was supplied by his bartender." The Grand Trunk, through Mr. W. I. Dick, prosecuted, and Lawyer James Haverson appeared for the defendant. A fine of $10 and costs was imposed.

DOES NO HARM BUT MUCH GOOD.

Many of Our Citizens Speak Well of the Home Prescription Which Helped Them to Health.

Mix the following by shaking well in a bottle, and take in teaspoonful doses after meals and at bedtime.

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. A local druggist is the authority that these simple, harmless ingredients can be obtained at nominal cost from our home druggist.

The mixture is said to cleanse and strengthen the clogged and inactive kidneys, overcoming backache, bladder weakness and urinary trouble of all kinds, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease.

Those who have tried this say it positively overcomes pain in the back, clears the urine of sediment and regulates urination, especially at night, even curing the worst form of bladder weakness.

Every man or woman here who feels that the kidneys are not strong or acting in a healthy manner should mix this prescription at home and give it a trial, as it is said to do wonders for many persons.

The Freedom of the Will.

(Written for The Standard.)

Is man a free agent, or is freedom a delusion, a trick of nature which serves for the ends of virtue? If it is true, as some people believe, who are carried away with the evolutionary theory of Darwin, that freedom is a delusion, it must be a sad and pitiable spectacle to see the successive generations of humanity believing that they are free agents, when according to their theory they are not. If we are determined, if our wills are not free, what then is the meaning of righteous indignation at the misconduct of other people? What is the meaning of having indignation at our own misdeeds? What place can self-condemnation, remorse, repentance, have in our life, unless it is a trick of nature for the promotion of virtue and the survival of society? Why should we admire some people and condem others, if this theory be true? The fact that universal humanity in all the ages of history have believed in freedom, the fact that we have feelings of righteous indignation, and moral admiration, prove conclusively in spite of all the difficulties and obscurities to the contrary, than man is a free agent, that he is responsible for his actions, and that his freedom is the pledge and promise of his development. Our reason is our guide through life, and we can trust it. If it breaks down here we are logically bound to discredit it in its other functions. Heredity does not necessarily determine a man's destiny, but it does determine what kind of struggle he will have. Deny the freedom of the will and you cut the nerve of all moral effort and aspiration, and at one blow destroy the foundation pillars of human society and of human happiness. Assert freedom and you proclaim the gospel of hope and raise the most effective barriers around all that is sacred and worthy in human life.

To Organize Board of Trade.

A meeting was held in the council chamber, Tara, on Tuesday evening to discuss the question of "How to promote the business interests of Tara." The meeting was not a regularly called one by advertisement but a number of invitations had been given out to the business men to attend and a majority of the business men were present. Mr. T. Barber, reeve of the village, occupied the chair and called upon Mr. C. R. Tobey, who had been the ruling spirit in the movement, to explain the object of the meeting. Mr. Tobey advocated the co-operation of all the business interests in the formation of some kind of a league which would study how best to promote the best interests of the village. The promotion of a Board of Trade and a Market Day were some of the leading features of the paper. After the reading of the paper a number of the business men were invited to express their views. The unanimous conclusion was that a Board of Trade should be organized. A committee was then appointed composed of Messrs. C. R. Tobey, L. B. Cook, J. R. VanDusen, A. McDonald and Mr. Sangster, to prepare a constitution and by-laws, canvass for members and then call a meeting to proceed with the organization and election of officers.—Tara Leader.

A QUEER MIX UP.

This is a topsy turvy world. No one seems to be satisfied. One man is struggling to get justice, and another is flying from it. One man is saving up to buy a house, and another is trying hard to sell his dwelling for less than it cost to get rid of it. One man is spending all the money he can earn in taking a girl to a concert or show and sending her valuable presents in hopes that he may eventually make her his wife, and his neighbor is spending all the gold he has trying to get a divorce. One man keeps a pistol to protect himself against burglars, while his neighbor doesn't keep one for fear of shooting himself or some member of the family. One man pays for his paper in advance because he can read it with a greater relish, while another takes it four or five years without paying one cent for it and enjoys it hugely all the while. Surely a queer old world this is.

When a woman has occasion to visit her poor relations she always likes to talk about the trouble she has with her hired girl.

IT IS A WONDER.

Chamberlain's Liniment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the relief of rheumatic pains, and for lame back, sprains and bruises. The relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price, 25c, large size, 50c. For sale by R. L. Stephen.

NO MORE HEADACHES

Sufferer Cured — Constant Headaches—"Fruit-a-tives" When Doctors Failed.

"I was ... from fearful headaches for two years, sometimes ... that I was unable to work days at a time. I took all kinds of medicines, was treated by physicians and yet the headaches persisted. I was rarely free from headache. A short time ago I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and I did so. I must confess, very little faith. But after I had taken them for two weeks my headaches were less severe and a week they left me. After taking a box of the tablets my headaches were quite cured. My appetite was always poor and my stomach weak and now my appetite is splendid and my digestion is excellent. I become thin and weak from constant headaches, but now I keep cured of all these headaches, but my strength is coming me once more, and I feel like a new man. I have taken three boxes of "Fruit-a-tives" and I am exceedingly grateful to you for curing me and I give this testimonial with great pleasure as I hope thereby some sufferer of headaches will be induced to try "Fruit-a-tives" and will be cured.

(Sgd.) B. Cornell.

"Fruit-a-tives" is now put up in the same size as well as the regular size. Write Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, if your dealer will not supply you.

BIG DAY TO YOUR TOWN.

When one finds he is out of sympathy with his town, and can only say a good word for it coupled with an apology, he ought to get busy. Many people fall into a habit of unconscious habit of growling. This is a miserable habit. Such people make of themselves a dead weight, while of course they imagine themselves particularly independent. The individual has what he can do to get along his own loads, and he wants encouragement from those who are identified with him in interest. So with a town. It has its interests to look after, and it needs all the pluck, all the energy, all the co-operation and all the business its citizens can provide and bring to bear. Every man is a part of his town. The town makes the fortunes, and the fortune measures at least takes on the character of the man. So one's town is no more apart to one's self; and what is in the line of all human nature. Therefore it is right to say that the man who does not stand up for his town is in some way dwarfed. There is something wrong about him. His fellows will pass this judgment upon him, and the chances are that while he may add to the comfort of others, he will escape making himself unhappy.

AND SHE ESCAPED.

Sap—There goes young Sap. He took his fiancee out last summer, rocked the boat, and the poor girl was drowned.

Sue—Lucky girl!

Sap—Why do you say that?

Sue—Why, she might have married the idiot.

SURPRISED MINISTER.

For many years I have been a sufferer from bronchial catarrh, and despaired of anything like a cure. Before my pleasant surprise I first used Hyomei, which brought complete relief. Hyomei has been a veritable godsend.'—Rev. Charles Hartley, Sardinia, Ont.

Thousands of catarrh sufferers have given up in despair. They have tried stomach dosing, snuff, sprays and douches without success and now believe catarrh to be incurable.

W. Turner & Co., the druggists, hold out hope to all distressed ones and sells a remedy called Hyomei which is guaranteed for catarrh, colds, coughs, bronchitis, asthma and croup.

Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is medicated air, full of the healthy vitality of the mountain pines. You breathe it in the delightful antiseptic air and as it passes over the inflamed, germ ridden membrane, it allays the inflammation, kills the germs and drives out the disease. A complete Hyomei outfit, including a hard rubber inhaler, costs but $1.00, and an extra bottle of Hyomei if afterwards needed, costs but 50c. See W. Turner & Co. about it to-day.
